NEW YORK GIANTS TRAINING FACILITY

JERRY PINKUS

The Giants have found the perfect corporate partner for the precise and punctual Tom Coughlin.

The organization announced on June 17, 2009 a unique partnership with Timex Group USA, Inc. that enables both brands the opportunity to collaborate on training solutions for athletes of all levels that participate in various sports across the world. This partnership grants TIMEX, one of the world's largest watch companies, the naming rights for the Giants' new training facility and corporate headquarters. The facility has been named the TIMEX Performance Center.

"TIMEX is making a major commitment to growing its brand and we are very fortunate that they have chosen the Giants as one of the vehicles to help them do so," said John Mara, the Giants' President and Chief Executive Officer. "Our partnership with Timex is not your typical marketing partnership or naming rights agreement. It is a working relationship to enhance our mutual operations, namely TIMEX products, our player and coach preparation and training. TIMEX shares our core principles and attributes of loyalty to our customers and striving to be the best that we can be in our respective fields. Both of our companies have deep roots here in the New York/New Jersey/Connecticut metropolitan area. We share a deep sense of commitment to our community and we both have an unwavering commitment to corporate social responsibility. All of those factors help to forge our relationship."

Coughlin, who famously likes to begin meetings and practices five minutes ahead of schedule, is thrilled that TIMEX has affixed its name to what he consider the NFL's gold standard in training facilities.

"We are very proud to announce that TIMEX will be an all-pro along with the New York Giants," Coughlin said. "I have been asked many times, but most recently this morning, how do I feel about our new facility? Everyday is Christmas, are you kidding me? Everyday is Christmas. I sit in an office, I look out a window, I look at three magnificent grass fields that will be there for us when we return from training camp. Our players are excited to be here."

In addition to the naming rights, the 15-year agreement calls for TIMEX, as the Official Performance Equipment of the New York Giants, to have its brand integrated into the Giants game day experience at Giants Stadium during the 2009 season and the Giants' new stadium set to open in 2010. At the new stadium, Giants fans will see a TIMEX "Countdown to Kickoff Clock" on the video towers that encircle the perimeter of the facility. Additional branding programs include a major sponsorship with New York Giants Radio Network, Giants.com, the "Giants GameDay" television show on WNBC, and placement within the Giants' health and fitness magazine, "Giants Health Monitor," which is distributed in more than 10,000 doctors' offices around the New York metro area.

"TIMEX and the New York Giants are two icons that have a lot in common," said Hans-Kristian Hoejgaard President and CEO of TIMEX Group. "Not the least, a huge, loyal following of fans. It is also history coming together. TIMEX Group was founded in 1854, the Giants in 1925. We are bringing a lot of heritage and history to the table. More importantly, for generations, both companies have had great families behind them. For generations, it means long-term commitment, it means integrity, it means trust. All of us who are in brand building know what that means, not the least in times like this. But when you have been around for a long time - TIMEX Group for over 150 years, the Giants for over 80 years - you always run the risk of becoming complacent. It is very important that we do understand our business by looking backward, but that we really understand that we need to look forward to run our business. Today is all about being forward looking."

"The partnership with the Giants gives us a whole new opportunity to broaden our consumer touch points. We share with the Giants our unwavering commitment to corporate-social responsibility. Both organizations play a role as good corporate citizens in the communities in which they operate. We are committed to taking care of the environment. We support philanthropic activities where we live. This is a 15-year partnership that will mean a lot and play a key role in TIMEX product development in research and design. I hope very much that this is just the beginning of a partnership that will only deepen and extend over time. I want to thank the Mara and the Tisch families for the environment of trust, openness and professionalism conducted during our negotiations. I want to wish the Giants a great season ahead and wish for our joint partnership that this will indeed be of great mutual benefit."

The complex also includes four full-length fields; three natural grass full-length fields, one FieldTurf synthetic field in the field house, and one 80-yard FieldTurf outdoor synthetic field.

Designed by architectural and design firm EwingCole and constructed by Joseph A. Natoli Construction Corporation, the Giants training complex serves as the home for the entire Giants organization (except the ticket office) and is equipped with conference rooms, work space and state-of-the-art technology to create an efficient and friendly work environment.

In 2010, the Giants moved into a beautiful, new, state-of-the-art stadium built just a few yards from where Giants Stadium sat for more than three decades. The nation's finest football stadium, it seats 82,500 fans. It is one of the NFL's most technologically advanced stadiums and took more than 4 million man-hours and $1.6 billion to build. The stadium features over 9,000 club seats, 221 suites and 130,000 square feet of state-of-the-art club lounges. The first row of seats is just 46 feet from the sidelines and the sightlines are superb. The site of Super Bowl XLVIII, the Giants' new home is 2.1 million square feet, compared to Giants Stadium's 900,000 square feet. It has four 30 feet by 118 feet high definition video screens, a 350,000 square foot outdoor plaza filled with interactive activities for fans of all ages.

The Giants' beautiful new home has a new name this season.

On August 23, the Giants, Jets and MetLife announced the signing of a 25-year agreement to name the teams' home venue MetLife Stadium.

"Our partnership with the Giants and Jets goes back to 2008 when we became the first cornerstone sponsor here at the stadium," said Steven A. Kandarian, president and chief executive officer of MetLife. "This expanded partnership provides significant benefits for both sides. MetLife secures the naming rights to a world class venue that will extend the reach of our brand to levels unmatched in the industry. And the Jets and Giants gain a sponsor with a history of financial strength and a brand as strong and storied as their own. MetLife Stadium is clearly one of the world's premier sports marketing facilities."

The NFL's premier venue opened for business in 2010. In addition to being the only stadium that is home to two NFL teams, it will be the site of Super Bowl XLVIII in 2014 and hosts dozens of non-NFL events each year including concerts, NCAA football games and international soccer matches.

The entire Meadowlands Sports Complex has been renamed The MetLife Sports Complex.

"It will truly be an honor for our team to be affiliated with such a wonderful partner for the next 25 years," said John Mara, president and chief executive officer of the Giants. "I know how much MetLife means to so many in New York and New Jersey, as an employer, as a trusted provider of financial services, and as a great corporate citizen. The company's huge presence and influence in our area makes it a natural fit for this stadium and the strength, stability and quality of MetLife matches perfectly with the characteristics that the Giants try to achieve in all aspects of our aspirations. MetLife is a true leader in its industry and brings a powerful, well-known brand that reflects very well on our stadium and what we're trying to accomplish here. For the Giants in particular, MetLife's reputation and long history are very appealing qualities that resonate with us on a very basic level. We are both organizations that value heritage and legacy."

"MetLife Stadium immediately joins the ranks of the most prestigious, high-profile sports-branded venues in the world, and that's the way it should be," said Steve Tisch, the Giants' chairman and executive vice president. "If you look at MetLife and the marketing and branding assets they have, you can understand how proud we feel that they have selected our stadium as the one they want their name on. Clearly MetLife realizes what a unique situation we have: two NFL home teams and twice as many games over the course of the season. And of course, we are very proud that MetLife has recognized just what a fantastic, one-of-a-kind facility this stadium is. Having watched this stadium rise and having enjoyed playing in it last season, the Giants are delighted that we have a naming partner that understands and appreciates the great utility and design excellence of this venue."

JOHN K. MARA

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

John K. Mara is in his 22nd season with the Giants. The franchise's President and Chief Executive Officer, he assumed the team presidency upon the passing of his father, Wellington Mara, in 2005. John Mara is the oldest of Wellington Mara's 11 children. He had been the team's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. In his present position, Mara, who joined the Giants in 1991, is responsible for all administrative, legal and financial aspects of the organization.

With team Chairman Steve Tisch, Mara was at the forefront of the planning and negotiations for MetLife Stadium, where the Giants began playing their home games in 2010 after 34 seasons in Giants Stadium. In addition, Mara, Steve Tisch and Jonathan Tisch, as well as Jets owner Woody Johnson, headlined the committee that helped convince the NFL owners to award Super Bowl XLVIII to MetLife Stadium in February 2014.

Mara is the chairman of the NFL Management Council Executive Committee and played an important role in negotiating a new collective bargaining agreement with the NFLPA. He also has served for 12 years on the influential NFL Competition Committee, which studies all aspects of the game and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs, as well as the league's Health and Safety Committee and the Committee on Workplace Diversity.

Mara has been affiliated with the Giants his entire life. The franchise was founded in 1925 by his grandfather, Tim Mara. Wellington Mara was one of the most influential, respected and beloved executives in NFL history. Since John Mara joined the organization in an official capacity, the Giants have reached the playoffs nine times, won five NFC East titles and played in three Super Bowls, winning two.

Born in New York City on Dec. 1, 1954, Mara grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. Mara earned his law degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammlholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the Manhattan firm of Shea & Gould, where he practiced until joining the Giants.

Mara serves on the Board of Directors of Saint Vincent's Hospital in Harrison, N.Y. and Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, are the parents of five children: Lauren, Courtney, John Jr., Christine and Erin. They also have four grandchildren, Christopher, Jack, Hailey and Thomas. The Mara family resides in Harrison, N.Y.

STEVE TISCH

CHAIRMAN AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Steve Tisch has the distinction of being the only person on the planet with both an Academy Award and two Super Bowl rings. He won the former as one of the producers of "Forrest Gump," which was awarded the Oscar for Best Picture of 1994, and the latter as Chairman of the Giants, who defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI.

Tisch joined the Giants organization as Executive Vice President in July 2005. He has been intimately involved with the team since his father, Preston Robert Tisch, purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991. With the passing of his father in 2005, Steve Tisch assumed the additional title of Chairman. In the previous three years, Steve worked closely with John Mara on the planning and construction for MetLife Stadium, the beautiful venue that has been home to the Giants since 2010. MetLife Stadium is a joint venture with the New York Jets.

In addition, Steve joined Mara, his brother Jonathan (the Giants' Treasurer) and Jets owner Woody Johnson in leading the team's successful bid to bring Super Bowl XLVIII to MetLife Stadium in February 2014. It will be the first Super Bowl played in an open-air stadium in a cold weather region.

Tisch is one of the most successful producers in the motion picture industry. He is a partner in Escape Artists, an independently financed film production company based at Sony Pictures Entertainment. His television and feature film projects have consistently focused on the lives of everyday people and the vital impact they have in society.

One of Tisch's most noteworthy achievements was the production of "Forrest Gump," which was named Best Picture at both the Academy Awards and the Golden Globes. "Forrest Gump," which was nominated for 13 Academy Awards and won nine, remains one of the 30 highest domestic box office grossing films in history.

Another Tisch film, "The Pursuit of Happyness," starring Will Smith, was released by Columbia Pictures in December 2006 and became one of the biggest hits of the year. Tisch's other credits with Escape Artists include "The Weather Man," "Seven Pounds," "Knowing," "The Taking of Pelham 123" and "The Back-Up Plan." Escape

Artists' latest film, "Hope Springs," starring Meryl Streep, Tommy Lee Jones and Steve Carell, will be released in July 2012.

Tisch began his career in entertainment when he was a student at Tufts University. His summer jobs included booking films in the family's movie theater chain, working for director John Avildsen and serving an apprenticeship under Otto Preminger. Upon his graduation, Tisch worked as Peter Guber's assistant at Columbia Pictures. At 22, he became an executive at the studio, and during his four-year tenure he worked on such films as "The Lords of Flatbush," "Tommy" and "The Last Detail."

In 1976, Tisch left Columbia to produce his first motion picture, "Outlaw Blues." Tisch met Jon Avnet during the shoot and the pair soon formed Tisch/Avnet Productions. The company's successes included the runaway 1983 hit "Risky Business." Tisch/Avnet also produced many acclaimed television films, including "The Burning Bed," which received 11 Emmy nominations and numerous other awards and was credited with providing many women with the courage to seek help from physical abuse.

Tisch/Avnet's other television film credits include "Silence of the Heart," "Something so Right," "Prime Suspect," "No Other Love," "Call to Glory" and "Homeward Bound" (winner of a Christopher Award).

In 1986, Tisch formed his own production company, the Steve Tisch Company, which has produced many films, including "The Postman," "Wild America," "The Long Kiss Goodbye," "Corrina, Corrina," "Big Business," and "Bad Influence." Tisch also served as Executive Producer on "American History X," "Lock, Stock & Two Smoking Barrels," and "Snatch."

Tisch has long been a leader in philanthropic ventures. In April 1991, he was elected to the AIDS Project Los Angeles' Board of Directors. During his tenure, Tisch served as both Board Chair and Chair of the Development Committee.

Tisch has also generously contributed his time and resources to such organizations as The H.E.L.P. Group and the ERAS Center. He is also a member of the Board of Advisors at the Tisch School of the Arts at New York University and is on the Board of Trustees of The Geffen Theatre in Los Angeles, The Sundance Institute, The Los Angeles County Museum of Art and The Preston Robert Tisch Brain Cancer Center at Duke University.

CHRIS MARA

SR. VICE PRESIDENT, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Chris Mara joined the Giants as Vice President of Player Evaluation on July 29, 2003. He was promoted to his position of Senior Vice President, Player Personnel in 2011.

This is Mara's second tour of duty with the franchise. He joined the Giants staff prior to the 1979 season and over the next 14 years was a member of the club's player personnel department. Mara was a scout during the franchise's first two Super Bowl Championship seasons in 1986 and 1990.

Following his first stint with the Giants, Mara spent eight years (1994-2001) operating ProRate, Inc., an independent football scouting service contracted by as many as 15 NFL franchises. The service provided an evaluation of the free agent market in the NFL.

Mara spent 2001-02 as the President/General Manager of the New Jersey Gladiators of the Arena Football League. Mara oversaw a myriad of responsibilities including ticket sales, operations, and the arena lease. His primary focus was on player personnel and player contracts. Mara brought his extensive knowledge of professional football to the team and revived the struggling franchise in just one season.

After a difficult first season, the Gladiators posted a 9-5 record in 2002 and a first-place finish in the Eastern Division of the National Conference. Posting the biggest turnaround in AFL history, the Gladiators finished the 2002 regular season with seven more victories than the previous year and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in franchise history.

Mara graduated from Iona Prep in New Rochelle, N.Y. where he was a standout defensive back for three seasons, winning All-Catholic High School Athletic Association recognition after his senior year.

He began his collegiate career at Springfield College, where he was a defensive back on the freshman team and lettered on the varsity golf team. He then transferred to Boston College, where he earned a B.A. in the Arts and Sciences. During his scholastic and collegiate days, Mara spent many summers working at Giants training camps. During the regular season, he worked with broadcast teams from both CBS-TV and NBC-TV, as well as with visiting and home radio broadcast groups.

Mara was born in New York City. He is married to the former Kathleen Rooney and the couple has four children- Daniel, Kate, Rooney and Conor – and three grandchildren, Judith Kailee, Wellington Rooney and Ann MacKenna (Daniel's children).

JONATHAN M. TISCH TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch is a Co-Owner and the Treasurer of the New York Giants and also serves on the Giants Board of Directors. Tisch is Co-Chairman of the Board and a member of the Office of the President of Loews Corporation, one of the largest diversified financial holding companies in the United States, and is Chairman of its subsidiary, Loews Hotels.

During his tenure as CEO of Loews Hotels from 1989 through 2011, Tisch engineered the company's expansion and emergence as a leading luxury hotel brand by infusing the properties with a widely praised corporate culture that places a high value on partnerships that empower employees, satisfy customers, contribute to communities, and improve the bottom line. Believing you can do well and do good at the same time, Tisch is a champion of corporate responsibility and has devoted a lifetime to active citizenship—an idea that uses the power of partnerships and grassroots participation to solve seemingly intractable problems.

Tisch is the author of three best-selling books that explore his leadership philosophy, the role of the customer experience and civic engagement: The Power of We: Succeeding Through Partnerships; Chocolates on the Pillow Aren't Enough: Reinventing the Customer Experience; and Citizen You: Doing Your Part to Change the World.

He is also the host of the Emmy-nominated television series, "Beyond the Boardroom with Jonathan Tisch," where he speaks with some of America's preeminent CEOs and business luminaries in one-on-one interviews. Viewers discover that business is about more than just numbers. Rather, it's the successful combination of people, hard work, guts, and imagination.

Tisch is widely recognized as a passionate advocate on behalf of the multi-billion dollar travel and tourism industry and works tirelessly to educate elected officials and the public at large about the industry's significant economic, social, and diplomatic contributions. Tisch serves as Chairman Emeritus of the United States Travel Association, the national non-profit association representing all segments of the travel industry.

He is also committed to a vibrant tourism industry in New York City, where for nearly six years he served as Chairman of NYC & Company, the city's official tourism marketing agency and convention and visitors bureau. Concurrent with his national efforts to help stimulate travel and tourism in the aftermath of September 11th, Tisch served as Chairman of New York Rising, a task force committed to reviving tourism and the economy in New York City. In recognition for his leadership and civic involvement, Crain's New York Business named Tisch one of the "Top Ten Most Influential Business Leaders" and he was named "CEO of the Year" by the Executive Council of New York in 2006.

Tisch served as the Vice-Chairman of The Welfare to Work Partnership, and currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Tufts University, where he is also the naming benefactor of the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Citizenship and Public Service. He is also on the Board of the Tribeca Film Institute.

His passion for the metropolitan area and love of football prompted Tisch to join Jets owner Woody Johnson as co-chairs of the bid committee established to bring Super Bowl XLVIII to the region. The bid was summarized by the tagline "Make Some History." In an unprecedented decision by NFL team owners, the New York/New Jersey region was awarded the 2014 Super Bowl. The game will be played at MetLife Stadium, the first open-air stadium in a cold-weather region to host a Super Bowl. Tisch and Johnson are co-chairs of the Host Committee.

JERRY REESE

SR. VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Jerry Reese is in his sixth season as the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager. Reese is one of the most successful general managers in the NFL. His first five seasons as head of the franchise's football operations included victories in Super Bowls XLII and XLVI, a 49-31 regular season record and an 8-1 postseason mark. During his tenure the Giants have won two NFC East championships, earned three postseason berths and have finished .500 or better in every season.

Reese was named the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 16, 2007. He succeeded Ernie Accorsi, who had held the positions for nine years before retiring. Reese, who will be 49 when the 2012 season begins, has been a member of the Giants organization since 1994. Prior to becoming the G.M., he spent four seasons as the team's Director of Player Personnel. Reese coordinated the Giants' college scouting, was in charge of the team's draft preparation and ran the draft room as the players were selected. When Accorsi retired, the team's ownership selected Reese as the team's third general manager since 1979, when the late George Young assumed the position. Young held the position until 1997, when Accorsi took over. Accorsi, who had helped convince Reese to leave college scouting and join the pro personnel department of the Giants, promoted him and championed his cause.

The selection of Reese was historic, as he was the third African-American general manager in NFL history, joining Baltimore's Ozzie Newsome and Houston's Rick Smith. It was particularly poignant for Reese to learn of his appointment on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

"I thought about that a lot and it was absolutely perfect timing for this to happen," Reese said. "I don't mean sound cliché, but I really feel it's my time to carry the torch. There are many people who went before me who really suffered through this process, and now it's my time. I'm going to be successful — I have to be successful on a lot of levels."

Reese and the Giants succeeded again in 2011. In the transaction frenzy that followed the end of the lockout, Reese added or re-signed several players who became stalwarts on the Super Bowl champions, including center David Baas, punter Steve Weatherford, running back Ahmad Bradshaw, linebacker Mathias Kiwanuka, offensive lineman Kevin Boothe, safety Deon Grant, defensive lineman Dave Tollefson and defensive tackle Rocky Bernard. Second-year pro Victor Cruz emerged from obscurity to set a franchise record with 1,536 receiving yards on 82 catches. He also scored a touchdown in the victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI. The Giants added an impressive rookie class that included cornerback Prince Amukamara, the team's top draft choice, fullback Henry Hynoski and four linebackers — Jacquian Williams, Greg Jones, Spencer Paysinger and Mark Herzlich — who all contributed during the course of the season. Tight end Jake Ballard, who played in only one game as a rookie in 2010, had a break out 2011 season with 38 catches.

Reese helped put the Giants on the road to a championship soon after becoming general manager in 2007. That year, he re-signed center Shaun O'Hara, which kept the offensive line intact, and added linebacker Kawika Mitchell via free agency and running back Reuben Droughns and kicker Lawrence Tynes in trades. He drafted eight players — Aaron Ross, Steve Smith, Jay Alford, Zak DeOssie, Kevin Boss, Adam Koets, Michael Johnson and Ahmad Bradshaw — who all played during the postseason. During the season, the Giants added important players like fullback Madison Hedgecock and wide receiver/kickoff returner Domenik Hixon.

In addition to helping the Giants win a championship as rookies, many of those players make significant contributions in later years. Smith shattered the franchise record with 107 receptions in 2009. Bradshaw led the Giants in rushing each of the previous two seasons, with 1,235 yards — the seventh-highest total in Giants history — in 2010 and 659 yards in 2011, when he added a team-high 272 yards in the playoffs. DeOssie is a two-time Pro Bowl long snapper who has never missed a game in his career.

In 2008, Reese's ability to acquire important players helped the Giants win the NFC east title with a 12-4 record. Linebacker Danny Clark was signed in March and was the Giants' starting strongside linebacker for two years. Backup David Carr is the team's backup quarterback for the fourth time in five seasons. When Tynes was injured in the preseason, Reese signed 21-year veteran John Carney, whose 143 points were the second-most in Giants history. The Giants also drafted Kenny Phillips, Terrell Thomas and Mario Manningham, all of whom made significant contributions to successful teams. Thomas has led the Giants in tackles and interceptions in both 2009 and 2010 before missing the 2011 season with a knee injury.

The 2009 draft class was headlined by wide receiver Hakeem Nicks. As a rookie, Nicks caught 47 passes for 790 yards, both the third-highest total among rookies in Giants history – despite missing two games. Nicks' 790 yards tied for first among all NFL rookies with Minnesota's Percy Harvin. In 2010, Nicks emerged with 79 catches for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns in only 13 games. Last year, Nicks had 1,192 receiving yards to join Cruz as the only pair of Giants in history with at least 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. Will Beatty, chosen on the second round in 2009, is the team's starting left tackle. That year, Reese also added veterans Michael Boley, Chris Canty and Bernard on defense. All three defenders were critical players in the 2011 title season.

Reese continued to acquire key players in 2010. He shored up a position where the Giants were short-staffed by importing safeties Antrel Rolle and Grant. Those two safeties teamed with Phillips to give the Giants much-improved play at that vital position. Rolle was selected to the NFL Pro Bowl team.

The 2010 first-round draft choice was defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul, whose 4.5 sacks were the most by a Giants rookie since Cornelius Griffin had 5.0 in 2000. Pierre-Paul had two sacks vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 28 and two against Washington the following week to become the first rookie in Giants history with at least two sacks in consecutive games. In 2011, Pierre-Paul was one of the very best defensive players in the NFL. His 16.5 sacks were the fourth-highest total in Giants history. JPP joined Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and Michael Strahan the only Giants with at least 16 sacks in a season. Pierre-Paul was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. He was twice selected NFC Defensive Player of the Week in December – when he was also named NFC Defensive Player of the Month.

While serving as the Giants' Director of Player Personnel, Reese oversaw all aspects of the team's college scouting. During his tenure as personnel director, the Giants drafted Eli Manning, Osi Umenyiora, David Diehl, David Tyree, Chris Snee, Gibril Wilson, Justin Tuck, Brandon Jacobs, Mathias Kiwanuka, Corey Webster and Barry Cofield, all of whom played big roles in the championship season and beyond.

Reese originally joined the Giants' scouting department on Dec. 15, 1994. In the spring of 1999, he became Dave Gettleman's assistant in the pro personnel department. In that position, he scouted the Giants' upcoming opponents and evaluated NFL players. Reese was promoted to Director of Player Personnel on May 1, 2002.

Reese came to the Giants after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is among the leaders on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions. Reese led the team with seven interceptions in 1982 and was UT-Martin's leading tackler in 1984 with 99. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant and as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

In 2008, Reese was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Reese has his bachelor's degree in health and physical education and earned his master's degree in education administration and supervision. In the fall of 1995, Reese was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

Reese, a native of Tiptonville, Tenn., is married to the former Gwen Moore. They have two children, Jasmyne Danielle and Jerry II.

TOM COUGHLIN

HEAD COACH

The 2011 season solidified Tom Coughlin's standing as one of the finest and most successful coaches in NFL history.

The Giants finished 9-7 and won the NFC East championship before winning four postseason games, including their second Super Bowl in five seasons, a 21-17 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI. Coughlin improved to 2-0 in Super Bowls as a head coach. He is the 13th coach to win multiple Super Bowls and is one of 18 coaches with a perfect Super Bowl record.

In 16 seasons as a NFL head coach, Coughlin is 142-114 (.557) in the regular season and 12-7 (.632) in the postseason for an overall record of 154-121 (.560). The 142 regular season victories tie him with new St. Louis Coach Jeff Fisher for 19th place on the all-time list. Coughlin's 154 total victories tie him with Hall of Famer Marv Levy for 17th on the NFL's career list. Coughlin has led the Jacksonville Jaguars and the Giants to five division titles and nine playoff berths.

Coughlin is also one of the very best coaches in the Giants' 88-year history. The 2012 season is Coughlin's ninth with the Giants, making him the second-longest tenured coach in franchise history. Only Hall of Fame Coach Steve Owen, who reigned for 24 seasons from 1930-53, led the team for a longer time period.

Coughlin's 74 regular-season Giants victories are the third-highest total among head coaches in team history, behind only Owen (153) and Bill Parcells (77). His eight Giants postseason victories tie him with Parcells for the franchise record. Coughlin has led the Giants to two NFC East titles and five playoff berths in eight years.

In 2011, Coughlin reached a number of impressive coaching milestones. His 12 postseason victories tie him with former Pittsburgh Coach Bill Cowher for the sixth-highest total in NFL history:

COACHES' POSTSEASON VICTORIES:

- 20: Tom Landry
- 19: Don Shula
- 17: Bill Belichick, Joe Gibbs
- 16: Chuck Noll
- 13: Mike Holmgren
- 12: Tom Coughlin, Bill Cowher

Coughlin and Bill Belichick are the only two active coaches on the list.

The 2011 Giants emulated the 2007 championship team by winning two road postseason games, the NFC Divisional Playoff in Green Bay and the conference championship game in San Francisco. Coughlin has nine postseason victories away from home - seven on the road and two neutral site Super Bowls. Seven of those nine victories were with the Giants in 2007 and 2011. The Giants have won seven consecutive postseason games away from home (five on the road, two neutral sites). Both streaks - five consecutive on the road, seven in a row away from home - are NFL postseason records. Coughlin's seven career road playoff victories tie Hall of Famer Tom Landry for the most in NFL history. Coughlin is 7-4 on the road in the playoffs (5-1 with the Giants). Landry was 7-7.

Coughlin is 7-3 in postseason games against teams he faced in the regular season, including victories over 2011 foes Green Bay, San Francisco and New England.

Coughlin was 65 years, 158 days old when Super Bowl XLVI was played on Feb. 5, making him the oldest coach to win a Super Bowl and the second-oldest to guide his team to the title game. Buffalo's Marv Levy was 68 years old when he coached the last of his four Super Bowls in January 1993. Coughlin is also the fourth-oldest coach to win a Super Bowl as a result of his team's Super Bowl XLII victory.

OLDEST HEAD COACHES TO WIN A SUPER BOWL:

Name	Team	Super Bowl	Years	Days
Tom Coughlin	Giants	XLVI	65	158
Dick Vermeil	St. Louis	XXXIV	63	92
Weeb Ewbank	Jets	III	61	25
Tom Coughlin	Giants	XLII	61	156

Coughlin improved to 2-2 in conference championship games, including 2-0 with the Giants.

The 2011 Giants gained a franchise-record 6,161 yards. The former mark of 6,085 was set in 2010. Those are the only two 6,000-yard seasons in Giants history.

The Giants shattered their franchise record with 4,734 net passing yards. The former mark of 4,019 was set in 2009. Those are the only two 4,000-yard passing seasons in Giants history. In 2011, the Giants also set a team record with 359 pass completions and had at least 200 passing yards in every game for the first time in their history.

Last year, the Giants won five regular-season games in which they trailed in the fourth quarter, tying the franchise record they set in 2002. They tied Denver and Cincinnati for the NFL's second-highest total. Arizona led the league with six.

In the last six seasons, the Giants' regular-season records have been 11-5, 8-8, 10-6, 12-4, 8-8, 10-6 and 9-7. Their six-year streak without a losing record is the Giants' longest since they had 10 in a row from 1954-63.

Coughlin first ascended to the pinnacle of his profession in the 2007 season when he led the Giants to a victory in Super Bowl XLII. The Giants, heavy underdogs entering the game, scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to defeat the previously-undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14. In 2011, the Giants won their fourth Lombardi Trophy, and second under Coughlin, with an unexpected late-season run. A loss to the Washington Redskins on Dec. 18 left the Giants with a 7-7 record. It was their last defeat of the season. Six days later, the Giants defeated the Jets, 29-14. A week later, they crushed Dallas, 31-14, to clinch the NFC East title, their eighth division championship since the 1970 merger. The Giants then defeated Atlanta, Green Bay and San Francisco to advance to Super Bowl XLVI, where they found a familiar foe in New England, a team they had defeated three months earlier. This time, the Giants scored with 57 seconds remaining and held off a late Patriots charge to win, 21-17.

Coughlin's 142 regular-season victories place him tied with Fisher for third among current NFL head coaches, behind New England's Bill Belichick (175) and Washington's Mike Shanahan. (157). Coughlin is the only one of those four coaches to have coached an expansion team. With 154 total victories, Coughlin is third among active coaches, behind Belichick (192) and Shanahan (165).

Coughlin is one of just six active coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Belichick, Shanahan, Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin, New Orleans' Sean Payton and Green Bay's Mike McCarthy. Coughlin, Belichick and Payton are former Giants assistant coaches. Payton will miss the entire 2012 season while serving an NFL suspension.

The two championship seasons, division titles, postseason berths, and streak of seven seasons at .500 or better are successes in a Giants revival that began when Coughlin was named the 16th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 6, 2004. The Giants won only four games in the season prior to his arrival. A longtime successful head coach on the collegiate level and in the NFL, Coughlin was the wide receivers coach of the Giants when they won Super Bowl XXV in 1990. When he returned to the team as head coach, Coughlin quickly put the team back on a path that would ultimately lead to two more Super Bowl victories.

The Giants improved from four to six to 11 victories and the NFC East title in Coughlin's first two seasons with the team. In 2006, they went 8-8 and earned an NFC Wild Card playoff berth. The following season, the Giants were 10-6 in the regular season and again reached postseason play as a Wild Card, which served as a springboard to the team's Super Bowl victory. In 2008, they were again one of the NFL's very best teams at 12-4 and reached the playoffs for the first time following a Super Bowl appearance. Two years later, the Giants were only the sixth double-digit victory team to fall short of the postseason since the NFL's realignment in 2002. Last season, they had one less regular season victory, a fact long forgotten when Coughlin held the Lombardi Trophy on the podium in the center of Lucas Oil Field on Feb. 5.

Coughlin twice led the Jacksonville Jaguars to the AFC Championship Game prior to leading the Giants to victories in two NFC Championship Games. He is one of just six coaches to lead teams to a championship game in each conference since the 1970 merger. The others are Parcells and Dan Reeves (both former Giants coaches), as well as Chuck Knox, Jon Gruden and Tony Dungy.

The 2011 Giants were unique Super Bowl champions. They were the first team to win the title after a) losing seven games in the regular season; b) losing four consecutive games in the regular season; c) finishing with a negative scoring differential (394-400) in the regular season, and d) finishing last in the NFL in rushing in the regular season. They did so thanks to the resilience, toughness and tenacity that has been the hallmarks of Coughlin-coached teams. In their four postseason victories, the Giants defeated 10-6 Atlanta, 15-1 Green Bay, 13-3 San Francisco and 13-3 New England to become the first team to beat four teams in the playoffs with better regular season records. The Giants are the first team to twice win four games in a single postseason (doing it in 2007 and 2011).

Coughlin's 2007 team also set several milestone achievements on their way to the NFL championship. The Giants became the fifth Wild Card team to win the Super Bowl, the second in three years (the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL) and the first from the NFC (the Green Bay Packers joined the list in 2010). They were the second team to win the Super Bowl after winning three postseason games on the road to get there (again joining the 2005 Steelers and again followed three years later by the Packers). The No. 5 Giants were then the lowest-seeded NFC team to win the Super Bowl since the NFL began seeding teams in 1990 (Green Bay was seeded sixth in 2010). Prior to the Giants' victory, a second seed was the previous low NFC team to win a Super Bowl. The 2007 Giants were just the third team to win the Super Bowl after starting the season 0-2. The others were the 1993 Cowboys and the 2001 Patriots.

Perhaps the most impressive characteristic of that title team was its ability to win on the road. The Giants won 10 consecutive games as visitors (seven regular season, three postseason), an NFL single-season record. They were the visiting team in the Super Bowl, which was their 11th consecutive triumph away from Giants Stadium. The Giants won their first 2008 road game, at St. Louis, to extend their road winning streak to 11 games, which tied them with three other teams for the second-longest such streak in NFL history. They achieved much of that success with 11 rookies on their 2007 active roster, a record for a Super Bowl winner.

After their 0-2 start in 2007, the Giants won six consecutive games to become just the fifth team in history and the second since 1947 to follow two opening losses with six straight triumphs. The last of those victories was over the Miami Dolphins in London's Wembley Stadium, which made the Giants the first team to win a regular season game outside of North America.

In 2008, Coughlin led the Giants to the NFC East championship with a 12-4 record. The 12 victories were their highest total since the 2000 NFC champions won 12 games. It was the eighth time in franchise history and the sixth time since the merger that the Giants finished a season with at least 12 victories. The Giants advanced to postseason play for the fourth consecutive season, the first time they accomplished that feat in their history.

Coughlin also led the Jaguars to four consecutive postseason berths (1996-99) and is one of only three coaches in NFL history to accomplish that feat with two different teams. The others are Marty Schottenheimer (Cleveland, 1985-88 and Kansas City, 1990-95) and Mike Holmgren (Green Bay, 1993-98 and Seattle 2003-07).

Under Coughlin, the Giants routinely establish franchise statistical milestones. In 2011, the Giants finished eighth in the NFL in yards per game (385.1), the fourth consecutive season and the fifth time in Coughlin's tenure they were eighth or better. The Giants were fifth in the NFL with a franchise-record 295.9 passing yards a game, their highest ranking since they finished fifth in 1984. In 2010, they finished in the top 10 in the NFL's offensive and defensive rankings. The Giants were fifth on offense with an average of 380.3 yards a game and seventh in defense, allowing an average of 310.8 yards per game. They gained a then franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The previous record was 5,884 yards in 1985. The Giants scored 48 touchdowns, which was tied for the third-highest total in team history. Their 331 first downs were the third-highest total in franchise history – a total they matched in 2011. The team's 62.9 completion percentage was a team record, besting the 62.4 percentage set in 2009. The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010. That was easily the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record five consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5).

Defensively, the 2011 Giants allowed only an average of 14 points in four postseason games, significantly below the 25 points a game given up in the regular season. In 2010, the Giants allowed 347 points, 80 fewer than they gave up the previous season. The Giants finished the season with 46 sacks, their highest total since the 2007 Super Bowl champions led the NFL with 53. The Giants held their opponents to an NFL-best 31.7 success rate on third down conversion attempts (66 of 208).

In 2009, the Giants scored 402 points after scoring 425 the previous year, the first time in franchise history they scored at least 400 points in consecutive seasons. The Giants gained 5,856 yards, then the second-highest total in franchise history. The Giants set a team record with 4,019 net passing yards, the first 4,000-yard season in team history.

From Sept. 20 to Oct. 4, 2009, the Giants won consecutive road games in Dallas, Tampa Bay and Kansas City. They are one of just nine of the 123 teams (7.3 percent) that have played at least three consecutive road games since 1990 to win every game. Both the Giants and Coughlin are on the list twice. The Giants swept a three-game trip in 1994, when they traveled to Houston, Washington and Cleveland on successive weeks. Coughlin's 2001 Jacksonville Jaguars also won three road games in three weeks. Of course, Coughlin's 2007

Giants won three straight road playoff games on the way to Super Bowl XLII.

The 2008 Giants established several milestones and records. The Giants had two more victories than they finished with the previous year to become the fifth defending Super Bowl champion to win more games the season following a championship than they did on their way to winning the Lombardi Trophy (not counting the strike-shortened 1982 season). The Giants were the first defending Super Bowl champion in 10 years — and only the fourth overall — to earn a top seed in the postseason a year after winning the championship game (since seeding began in 1990). Green Bay last season became the fifth team to accomplish the feat — and the Packers promptly lost to the Giants.

Coughlin has always stressed the importance of limiting turnovers. His career turnover differential is plus-47 in the regular season and plus-eight in the postseason. In 2008, the Giants set what was then an NFL record (tied by the Miami Dolphins) by coughing up the ball only 13 times in 16 games (New England established a new mark with just 10 turnovers in 2010). The Giants and Dolphins were the seventh and eighth teams to average less than one turnover a game over a 16-game season. Coughlin has coached two of the teams, the 2002 Jaguars and the 2008 Giants, and was an assistant on another (the 1990 Giants).

The Jaguars' turnover differential during Coughlin's eight-year tenure was plus-34. In seven seasons under Coughlin, the Giants are plus-13, including an NFC-best plus-nine in 2008, when the Giants lost only three fumbles all year.

The 2008 Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. The Giants' run offense finished seventh or better in the league every season from 2005-2008, the first time since 1990-93 that they were in the NFL's top 10 four years in a row. The Giants finished the season with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the second-highest totals in franchise history. They scored 448 points in 1963 and had 356 first downs in 1985.

Three years after setting the franchise rushing mark, the Giants struggled to run the ball. So the 2011 Giants became the best passing team in franchise history with their average of 295.9 yards a game. Eli Manning's 4,933 passing yards were the sixth-highest total in NFL history and Victor Cruz (1,536) and Hakeem Nicks (1,192) became the first pair of 1,000-yard receivers in the same season in Giants history.

Under Coughlin, the Giants are 54-10 when leading at halftime, 57-6 when leading after the third quarter, 58-25 when they rush for at least 100 yards, 43-13 when holding the opposition to less than 100 yards on the ground, and 36-9 when the turnover differential is to their advantage.

Under Coughlin the Giants have averaged 390.5 points per season and had three of the franchise's four 400-point seasons in his first eight years. The Giants averaged 285.6 points a year in the three seasons prior to Coughlin's arrival.

In 2011, the Giants scored 47 touchdowns — one less than they had in 2010, which was their highest total since the 1985 team scored 48. Last year, Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for nine touchdowns and Cruz tied him for the team lead with nine receiving scores. The previous season, Nicks caught 11 touchdown passes and Mario Manningham added nine as they became the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had nine. In addition, Brandon Jacobs rushed for nine touchdowns and Bradshaw eight, the first time the Giants had two backs run for at least eight scores in the same season.

The Giants scored 46 touchdowns in 2009 when Steve Smith (7), Nicks (6), Manningham (5) and Kevin Boss (5) all had at least five touchdown receptions. It was the first time the Giants have had four different receivers with at least five touchdown catches apiece since 1963, when five players reached that total. Del Shofner (9), Frank Gifford (7), Joe Morrison (7), Joe Walton (6) and Phil King (5). The Giants scored 45 touchdowns in both 2005 and 2008. In the first of those seasons, they were only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. The Giants' 5,787 total yards that season were then the third-most in team history and their offense ranked fourth in the NFL with an average of 361.7 yards a game. It was the team's highest ranking since 1972, when the offense also ranked fourth with an average of 320.2 yards a game.

Defensively, the Giants have ranked in the top seven in three of the last five seasons (seventh in 2007, fifth in 2008 and seventh in 2010). When they allowed 292.0 yards a game and were ranked fifth in total defense in 2008, it was their highest ranking since 2000, when they were also fifth. The 292 yards per game were the fewest allowed by the Giants since 2000, when they gave up 284.1. Last year the Giants had 48 sacks — 16.5 by Jason Pierre-Paul — their highest total since the 2007 champions had 53.

The Giants have also had several special teams standouts under Coughlin. In 2011, Lawrence Tynes' 43 extra points without a miss tied for the third-highest single-season total in Giants history. Pat Summerall made all 46 of his PATs in 1961 and Tynes hit 45 in 2009. Tynes has made a team-record 158 consecutive extra points since missing one vs. San Francisco on Oct. 21, 2007. Punter Steve Weatherford's 45.7-yard gross average was the second-highest single-season average in Giants history, surpassed only by Don Chandler's 46.6-yard average in 1969 (minimum 35 punts).

In 2009, Tynes was fifth in the NFL in scoring with a career-high 126 points, the fourth-highest total by a kicker in Giants history. The previous season, three Giants special teams player played in the Pro Bowl — punter Jeff Feagles, kicker John Carney and longsnapper Zak DeOssie. Feagles, who was 42 in 2008, finished the season with a gross average of 44.0 yards and a net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. The net average was a career high. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his first Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average tied for the second-highest of his career and is just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. He averaged 44.0 yards the following year. Carney scored a career-high 143 points, the second-highest figure in Giants history and just five less than Jay Feely's record of 148 in 2005. Carney kicked 35 field goals in 38 attempts, a .921 percentage that was the best in Giants history. Two of his three misses were blocked.

The year before Coughlin arrived, the Giants averaged only 19.9 yards a kickoff return. In 2004, they led the NFL in kickoff return yardage for the first time since 1953 with an average return of 25.1 yards. In 2005, their average kickoff return dropped by less than a yard, to 24.3 yards, which was good for fourth in the NFL. The Giants allowed only 140 punt return yards the entire 2008 season, when opposing teams averaged 5.8 yards on punt returns, the third-best figure in the NFL.

Many Giants players have enjoyed outstanding seasons in the Coughlin era. In 2011, Manning set franchise records with 359 completions and 4,933 yards. Manning has thrown for at least 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns in seven consecutive seasons, the fifth-longest such streak in NFL history. In 2011, Manning was the first NFL quarterback to throw at least four touchdown passes of at least 72 yards since Kurt Warner of St. Louis in 2000 (six). He was the first Giants quarterback to do it since Earl Morrall threw four in 1965. In 2010, Manning threw 31 touchdown passes, the third-highest total in Giants history and the most by a Giants quarterback in 47 years. Y.A. Tittle threw 36 in 1963 and 33 in 1962. Manning threw an NFL-record 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes in 2011. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002). In the last three years, Manning has thrown for 4,002, 4,021 and 4,933 yards to become the first Giants quarterback with three 4,000-yard seasons.

In 2009, Steve Smith shattered the franchise record with 107 receptions and was the first Giants wide receiver to play in the Pro Bowl since Homer Jones in 1968 (not including David Tyree's selection as a special teams player in 2005). Last season, Manning and Pierre-Paul were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team. In 2010, Bradshaw rushed for 1,235 yards, the seventh-highest total in Giants history. Guard Chris Snee, defensive end Justin Tuck, safety Antrel Rolle and DeOssie all played in the Pro Bowl. Center Shaun O'Hara was selected for the third time, but was unable to play because of injury. In 2009, Snee, O'Hara and David Diehl all played in the Pro Bowl, the first time the Giants had three players from the same position group selected to the game since 1962. The previous year, seven Giants played in the Pro Bowl, the team's largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven players to the game.

In Brandon Jacobs (1,089 yards) and Derrick Ward (1,025), the 2008 Giants were just the fourth team in history with two running backs rushing for at least 1,000 yards apiece in the same season. Jacobs was the fourth running back in Giants history to run for at least 1,000 yards in at least two consecutive seasons. He ran for 15 touchdowns in 2008 and was just the second player in Giants history to run for that many scores in a single season.

Prior to joining the Giants, Coughlin coached the Jaguars for eight seasons (1995-2002). He was named the first head coach of the expansion Jaguars on Feb. 21, 1994, a full 559 days before the franchise played its first regular season game. In 1995, Jacksonville won four games, more than any previous expansion team in NFL history. The following year, Coughlin was named NFL Coach of the Year by United Press International as the Jaguars made the playoffs in just their second season and advanced all the way to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the New England Patriots.

That began a streak of four consecutive playoff seasons for the Jaguars. In both 1997 and 1998 Jacksonville won 11 games, winning their first division title in 1998. The following season, the Jaguars had an NFL-best record of 14-2 and again advanced to the conference title game.

Under Coughlin, the Jaguars were the most successful expansion team in NFL history. Coughlin compiled a 68-60 regular season record (.531), plus a 4-4 mark in the playoffs, including those two trips to the AFC Championship Game. The Jaguars made the playoffs every year from 1996-99, the only expansion team in history to earn four postseason berths in their first five seasons.

Under Coughlin, the Jaguars were 55-12 in games in which they owned a lead entering the fourth period. The Jaguars were 40-28 in games against division opponents, 21-3 in games in which they scored a touchdown on their initial offensive possession and 51-30 in games in which they rushed for at least 100 yards.

Coughlin quickly established himself as one of the NFL's finest offensive coaches. During his tenure, the Jaguars led the NFL in both passing yards (4,367 in 1996) and rushing yards (2,091 in 1999). In addition to having the most rushing yards in the NFL in 1999, Jacksonville boasted the league's leading receiver in Jimmy Smith (116 receptions). The only other team in history to accomplish that double was the 1954 San Francisco 49ers.

Coughlin arrived in Jacksonville following three years as the head coach at Boston College, where he turned a struggling program into a Top 20 team. He was 21-13-1 in three seasons (1991-93) with the Eagles, including 9-3 in 1993, when Boston College won eight consecutive games, defeated top-ranked Notre Dame, 41-39, and beat Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. Coughlin's last Boston College team was ranked 12th in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll and 13th by the Associated Press, despite starting the season 0-2. The Eagles were 8-2-1 in 1992 and 4-7 in his first season in 1991.

Coughlin, Pete Carroll of the Seattle Seahawks, Chan Gailey of the Buffalo Bills, Jim Harbaugh of the San Francisco 49ers and Greg Schiano of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers are the only current NFL head coaches with experience as college head coaches.

Coughlin was the Giants wide receivers coach under Parcells from 1988-90. Under his tutelage, receivers such as Mark Ingram, Lionel Manuel, Odessa Turner and Stephen Baker all improved and helped the Giants win their second Super Bowl.

Coughlin began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, his alma mater. He was the head coach at the Rochester Institute of Technology from 1970-73, compiling a record of 16-15-2. Coughlin returned to Syracuse in 1974, first serving as quarterbacks and offensive backfield coach for three seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator for four years. He directed an offense that led the Orangemen to victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl, their first postseason triumph in 13 years.

In 1981, Coughlin went to Boston College for the first time, as quarterbacks coach under Jack Bicknell. He helped the Eagles win their first bowl game and coached Doug Flutie, who would win the Heisman Trophy in 1984, one season after Coughlin's departure. In 1983, Boston College won the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy as Eastern Champion, its first in 42 years.

Coughlin entered the NFL as the Philadelphia Eagles' wide receivers coach in 1984 and 1985. He held the same position with the Green Bay Packers in 1986 and 1987 before moving to the Giants for a three-year stint.

Coughlin was a standout scholastic star at Waterloo (N.Y.) Central High School, where the football stadium now bears his name. He was a three-year letterman at Syracuse for legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder from 1965-67. A wingback, Coughlin played in a backfield with All-America backs and Pro Football Hall of Famers Larry Csonka and Floyd Little. As a senior in 1967, Coughlin broke Syracuse's single-season pass receiving record. That year, he won Syracuse's Orange Key Award as the university's outstanding scholar-athlete. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in education and received a master's degree in education the following year.

Thomas Richard Coughlin was born on Aug. 31, 1946 in Waterloo. He is the oldest of seven children. Coughlin and his wife Judy, have two daughters, Keli and Kate; two sons-in-law named Chris; two sons, Brian and Tim; two daughters-in-law, Andrea (Tim's wife) and Susie (Brian's wife); and 11 grandchildren: Emma Rose, Dylan, Shea, Cooper, Caroline, Marin, Wesley, Brennan, Clara, Walker and Ally Ann.

THE TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND FOUNDATION

The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation was created in honor of Jay McGillis, a very special young man who was a member of Coughlin's team at Boston College and developed leukemia. The courage, compassion and faith he demonstrated during the course of his illness were an inspiration to many people.

The mission of the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation is to assist children with leukemia, other cancers and specific bone marrow failure syndromes by providing their families emotional and financial support to help reduce the stress associated with treatment and improve their quality of life.

Since its inception in Jacksonville in 1996, the Jay Fund Foundation has donated more than $3.5 million in support to help children and their families. Upon joining the Giants organization in 2004, Coughlin expanded the Jay Fund to the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area. The foundation hosts several annual fundraising events, including a Wine Tasting Gala and Celebrity Golf Classic Tournament in Jacksonville and Champions for Children Gala in Manhattan. Coach Coughlin and the Jay Fund also regularly host special parties and events for pediatric oncology patients and other ill children in partnership with other non-profit organizations.

TOM COUGHLIN VS. NFL COACHES

During Tom Coughlin's 16 seasons as an NFL head coach, he has coached against 88 different coaches in the National Football League (including postseason games). Coughlin has at least one victory against 73 of the coaches he has faced. In addition, Coughlin either leads or is tied in the lifetime series with 65 of those 88 coaches.

KEVIN GILBRIDE OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

The Giants' offense has produced rushing, passing and total yardage numbers unprecedented in franchise history under Kevin Gilbride, who is in his sixth full season as the team's offensive coordinator.

In 2011, the Giants gained a franchise-record 6,161 yards in 2011, breaking the mark of 6,085 set in 2010. Those are the only 6,000-yard seasons in Giants history.

The Giants shattered another record with 4,734 net passing yards. The former mark of 4,019 was set in 2009. Those are the only 4,000-yard passing seasons in Giants history. The Giants were fifth in the NFL with 295.9 passing yards a game, their highest ranking since the 1984 team finished fifth. In 2011, the Giants had at least 200 passing yards in every game for the first time in their history. They set another franchise mark with 359 pass completions. The Giants led the NFL with 18 completions of 40 or more yards in 2011.

The Giants had 331 first downs for the second season in a row, which is the third-highest total in franchise history. They had 216 passing first downs, shattering the former team record of 198, set in 1984.

The Giants scored 47 touchdowns in the regular season, the sixth-highest total in team history.

In their four-game postseason run, which culminated in a 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI, the Giants averaged 25.5 points and 402.5 yards, higher figures than their regular season averages of 24.6 points and 385.1 yards.

The 2012 season is Gilbride's 38th in coaching and 23rd in the National Football League. Gilbride, then the quarterbacks coach, assumed play-calling duties from former coordinator John Hufnagel prior to the 2006 regular season finale in Washington.

With Gilbride devising game plans and calling plays, the Giants' offense has consistently been among the most productive in the NFL. The unit was ranked seventh, eighth, fifth and eighth, respectively, in the last four seasons, the first time it placed in the top eight in four consecutive seasons since 1967-70, when the team ranked, in order, third, fifth, sixth and fifth.

In 2010, the Giants gained 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The previous record was 5,884 yards in 1985. The Giants scored 48 touchdowns — every one of them by the offense — which was tied for the third-highest total in team history. They scored 57 touchdowns in 1963, 49 in 1962 and 1967 and 48 in 1985.

The Giants led the league by averaging 6.57 yards on first down. The team's 62.9 completion percentage was a team record, besting the 62.4 percentage set in 2009. The Giants' 3,885 net passing yards were the third-highest total in team history.

The Giants had 80 scrimmage plays of 20 or more yards (58 passes, 22 runs), tying them with the Philadelphia Eagles for the highest total in the NFL. Their 14 touchdown passes of 20-plus yards led the league.

Gilbride's unit was also productive on the ground, where the Giants were one of only two teams with a pair of backs who rushed for more than 800 yards apiece in Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235 yards) and Brandon Jacobs (823). The only other team to have two 800-yard rushers was Kansas City, with Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones.

In 2009, the Giants scored 402 points after scoring 425 in 2008, the first time in franchise history they scored at least 400 points in consecutive seasons. The Giants gained 5,856 yards, then the second-highest total in franchise history. In addition, they set a team record with 4,019 net passing yards, the first 4,000-yard season in team history. The old record of 3,951 was set in 2002. The Giants had 62 pass plays of 20 or more yards, which left them tied for fifth in the NFL.

In 2008, three years before setting the passing yardage record, the Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. The Giants rushed for 301 yards in an overtime victory over Carolina on Dec. 21, the fifth-highest total in team history and their highest total in 49 years.

That season, Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards and Derrick Ward ran for 1,025 to become the fourth pair of backs from the same team — and the fifth set of teammates — to run for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.

Gilbride has worked closely with Eli Manning throughout the quarterback's outstanding career. In the 2011 regular season, Manning set Giants records for pass attempts (589), completions (359) and yards (4,933). The yardage total was the fourth-highest in the NFL this season and the sixth-highest in league history. Manning is the only quarterback in Giants history with three 4,000-yard seasons.

Manning's 29 touchdown passes were the second-highest total of his career (he had 31 in 2010) and his 16 interceptions were nine fewer than he threw the previous season. His passer rating of 92.9 was the second highest of his career (he had a 93.1 rating in 2009). Manning threw an NFL-record 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes in 2011. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002).

In the postseason, Manning completed 65 percent of his passes and threw for nine touchdowns and only one interception.

Manning has thrown for at least 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns in seven consecutive seasons, the fifth-longest such streak in NFL history. Manning and New Orleans' Drew Brees are the only quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards and at least 20 touchdown passes every season from 2005-11.

Gilbride designed the attack and called the plays when the Giants won four games in the 2007 and 2011 postseasons and won Super Bowls XLII and XLVI. The Giants are the first team to twice win four games in a single postseason.

Gilbride joined the Giants as the team's quarterbacks coach on Jan. 26, 2004. He was reunited with Tom Coughlin, for whom he worked as the Jacksonville Jaguars' first offensive coordinator in 1995-96. Gilbride has also coordinated offenses for the Houston Oilers, Pittsburgh Steelers and Buffalo Bills.

As quarterbacks coach, Gilbride was at the forefront of the development of Manning, the No. 1 selection in the 2004 NFL Draft. In 2005, under Gilbride's guidance, Manning led the Giants to the NFC East title while throwing 557 passes, the third-highest total in the league and the second-highest total in team history. Manning's 294 completions tied for ninth in the NFL and was then fourth on the Giants' single-season list. His 3,762 yards were fifth in the NFL. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

In 2006, Gilbride's last season as quarterbacks coach, Manning completed 301 passes to become just the second quarterback in franchise history to top 300 completions in a season. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, matching his 2005 total and leaving him tied for fourth in the NFL. Manning became the first Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Phil Simms did it three years in a row from 1984-86.

Manning's development under Gilbride became evident in the latter part of the quarterback's rookie season. In the final three games of the year, Manning completed 53-of-87 passes (61 percent) for 527 yards, five touchdowns and three interceptions. In the season-ending victory over Dallas, Manning threw three touchdown passes and led a 66-yard drive in the final two minutes for the winning score.

Prior to joining the Giants, Gilbride spent two years as the Bills' offensive coordinator. In his first season in Buffalo, the Bills set seven offensive team records, including most net passing yards (3,995). Quarterback Drew Bledsoe set 10 team records. That year, Buffalo had the fifth-best passing offense in the NFL and was 11th overall while averaging 23.7 points, 22.2 first downs, and 349.4 yards per game. That offense featured the franchise's first 4,000-yard passer in Bledsoe, two 1,200-yard receivers (Eric Moulds and Peerless Price) and a 1,400-yard rusher (Travis Henry).

Gilbride entered the NFL as the quarterbacks coach of the Oilers in 1989. He was promoted to offensive coordinator from 1990-93 and then to assistant head coach/offense in 1994. Houston ranked first in the NFL in passing yards every season from 1990-93. The Oilers also topped the league in total offense in 1990 and were second in 1991, third in 1992 and second in 1993.

Gilbride's first stint with Coughlin began in 1995, when Gilbride took over as the offensive coordinator of the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars. The following year, the Jaguars led the NFL with 259.7 passing yards per game and were second in total offense with 360.2 yards per contest, a performance that helped Jacksonville advance to the AFC Championship Game in just its second year of existence.

After two years in Jacksonville, Gilbride was named the 10th head coach in San Diego Chargers history on Jan. 19, 1997 and posted a 6-16 record over the course of the 1997-98 seasons. He spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as offensive coordinator with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2001, Gilbride was an analyst with ESPN.

Prior to joining the NFL, Gilbride spent two seasons (1985-86) in the Canadian Football League as an assistant with the Ottawa Rough Riders.

Gilbride began his career as the linebackers coach at Idaho State in 1974-75. He held the same position at Tufts University in 1976-77. Gilbride was the defensive coordinator at American International and the head coach at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State University, from 1980-84. He compiled a 35-14-2 record and a .706 winning percentage that is the best in school history.

Gilbride was born in New Haven, Conn., and earned a degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State, where he also played quarterback and tight end. He received his master's in athletic administration from Idaho State. He and his wife, Deborah, have three children - daughters Kelly and Kristen and son, Kevin. Kelly is a 1998 graduate of Harvard University, Kristen graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1999. Kevin graduated from the University of Hawaii in 2003 and is currently the Giants' wide receivers coach.

PERRY FEWELL DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Tom Coughlin reached into his past for a coach on Jan. 14, 2010 when he hired as the Giants' defensive coordinator Perry Fewell, who once spent five seasons as Coughlin's secondary coach in Jacksonville. Fewell's first two years with the Giants were highlighted by many outstanding defensive performances and a Super Bowl victory.

Fewell's defense was at its best in 2011 in the Giants' postseason run that was capped by a 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI. In those four victories, the Giants allowed an average of 328.0 yards, 14 points and 18.7 first downs per game - significant improvements over the regular season averages of 376.4 yards, 25 points and 21.1 first downs.

Each of the Giants' four postseason opponents scored fewer points than their regular season average. The defense did not allow a point in a 24-2 victory over the Atlanta Falcons, who entered the game averaging 25.1 points. Green Bay scored an NFL-best 35 points a game during a 15-1 regular season, but managed only 20 in a 17-point loss to the Giants in a Divisional Playoff Game. The San Francisco 49ers averaged 23.8 points during the regular season, but scored 17 in an overtime loss to the Giants in the NFC Championship Game. The Patriots had averaged 32.1 points a game in the regular season and 34 points in their two postseason victories before Fewell's defense shut them down in the Super Bowl.

In the regular season, the Giants totaled 48 sacks, which tied the Baltimore Ravens for the NFL's second-highest total and was their highest figure since the 2007 team led the NFL with 53. Second-year pro Jason Pierre-Paul had 16.5 sacks in 2011, the fourth-highest total in Giants history. He joined Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and Michael Strahan as the only Giants with at least 16 in a season. Taylor did it once — he had 20.5 sacks in his 1986 MVP season — and Strahan did it twice (an NFL-record 22.5 sacks in 2001 and 18.5 in 2003).

Pierre-Paul was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.

Fewell's defense benefitted from outstanding play from numerous veterans while getting contributions from several young players. Safety Antrel Rolle led the Giants with 96 tackles (82 solo). He also led the team with 17 tackles (14 solo) in the postseason. Linebacker Michael Boley was second on the team with 91 tackles (72 solo) despite missing 2½ games with a hamstring injury. Boley is second on the team with 14 tackles (11 solo) in the postseason.

Corey Webster led the Giants with six interceptions, the highest total by a Giant since Emmanuel McDaniel had six in 2000.

Osi Umenyiora had 9.0 sacks in nine games and Justin Tuck had 5.0 despite sitting out four contests with injuries.

In addition to Pierre-Paul, young players like Linval, Jacquian Williams, Greg Jones and Prince Amukamara all helped the Giants win games.

In 2010, Fewell's first season with the team, the Giants allowed 347 points, 80 fewer than they gave up in 2009. Their opponents averaged 310.8 total yards per game, a 14-yard reduction that enabled the Giants to move from a tie for 13th to seventh in the NFL's defensive rankings. The Giants improved from 17th to eighth in run defense (110.8 to 101.3) and 15th to ninth against the pass (214.1 to 209.5).

With Fewell's defense leading the way, the Giants were first in the NFL with 39 takeaways. The Giants held their opponents to an NFL-best 31.7 success rate on third down conversion attempts (66 of 208). They allowed 263 first downs, the second-lowest total in the league (San Diego, 247). The Giants held their opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards in nine of 16 games. They were 9-0 in those games. The Giants' 46 sacks was the team's highest total since the 2007 Super Bowl champions led the NFL with 53.

Fewell is a 27-year coaching veteran who is in his 15th season as an NFL coach.

Prior to joining the Giants, Fewell spent four seasons as the Buffalo Bills' defensive coordinator. He was the team's interim head coach for the final seven games of the 2009 season. The Bills were 3-4 under his direction. Fewell was brought to Buffalo by Dick Jauron, who was Coughlin's defensive coordinator in Jacksonville for four seasons. Fewell and Jauron spent the 1998 season together with the Jaguars.

Buffalo's defense under Fewell allowed only 14 touchdown passes in each of his last two seasons with the team. In 2009, that tied for the second-best total in the NFL and was eight below the league average. The Bills were tied for fifth in the NFL with 33 takeaways. Their 28 interceptions were exceeded only by Green Bay's 30. Buffalo's turnover differential improved from minus-eight in 2008 to plus-three in 2009. Bills rookie safety Jairus Byrd tied for the NFL lead with nine interceptions in only 14 games. The nine interceptions were five more than any other rookie had. Byrd was placed on injured reserve with a groin injury and missed the final two games but became the first Bills rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Greg Bell in 1984.

In 2008, the Bills were fourth in the NFL in red zone defense, allowing a touchdown on only 41.8 percent of the opposition possessions inside the 20-yard line (23 of 55). They were second in the AFC in negative yardage plays and held their opponents to less than 100 rushing yards seven times.

Fewell coached Chicago defensive backs in 2005, when the Bears led the NFC with 24 interceptions and cornerback Nathan Vasher and safety Mike Brown were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2003 and 2004, Fewell was the secondary coach of the St. Louis Rams.

Fewell entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach for Coughlin and the Jaguars in 1998, a position he held through the 2002 season. Jacksonville's pass defense ranked third in the NFL in 1999 and two years later the Jaguars gave up only 13 touchdown passes.

Fewell was a collegiate coach for 13 years prior to entering the NFL. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina in 1985 and 1986. Fewell was the defensive backs coach at Army in 1987. The following year, he began a four-year stint as the wide receivers coach at Kent State. In 1992, he returned to West Point, where he spent three seasons as the defensive line coach. Fewell's final college job was at Vanderbilt, where he coached the secondary from 1995-97 and was also assistant head coach in his final season there.

Fewell was born in Gastonia, N.C. He was on the football and track teams at South Point High School in Belmont, N.C. and was inducted into the Belmont Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. Fewell lettered as a defensive back for four years at Lenoir-Rhyne College and was named the team's most improved player in 1983. He graduated with a degree in business administration in 1985.

In October 2011, Fewell was inducted into the Lenoir-Rhyne College Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Gaston County, N.C. Hall of Fame in June 2012.

Fewell and his wife, Kathleen, have two sons.

TOM QUINN

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Tom Quinn is in his seventh season with the Giants and his sixth as the team's special teams coordinator. His first year with the team was spent as an assistant to Mike Sweatman, who retired following the 2006 season. Head coach Tom Coughlin quickly named Quinn to replace Sweatman.

For the second season in a row, Quinn's special teams underwent significant change in the Giants' 2011 championship season. Veteran Steve Weatherford became the team's punter. Aaron Ross was the most frequently-used punt returner and Devin Thomas and rookies Da'Rel Scott and Jerrel Jernigan combined for 47 kickoff returns. The three leading special teams tacklers — rookies Jacquian Williams (17) and Tyler Sash (15) and veteran Derrick Martin (12) — were newcomers.

Giants opponents averaged 22.9 yards per kickoff return, the NFL's 11th-best figure.

Weatherford was 14th in the NFL with a 45.7-yard gross average and 13th with a 39.2-yard net average on 82 punts. The 45.7-yard gross average was the second-highest single-season average in Giants history, surpassed only by Don Chandler's 46.6-yard average in 1969 (minimum 35 punts). Weatherford dropped 25 punts inside the 20-yard line, including five in a victory at New England on Nov. 6 and a record-tying three in the Giants' 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI.

Lawrence Tynes has become one of the most productive kickers in Giants history under Quinn. Tynes scored 34 points in four playoff games (with eight field goals and 10 extra points) and has scored a Giants-record 59 postseason points, breaking Amani Toomer's former mark of 42 points. Tynes also holds the franchise playoff records with 13 field goals and 20 extra points.

Tynes scored exactly 100 points in the regular season, the fourth time in five Giants seasons he hit the century mark. He also scored 100 points in 2010. In each season, he kicked 19 field goals and 43 extra points. Tynes' 441 regular season points place him fifth in Giants history.

Tynes has made a team-record 158 consecutive extra points since missing one vs. San Francisco on Oct. 21, 2007. The old team record of 133 in a row was set by Pete Gogolak from 1967-72.

In 2010, Quinn helped rookie punter Matt Dodge finish ninth in the NFL with a 44.8-yard gross average on 72 punts. Zak DeOssie, the snapper on both punts and place-kicks, was selected to his second Pro Bowl in three seasons. The Giants' kickoff coverage unit was ranked fourth in the NFL, allowing an average return of only 19.7 yards.

The Giants benefitted from outstanding play by Quinn's special teams in 2009. Tynes led the Giants and was fifth in the NFL in scoring with a career-high 126 points, the fourth-highest total by a kicker in team history. With Domenick Hixon doing the bulk of the work, the Giants were seventh in the NFL with a 10.9-yard punt return average. Hixon — who missed most of the 2010 and 2011 season with knee injuries — also set Giants single-season records with 57 kickoff returns for 1,291 yards. On Oct. 18 at New Orleans, Hixon had 303 total yards, shattering Joe Scott's 61-year-old franchise record by 24 yards. The total included 230 kickoff return and 51 punt return yards. Opposing teams averaged only 21.0 yards per kickoff return, the NFL's eighth-best figure.

In 2008, three of the Giants' special teams players — kicker John Carney, Jeff Feagles and DeOssie — played for the NFC Pro Bowl team.

Carney was signed just prior to the season because Tynes was sidelined with an injury. Quinn quickly integrated Carney into the kicking unit and the veteran had the best season a Giants kicker has ever had, succeeding on 35 of 38 field goals attempts for a franchise-record .921 percentage. Carney's 35 field goals tied the team single-season record, which he shares with Ali Haji-Sheikh (1983) and Jay Feely (2005).

That season, Feagles had a gross average of 44.0 yards and a career-high net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his first Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average tied for the second-highest of his career and was just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. Feagles holds the NFL records for punts (1,713), punting yards (71,211) and punts downed inside the 20-yard line (554).

In addition to the Pro Bowlers' exploits, Quinn's coverage teams played extremely well that season. The Giants' special teams were ranked fourth in the NFL according to a comprehensive survey by the Dallas Morning News. The Giants allowed only 140 punt return yards all season and were ranked third in the NFL in punt coverage, giving up an average of only 5.85 yards a return. The team's field goal percentage of 92.3 was ranked third. The Giants blocked three field goals and opposing teams converted 73 percent of their attempts, the fourth-lowest figure in the NFL. The 40.2-yard net punting average was a Giants record and placed them fourth in the league. Their opponents averaged 5.8 yards a return, the NFL's third-best figure. Hixon averaged a team-record 60.0 yards on three kickoff returns at Arizona.

The special teams overcame adversity and performed well in Quinn's first season as coordinator in 2007, when the Giants won Super Bowl XLII. Long-snapper Ryan Kuehl suffered a season-ending injury in training camp, and the Giants used rookie snappers Jay Alford (on placekicks) and DeOssie (for punts) the entire year. Tynes made 23 of 27 field goal attempts (85.2 percent), the same numbers posted the previous season by Feely. Tynes also made the biggest kick of the postseason, a game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay.

Quinn employed three kickoff returners — Ahmad Bradshaw, Reuben Droughns and Hixon — and the Giants finished seventh in the NFL with a 23.9-yard average. The coverage teams were also strong; Giants opponents averaged only 6.2 yards on 28 punt returns.

Quinn, 44, coached in the collegiate ranks for 15 years. Before joining the Giants, he spent four years on the coaching staff at Stanford University. Quinn coached the special teams in each of those seasons, plus the tight ends in 2002 and 2003, and the outside linebackers in 2004 and 2005.

Quinn began his career coaching linebackers at Davidson in 1991. From 1992-94, he was the special teams coach and recruiting coordinator at James Madison. In 1995, he was the defensive coordinator at Boston University and from 1996-98 Quinn was the defensive coordinator at Holy Cross.

Quinn moved back to the West Coast in 1999 at San Jose State, where in three years he worked with the linebackers, tight ends and special teams. He joined the staff at Stanford in 2002.

Quinn grew up in Southern California, where he played at Foothill High School. From 1986-90, Quinn was a linebacker at the University of Arizona, where he played on three bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 1990 and a master's in education the following year.

Quinn and his wife, Alison, have a son, Shane, and two daughters, Logan and Riley.

PAT FLAHERTY OFFENSIVE LINE

Pat Flaherty, who has more than 30 years of coaching experience, is in his 13th season as an NFL coach and ninth as the Giants' offensive line coach.

The Giants have consistently had one of the NFL's best and most dependable offensive lines during Flaherty's tenure. The team's offense has been ranked among the top eight in the NFL in each of the last four years and the Giants had at least two linemen selected to the Pro Bowl in three of those seasons.

The 2011 season was one of change for the offensive line. Longtime stalwarts Rich Seubert and Shaun O'Hara were released in July. Because of injuries, the Giants started five different offensive line combinations. Left tackle Will Beatty's year ended after 10 games because of eye surgery. Center David Baas missed five games. Kevin Boothe and Mitch Petrus stepped in at left guard when David Diehl moved back to tackle.

Despite the shuffling, Flaherty's group helped the Giants win Super Bowl XLVI and set franchise records with 6,161 total yards and 4,734 net passing yards. With the line providing outstanding protection for Eli Manning, the Giants finished fifth in the NFL in passing yards, their highest ranking since they finished fifth in 1984.

In 2010, guard Chris Snee and center Shaun O'Hara were each selected to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive year (O'Hara was unable to play in the game because of injury). O'Hara and Snee were the first Giants offensive linemen selected to three Pro Bowls since center Bart Oates in 1990, 1991 and 1993 and the first chosen in three consecutive years since Hall of Famer tackle Rosie Brown was selected to six in a row from 1955-60.

With the line playing at a high level, the Giants were fifth in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. They gained a then franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The Giants were one of only two teams with a pair of backs who rushed for more than 800 yards apiece in Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235 yards) and Brandon Jacobs (823). And the Giants tied the Indianapolis Colts by allowing an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010. That was easily the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record five consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in seven games overall.

The line registered these accomplishments despite a spate of injuries that forced Flaherty to start six different offensive line combinations. The Giants started three left tackles (Diehl, Shawn Andrews and Beatty), three left guards (Seubert, Diehl and Boothe) and three centers (O'Hara, Adam Koets and Seubert).

Five players - O'Hara, Snee, Seubert, Diehl and Kareem

McKenzie — were mainstays on the line from 2006-10. The group started 38 consecutive regular season games from 2007-09, then the longest such streak by five linemen since the 1970 NFL merger.

In 2009, O'Hara, Snee and Diehl all played in the Pro Bowl, the first time the Giants had three players from the same position group play in the game since 1962.

The previous year, Snee and O'Hara were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Snee, who was a starter, was the first Giants guard to play in the Pro Bowl since Ron Stone in 2001, and O'Hara the first Giants center to go to the game since Oates in 1993. In addition, Diehl was selected as a third alternate.

With the line leading the way, the Giants that season rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. It was the first time since 1993 that the Giants led the NFL in rushing.

In 2007, the line was an important factor as the Giants won Super Bowl XLII and finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yardage with 134.3 yards a game. The Giants were also fourth in the league with a 4.6-yards-per-carry average. In 2006, the Giants were seventh in the NFL with an average of 134.8 rushing yards a game and sixth with an average of 4.7 yards per carry. The Giants' 138.1-yard rushing average in 2005 placed them sixth in the league. In 2004, the Giants averaged 119.0 yards a game and 4.5 yards a carry, which were far superior to the 97.4 and 4.0 averages the Giants posted in 2003, the year before Tom Coughlin and Flaherty arrived.

The Giants had a 1,000-yard rusher in six of the first seven seasons in which Flaherty coached the line. In 2008, Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became just the fourth set of running back teammates in NFL history with more than 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. In 2007, Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards, despite missing five games and most of a sixth with injuries. Tiki Barber made the only three Pro Bowls of his career while rushing for 1,518, 1,860 and 1,662 yards in the three years he ran behind a Flaherty-coached line.

Prior to joining the Giants, Flaherty was the Chicago Bears' tight ends coach for three seasons. Under Flaherty, the group was instrumental in helping Anthony Thomas twice rush for more than 1,000 yards, including 1,024 yards in 2003. In addition, Chicago's tight ends played a bigger role in the team's passing attack under Flaherty. In 2003, Desmond Clark caught 44 passes, the third-highest total on the Bears.

In 2000, Flaherty coached the Washington Redskins' tight ends and helped Stephen Alexander earn an invitation to the Pro Bowl. Alexander was third on the Redskins that season with 47 catches.

Flaherty began his coaching career at his alma mater, DeLone Catholic High School in McSherrytown, Penn., from 1978-80.

Flaherty coached in the collegiate ranks from 1980-99. He began with a two-year stint coaching the offensive line at East Stroudsburg University, his alma mater. Flaherty joined the staff at Penn State in 1982, a season in which the Nittany Lions defeated Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to win the national championship. After two seasons at Penn State, Flaherty moved to Rutgers, where he coached the offensive line for eight years.

Flaherty spent the 1992 season coaching the defensive line at East Carolina. From 1993-98 he was on the staff at Wake Forest, where he coached the offensive line, tight ends and special teams. In 1999, he coached tight ends and special teams and was in charge of recruiting at the University of Iowa.

Flaherty was an All-America center at East Stroudsburg. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in October 2004. He and his wife, Lynne, have two children, Shawn and Colleen.

KEVIN M. GILBRIDE

WIDE RECEIVERS

Kevin M. Gilbride is in first season as the Giants' wide receivers coach and third on Tom Coughlin's staff. Gilbride assumed his current position when Sean Ryan was named quarterbacks coach.

In 2001, Gilbride held the title of offensive assistant. He joined the coaching staff in 2010 team's offensive quality control coach. Gilbride succeeded Ryan in that position.

Gilbride is the son of Giants offensive coordinator Kevin Gilbride. Prior to joining the Giants, he spent three seasons as the wide receivers coach at Temple University. In 2009, Gilbride was a member of the Temple coaching staff that led the Owls to a 9-4 record - their first winning record since 1990 - and their first bowl game since 1979, the EagleBank Bowl in Washington. The previous season, Gilbride coached Bruce Francis, who earned the Owls' offensive most valuable player award. Francis, who was an All-MAC selection, became Temple's Division I-A career leader in receiving touchdowns (23). The Owls' leading receiver with 687 yards on 45 catches for a Division I-A school record 13 touchdowns, Francis finished his collegiate career with a reception in a school record 38 consecutive games.

Before his stint at Temple, Gilbride coached the slot receivers and tight ends at Georgetown in 2006. He also headed the kickoff coverage unit and assisted on punt, kickoff return and punt block. He recruited in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Florida and Delaware for the Hoyas.

Gilbride was an offensive graduate assistant coach at Syracuse for two seasons (2004-05), working closely with the tight ends in 2005. The Orange captured a share of the Big East title in 2004 and earned a berth in the Champs Sports Bowl. Gilbride first joined the SU staff as a graduate assistant for video in 2003 before then head coach Paul Pasqualoni moved him into a coaching role.

Gilbride, 32, graduated from the University of Hawaii in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in speech communications. He was a backup quarterback and played on special teams for the Warriors in 2000 after sitting out the 1999 season following his transfer from Brigham Young. He also earned four letters as a baseball player at Hawaii, playing outfield, first base and designated hitter. As a senior, he batted .308, had a .413 on base percentage and did not commit an error.

PETER GIUNTA SECONDARY COACH/CORNERBACKS

Peter Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) is in his seventh season as the Giants' secondary coach/cornerbacks. He joined the team on Jan. 18, 2006. Giunta has been coaching football for 31 years, including 21 in the NFL. He was the defensive coordinator for the 1999 Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams.

With the Giants, Giunta has been at the forefront in the development of cornerbacks Corey Webster, Terrell Thomas and Prince Amukamara. In 2011, Webster started all 20 regular season and postseason games for the Super Bowl champion Giants and was routinely assigned to cover the opposition's best wide receiver. Webster led the Giants with six interceptions, the highest total by a Giant since Emmanuel McDaniel had six in 2000. Amukamara, the Giants' first-round draft choice last year, missed all of training camp and the season's first nine games with a foot injury, but was able to contribute in the second half of the season after working extensively with Giunta during his rehabilitation.

Thomas was sidelined last season with a knee injury, but in 2009 and 2010 he led the team in tackles and interceptions. In 2010, strong play by the cornerbacks helped the Giants finish ninth in the NFL in pass defense.

In 2008, Webster, Aaron Ross and safety James Butler tied for the team lead with three interceptions apiece. Ross, the team's 2007 first-round draft choice, scored a touchdown on an interception return in each of his first two seasons. Webster, a second-round choice in 2005, re-joined the starting lineup in the 2007 postseason and has since been a fixture in the lineup. His interception of Brett Favre pass set up the Giants' game-winning field goal in overtime in the 2007 NFC Championship Game in Green Bay. Thomas became an important member of the secondary in the second half of his rookie season in 2008.

Prior to joining the Giants, Giunta was the Kansas City Chiefs' defensive backs coach for five seasons. In 2003, safety Jerome Woods earned his initial Pro Bowl berth under Giunta's guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the entire 2002 campaign with a broken right leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as safety Greg Wesley and cornerback Dexter McCleon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with St. Louis, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99 after originally joining the Rams staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As Rams defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's unexpected run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record and a 23-16 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in 1999, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game) and sixth in total defense (293.6 yards per game).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. Cornerback Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the league lead with six interceptions, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interception and two fumbles) for touchdowns in 1999. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied Tom Coughlin's Jacksonville Jaguars for the league lead. That charge was headlined by Pro Bowl defensive end Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 sacks.

Giunta has long had a reputation for getting the most out of the defensive backs he coaches. In 2000, McCleon intercepted eight passes for St. Louis, a total which was surpassed only by Green Bay safety Darren Sharper, who had nine. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by Ryan McNeil.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in pass defense (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was also instrumental in the development of cornerback Aaron Glenn, who played in the Pro Bowl following the 1997 and 1998 seasons.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach in Philadelphia from 1991-94. During the 1991 season, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles.

Giunta's 10 seasons in the collegiate ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). Giunta was a defensive assistant his first year on Joe Paterno's staff before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure (1982 Fiesta, 1983 Sugar and 1983 Aloha).

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). Giunta then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

Giunta is a native of Salem, Massachusetts and a graduate of Northeastern University. He and his wife, Cindy, have three children: Christina, John and D.J.

JIM HERRMANN

LINEBACKERS

Jim Herrmann is in his fourth season as the Giants linebackers coach and seventh year in the NFL. Herrmann joined the Giants coaching staff on Jan. 22, 2009 following three seasons as the linebackers coach for the Jets. Prior to entering the NFL, Herrmann was on the coaching staff at the University of Michigan, his alma mater, for 20 years, including a nine-year stint as defensive coordinator.

In 2011, Herrmann overcame the early season-ending loss of a starter and produced with a blend of veterans and rookies. Jonathan Goff, who started every game at middle linebacker in 2010, suffered a season-ending knee injury in a Labor Day practice. He was replaced by a committee that included rookie Greg Jones and — after he rejoined the team on Nov. 30 — veteran Chase Blackburn. Weakside linebacker Michael Boley missed 2½ games with a hamstring injury, but was second on the team with 91 tackles (72 solo). Mathias Kiwanuka was a stalwart on the strong side, where he had 81 tackles, including 3.5 sacks. Blackburn had 19 postseason tackles and a key interception in Super Bowl XLVI. Rookies Jacquian Williams, Mark Herzlich, Spencer Paysinger and Jones all progressed rapidly under Herrmann.

Herrmann has become accustomed to change among the linebackers. In 2010, Kiwanuka was limited to three games because of a herniated disk in his neck. Goff, a reserve for most of his first two seasons, became the starter in the middle. Keith Bulluck joined the Giants after 10 seasons with the Tennessee Titans and started eight of the 12 games in which he played. On the weak side, Boley started every game but the season opener and finished fifth on the team with 74 tackles. Steady play from the linebackers helped the Giants finish seventh in the NFL in total defense (310.8 yards a game) and eighth against the run (101.3).

In 2009, injuries forced Herrmann to juggle his linebackers throughout the season. Four different players — Antonio Pierce, Goff, Blackburn and Bryan Kehl — started at middle linebacker. Boley and Blackburn were starters on the weak side.

The previous season, Herrmann helped coach a Jets defense that finished seventh in the NFL against the run (94.9 yards a game) and 16th overall (329.4). Two of the linebackers Herrmann coached, Eric Barton and Calvin Pace, were the team's top two tacklers.

In 2007, one of Herrmann's former Michigan players, David Harris, joined the Jets. As a rookie, Harris led the team with 117 tackles and tied for the team lead with five sacks.

Prior to joining the Jets, Herrmann was on the Michigan coaching staff for two decades. In 1997, Herrmann's first year as defensive coordinator, the Wolverines won the national championship while leading the country in three important defensive statistical categories: total, scoring and pass efficiency. Herrmann was the recipient of the Broyles Award as the National Assistant Coach of the Year.

During Herrmann's nine years as coordinator, Michigan won five Big Ten championships and the defense held 47 opponents to less than 100 rushing yards. His defense led the Big Ten in sacks in 1997, 2001 and 2002, including a school-record 50 sacks in 2001. Herrmann coached six All-Americans at Michigan, including Marlin Jackson, Ernest Shazor, Leon Hall, LaMarr Woodley, Larry Foote and Charles Woodson, who won the 1997 Heisman Trophy and was named the national Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

Herrmann was a three-year letter-winner at linebacker for Michigan and was a member of Bo Schembechler's first Rose Bowl-winning team in 1980. A Michigan native, Herrmann was a three-sport athlete and standout linebacker at Dearborn Divine High School.

Herrmann has three children, Jessica, Cory and Timothy.

AL HOLCOMB

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

after spending his first two seasons with the team as the defensive quality control coach.

Prior to joining the Giants, Holcomb spent three seasons as the defensive line coach at Lafayette. In 2008, the Leopards led the Patriot League in both total defense (303.2 yards a game) and scoring defense (17.5 points a game). Lafayette also allowed the fewest first downs in the league (176), had the best defensive third-down conversion percentage (33.6) and had the lowest passing efficiency by opposing quarterbacks (116.0). Defensive linemen Jason Mills was named to the All-Patriot League first team.

In 2007, Holcomb mentored All-Patriot League First-Team tackle Kyle Sprengle and second-team defensive end Keith Bloom. Lafayette allowed an NCAA-best 260.1 yards per game and ranked fourth in the country in rushing defense (85.7 yards a game) and eighth in scoring defense (16.9 points per game).

In his first season at Lafayette, Holcomb coached defensive end Marvin Snipes and tackles Dan Liseno and Kyle Sprengle to All-Patriot League honors.

In the summer of 2007, Holcomb participated in the NFL's minority coaching internship with the Jets. He spent mini-camp and training camp working the team's defense. Holcomb coached at Division II Kutztown University, where he was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in 2004 and 2005 and served as acting head coach in the winter of 2005. Holcomb was the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Bloomsburg for six seasons from 1998-2003. Bloomsburg played for the Division II national championship in 2000.

Holcomb was linebackers coach, assistant track coach and a physical education instructor at Division III Colby College in Maine in 1997. He was a graduate assistant working with linebackers at Temple in 1995 and 1996.

A 1993 graduate of West Virginia University with a bachelor's degree in sport management, Holcomb earned his master's degree in athletic coaching education from WVU in 1996. He began his coaching career as linebackers coach at Morgantown High School in the fall of 1994, and served as a volunteer administrative assistant with the Mountaineers while pursuing his graduate degree.

Holcomb and his wife, Toni, are the parents of a son, Alex.

RUNNING BACKS

Jerald Ingram is in his ninth season as the Giants' running backs coach. During his tenure with the team, he has had a back rush for at least 1,000 yards in a season seven times. Ingram, who joined the Giants on Jan. 13, 2004, has 28 years of coaching experience, including 21 as an assistant to Tom Coughlin.

In 2011, Ahmad Bradshaw led the team with 659 yards and nine rushing touchdowns, despite missing four games with a foot injury. Brandon Jacobs added 571 yards and seven scores. In four postseason games, including the Giants' victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI, the two backs combined for 436 yards on exactly 100 carries and each scored a touchdown. In addition, D.J. Ware had career-high totals of 46 attempts and 163 yards and rookie Da'Rel Scott showed promise under Ingram's tutelage.

Jacobs' increased his career total to 4,849 yards, which is the fourth-highest figure in Giants history, while Bradshaw is 10th, at 3,217.

Ingram's running backs were among the most productive in the NFL in 2010. The Giants finished sixth in the NFL in rushing with an average of 137.5 yards a game. In Bradshaw (1,235) and Jacobs (823), the Giants were one of just two teams in 2010 with two 800-yard rushers. Kansas City was the other (with Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones). Since 2006, four different Giants backs have rushed for at least 1,000 yards — Tiki Barber, Jacobs, Derrick Ward and Bradshaw.

Bradshaw's 1,235 rushing yards were the seventh-highest single-season total in Giants history and placed him fourth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL. He was 12th in the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 1,549.

In the Giants' victory over Minnesota on Dec. 13, 2010, Jacobs (116 yards on 14 carries) and Bradshaw (103 yards on 11 attempts) each rushed for more than 100 yards. It was only the second time in history the Giants had two 100-yard rushers in the same game. It last happened at Buffalo on Dec. 23, 2007, when the runners were Jacobs (145 yards on 24 carries) and Bradshaw (151 yards on 17 attempts).

Jacobs rushed for nine touchdowns and Bradshaw eight, the first time the Giants had two backs run for at least eight scores in the same season. When Jacobs and Bradshaw each rushed for a pair of touchdowns against Washington on Dec. 5, it was only the fourth time in their history the Giants had two players run for at least two scores in the same game.

In 2009, Ingram coached a group of backs that was productive despite debilitating injuries. Jacobs played all but one game with a knee injury that required postseason surgery and led the team with 835 yards. Bradshaw was limited to one practice day most weeks because of ankle and foot injuries, yet led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. He ran for 778 yards that season.

The Giants had the NFL's most productive running attack in 2008. The Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards on an attempt in 2005 and 2006. From 2004-08, the Giants finished no worse than 11th in the NFL in rushing. Jacobs led the Giants with 1,089 rushing yards and Ward was close behind with 1,025. They became just the fourth pair of running backs from the same backfield — and only the fifth set of teammates — to each rush for more than 1,000 yards in the same season.

In addition, Bradshaw — the team's leading rusher in the 2007 postseason — ran for 355 yards and fullback Madison Hedgecock was voted a first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team.

Such excellence has been a part of the backfield since Ingram's arrival. Jacobs led the Giants with 1,009 yards in 2007, the season the Giants won Super Bowl XLII. In Ingram's first three seasons with the Giants, Barber emerged as one of the very best running backs in the NFL and one of the finest players in franchise history. Barber, who retired following the 2006 season, had never played in the Pro Bowl prior to Ingram's arrival. But he was voted to the NFC team each of his final three years. In those seasons, he rushed for 1,518 yards in 2004, a team-record 1,860 yards in 2005 and 1,662 yards in 2006. Barber, who rushed for 5,409 yards in his first seven Giants seasons, ran for 5,040 in just three years under Ingram to finish with a franchise-record 10,449 yards. Barber set the Giants record with 234 rushing yards at Washington in his final regular season game, breaking the mark of 220 yards he had set the previous season.

Ingram also helped make Jacobs one of the NFL's best short-yardage and goal-line backs in limited playing time his first two seasons. In 2004, Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943. The following season, Jacobs rushed for 423 yards and nine scores to establish himself as Barber's successor.

Prior to joining the Giants, Ingram was the running backs coach under Coughlin at Boston College and in Jacksonville. The Jaguars were the only NFL team to rush for more than 2,000 yards in each season from 1998-2000, including an NFL-high 2,091 yards in 1999. Under Ingram's direction, Fred Taylor rushed for more than 1,200 yards three times, including a team-record 1,399 yards in 2000, when he missed 3½ games. Taylor had nine consecutive 100-yard games, tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history. In 1998, the Jaguars rushed for a team-record 2,102 yards. Ingram is also known for turning his running backs into fine blockers and receivers; when he left Jacksonville, running backs had two of the three longest touchdown receptions in team history.

Ingram joined the Jaguars on March 3, 1994, 18 months before the franchise played its first regular season game, and stayed in Jacksonville until Coughlin left following the 2002 season. He was one of four assistant coaches who were with Coughlin during his entire tenure with the Jaguars.

Prior to his time in Jacksonville, Ingram spent three seasons as the running backs coach at Boston College. He began his coaching career in 1984, as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan, his alma mater. The following year, he joined the staff at Ball State, first as tight ends coach, then as the running backs coach for five seasons. In 1991, he joined Coughlin at Boston College.

A fullback at Michigan, Ingram earned three letters and played on two Wolverines teams that won the Big Ten championship and advanced to the Rose Bowl. He graduated in 1984 with a degree in general studies.

Ingram was born in Dayton, Ohio. He grew up in Beaver, Pa. He and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Julian.

LARRY IZZO ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Larry Izzo, one of the most acclaimed special teams players in NFL history, is in his second season as the Giants' assistant special teams coach. Izzo works closely with special teams coordinator Tom Quinn.

In 2011, Izzo's first season with the Giants, he won his fourth Super Bowl ring and first as a coach. He also helped develop a group of rookies who quickly became outstanding special teams players — Jacquian Williams, Tyler Sash, Spencer Paysinger, Mark Herzlich and Greg Jones. The Giants' punt and kickoff coverage teams were solid all season and did not allow a touchdown in 2011.

In a 14-year NFL career (1996-2009), Izzo played for three teams and was both a three-time Super Bowl champion with New England and a three-time Pro Bowler. He was credited with 275 special teams tackles in 200 regular season games and 23 more in 21 postseason games. Izzo never played on a team with a losing record and his teams participated in the playoffs nine times, reached five AFC Championship Games and four Super Bowls. His teammates selected him as a special teams captain nine times, including eight with the Patriots.

Izzo began his career in 1996 as an undrafted free agent with the Miami Dolphins. He made such a rapid and positive impact that in preseason, Coach Jimmy Johnson said only two players were guaranteed to make the team — future Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino and Izzo. In his second NFL games, he blocked a Jeff Feagles punt. As a rookie, Izzo played in all 16 games and finished second on the team with 10 special teams tackles. He was voted the special teams alternate for the AFC Pro Bowl team and was an all-rookie selection by Pro Football Weekly.

Izzo spent the 1997 season on injured reserve after tearing an Achilles tendon in training camp. He returned the following year to play 13 games, register 21 special teams tackles and be Miami's recipient of the team's Ed Block Courage Award. Izzo played in all 16 games — plus his first two postseason games — in 1999, when he led the team with a career-high 33 special teams tackles. He was elected the Dolphins' special teams captain. In 2000, his final season in Miami, Izzo earned his first Pro Bowl selection after finishing with a team-high 31 special teams tackles.

Prior to the 2001 season, Izzo joined New England. In his first season with the Patriots, Izzo was voted special teams captain for the first of eight consecutive seasons, led the unit with 22 tackles and helped New England defeat St. Louis in Super Bowl XXXVI. The following year, Izzo was voted to the Pro Bowl for the second time after leading the Patriots with 20 special teams tackles. He was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after collecting six tackles in a game vs. Kansas City.

In 2003 and 2004, Izzo led New England with 31 and then 28 special teams tackles to help the Patriots win two more Super Bowls. He was a member of the AFC Pro Bowl team in 2004, when he was also an All-Pro. Izzo missed only one game from 2000-08 and was chosen for the Patriots' All-2000's team.

Izzo joined the Jets prior to the 2009 season. He was credited with 18 special teams tackles before going on injured reserve with a back injury on Dec. 10.

Izzo was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Rice University, where he played linebacker and finished fourth in school history with 301 tackles, including a record 46 for losses. As a senior, he had 121 tackles, was a team captain, and consensus first-team All-Southwest Conference selection. In 2002, Izzo graduated from Rice with a degree in business.

At McCullough High School in Houston, Izzo played safety and running back. The Houston Chronicle named him its two-way Player of the Year as a senior after he tallied 131 tackles and two interceptions on defense and contributed 1,081 yards rushing, 14 receptions for 109 yards and 10 kickoff returns for 224 yards.

In 2005, Izzo and Warrick Dunn participated in an NFL-sponsored USO tour to visit troops stationed overseas. They began their trip at Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan, where they helped open the Pat Tillman USO Center, then spent time with troops in Baghdad, Kuwait and Qatar. Izzo also visited injured military personnel at Walter Reed Army Medical Center outside Washington in 2004 and 2005.

Izzo and his wife, Mara, have a son, Boston.

DAVID MERRITT, SR. SECONDARY COACH/SAFETIES

David Merritt is in his ninth season on the Giants' coaching staff and his seventh as the team's secondary coach/safeties.

In 2011, the safeties were one of the most reliable and consistent units on the Super Bowl champion Giants. Antrel Rolle and Deon Grant played in all 20 regular season and postseason games - Rolle started every one - and Kenny Phillips missed only one. The three safeties were often on the field at the same time. Rolle led the team with 96 tackles and intercepted two passes. Phillips had 72 tackles and four picks and Grant had 58 tackles, an interception and a sack.

The safeties were the most improved unit on the team in 2010. Rolle and Grant - newcomers that year - teamed with Phillips - who missed most of the previous season after undergoing knee surgery - to form a versatile and productive trio. Rolle started all 16 games, was the Giants' second-leading tackler with 100, and was voted to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Phillips started 15 games and had 88 tackles. Grant had eight starts and, like Rolle, was often deployed close to the line of scrimmage. He had 68 tackles. The Giants were ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense and ninth in pass defense that season.

In 2009, Merritt molded a functioning safety unit after his best player, Phillips, was lost for the season following the second game because of the knee surgery. Five different players started at safety for the Giants that year, including converted cornerback Aaron Ross. Despite the shuffling, the Giants were ranked 15th in the NFL in pass defense.

Merritt has demonstrated a knack for developing players who were not highly-touted entering the NFL. When the Giants won the NFC East title in 2008, the starting safeties were Michael Johnson, a seventh-round draft choice, and James Butler, who joined the team as an undrafted free agent. That season, Johnson and Butler tied for second on the team with 76 tackles apiece. They also combined for five interceptions.

In the Giants' 2007 Super Bowl season, one of the team's best defensive players was free safety Gibril Wilson, who arrived as a fifth-round draft choice. Wilson led the club with 33 postseason tackles, was second with 96 regular season tackles, and was one of the top free agent safeties in 2008.

Merritt assumed his current position prior to the 2006 season. In 2005, he was the Giants' defensive assistant coach. The previous year, he had the additional title of quality control coach. Merritt was hired by Tom Coughlin on Jan. 26, 2004 after spending three seasons with the Jets as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach.

Before joining the Jets, Merritt coached at the collegiate level for four seasons. In 1997, he was the outside linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. The following year, Merritt moved to the Virginia Military Institute, where he coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers for one season and the defensive line for two.

A linebacker, Merritt was drafted by the Miami Dolphins in 1993. He played for the Arizona Cardinals from 1993-96 and for the Rhein Fire in NFL Europe in 1997. Merritt was an All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina State in 1992, when he led the conference in tackles. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science from N.C. State.

Merritt and his wife Yolonda have three sons, David Jr., Devin and Dawson, and a daughter, Drayah. He also has an older daughter, Kiki, who attends college in Atlanta.

ROBERT NUNN

DEFENSIVE LINE

Robert Nunn is in his 25th season as a football coach, his 13th in the NFL and his third coaching the Giants' defensive line.

Nunn's defensive line is one of the very best in the NFL. In 2011, the unit accounted for 41.5 of the Giants' 48 sacks, which tied for the league's second-highest total (not counting 3.5 by linebacker Mathias Kiwanuka, who frequently played up front).

Jason Pierre-Paul had a dominating sophomore NFL season, finishing with 16.5 sacks, the fourth-highest total in Giants history. He joined Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and Michael Strahan as the only Giants with at least 16 sacks in a season. Pierre-Paul was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press. He was twice named NFC Defensive Player of the Week in December – when he was also named NFC Defensive Player of the Month.

Osi Umenyiora was second on the team with 9.0 sacks despite missing seven games because of preseason knee surgery and an ankle injury suffered on Nov. 28 in New Orleans. Umenyiora and Justin Tuck tied for the Giants' postseason sack lead with 3.5 apiece. Tuck had both of the Giants' sacks of Tom Brady in the Giants' victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI.

Nunn also helped develop a sturdy tandem of tackles in Chris Canty and Linval Joseph, both of whom made major contributions to the Giants championship season.

In 2010, the defensive line played at a high level throughout the season and helped the Giants finish seventh in the NFL in total defense and eighth against the run. The Giants were second in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 46 sacks, led the league with 39 takeaways, and the line was responsible for 21 of the team's 29 forced fumbles.

Umenyiora and Tuck, a 2010 Pro Bowler, tied for fourth in the NFC and seventh in the NFL – and the team lead – with 11.5 sacks each, the first time the Giants had two players with at least that many sacks since 2005, when Umenyiora had 14.5 and Strahan finished with 11.5.

Umenyiora and Tuck each had three sacks on Oct. 3, when the Giants totaled 10 in a 17-3 victory over Chicago. It was Umenyiora's highest total in one game since he set a team record with six sacks against the Eagles when the team had 12 on Sept. 30, 2007. Tuck set a career high with his three sacks.

Umenyiora led the Giants and tied an NFL record with 10 forced fumbles, tying Jason Taylor's record set in 2006 with Miami. The stat has been kept since 1994. Tuck was first in the league with five recoveries of opponent fumbles.

Defensive tackle Barry Cofield had 68 tackles (36 solo, six for losses) and a career-high 4.0 sacks.

Pierre-Paul, a first-round draft choice in 2010, finished the season with 4.5 sacks, the most by a Giants rookie since Cornelius Griffin had 5.0 in 2000. Pierre-Paul had two sacks vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 28 and two against Washington the following week to become the first rookie in Giants history with at least two sacks in consecutive games.

Nunn was the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' defensive line coach in 2009. Prior to his season with the Bucs, Nunn spent four years (2005-2008) coaching the Green Bay Packers' defensive tackles. In 2008, Nunn oversaw a deep and talented rotation on the interior of the Packers defensive line. Two of Nunn's players, Johnny Jolly and Ryan Pickett, ranked in the top five in tackles among Green Bay defenders that season. Jolly set a new career high with 82 stops. Pickett, who joined the Packers as a free agent acquisition in 2006, thrived under Nunn as he tallied 236 tackles, 2.5 sacks and 13 passes defensed the past three seasons. Nunn's guidance also contributed to the emergence of Corey Williams in 2006, when the then third-year pro turned in his best season with 47 tackles and seven sacks.

In 2005, Nunn helped elevate the Packers' defense from 25th in the NFL before his arrival to seventh in the league. Under Nunn's direction, Grady Jackson started all 16 games for only the second time as a pro and responded with career bests in tackles (72) and passes defensed (four).

Nunn entered the NFL as a defensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2000. The following year, he was promoted to assistant defensive line/quality control coach. He held that role for two years (2001-02), during which time he worked with Pro Bowler Jason Taylor.

In 2003, Nunn coached the Washington Redskins' defensive line. One of his players was Bruce Smith, who broke the late Reggie White's NFL career sacks record. Nunn also tutored veteran standouts Renaldo Wynn and Regan Upshaw.

Nunn returned to Miami in 2004 as a special assistant. He began the year working on off-the-field projects and then assisted with the linebackers after Coach Dave Wannstedt resigned with seven games left in the season.

Nunn's 12-year college coaching experience was highlighted by nine years at Georgia Military College in Milledgeville, Georgia. After one season as defensive coordinator, the school promoted him to head coach and athletic director in 1992. In his eight seasons holding that position, Nunn posted an outstanding 66-19 record.

He launched his coaching career at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College in 1988, heading up the defensive line. He then tutored defensive ends at the University of Tennessee for two seasons (1989-90).

A four-year letterman (1984-87) as a linebacker at Oklahoma State, Nunn served as team captain in 1987. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in secondary education from the school in 1988.

Nunn and his wife Karen have five children: one daughter, Josie, and four sons, Noah, Jacob, Nathan and Johnny.

JERRY PALMIERI STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

New Jersey native and long-time Tom Coughlin assistant Jerry Palmieri is in his ninth season as the Giants' strength and conditioning coach, a position he assumed on Jan. 13, 2004.

Palmieri is one of the NFL's most respected conditioning coaches. He was honored as the 2007 Samson's NFL Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. In 1999, Palmieri was honored by the Professional Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society as Coach of the Year.

Palmieri was the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003. Prior to that he spent nine years as a strength and conditioning coach under Coughlin, one at Boston College (where he was the director of strength and conditioning operations) and eight with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Palmieri's goal is to help each player increase in size, strength and speed, which ultimately produces a more powerful and productive athlete. "Coach Coughlin wants our team to play physical on the field," Palmieri said. "Our job is to make our players more physical and more powerful, so that their play will be physical in competition."

Palmieri began his career as a strength coach at the University of North Carolina in 1982. From there he moved to Oklahoma State (1984-86) and Kansas State (1987-92) before joining Coughlin at Boston College. In addition to his coaching experience, Palmieri has taught physical education classes and written articles about strength and conditioning for national publications.

Palmieri is a 1980 graduate of Montclair State University, which is located just 15 minutes from MetLife Stadium. He received a master's degree in exercise physiology from North Carolina in 1984. Palmieri was a three-time New Jersey Golden Gloves champion (1976-78) and competed in international competitions as a member of the 1978 and 1979 USA Boxing Teams.

Palmieri was raised in Dumont, N.J. He and his wife, Ellen, also a New Jersey native, have a son, Tony, and a daughter, Annamarie, who is married to Trent Atwood.

MARKUS PAUL

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Markus Paul, a former NFL player who has won five Super Bowl rings as a coach in the league, is in his sixth season as the Giants' assistant strength and conditioning coach. Paul works closely with Jerry Palmieri to improve the size, strength, speed and conditioning of the Giants' players.

Paul was on the staff of the Super Bowl-winning Giants in 2007 and 2011 and won three Super Bowl rings with the New England Patriots in 2001, 2003 and 2004.

Prior to joining the Giants, Paul spent two seasons on the coaching staff of the Jets, in 2005 as the director of physical development and the following year as the head strength and conditioning coach.

Before his tenure with the Jets, Paul was the New England Patriots' assistant strength and conditioning coach. He worked under Mike Woicik, who has trained six Super Bowl championship teams.

Paul's first NFL coaching position was as the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1998-99.

A defensive back during his playing career, Paul was the Chicago Bears' fourth-round draft choice in 1989. He played with the Bears until 1993, when he played one game with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Paul played in 71 games with 30 starts at strong or free safety. He intercepted seven passes, which he returned for a total of 100 yards.

A four-year starter at Syracuse University, Paul holds the school record with 19 career interceptions. As a senior in 1988, he was credited with 76 tackles and was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News and Football News. Paul earned a Bachelor of Science degree in retailing.

Paul was raised in Kissimmee, Fla. He and his wife, Patricia, have a son, Jairus, and a daughter, Tabitha.

MICHAEL POPE TIGHT ENDS

When Tom Coughlin became the Giants' head coach and began assembling his staff in January 2004, he retained only one position coach from the previous regime: tight ends coach Michael Pope. Coughlin's reasoning was simple and logical. "He is the best tight ends coach in football," Coughlin said.

Pope has proven that for many years. This is Pope's 30th consecutive season as an NFL coach. He is one of the league's most experienced, respected and successful assistant coaches. Pope has coached in 33 postseason games, including six Super Bowls, winning four of them.

This the 13th season of Pope's second tour of duty with the Giants and his 22nd as an assistant with the team, more than any coach in the franchise's long history. He is the only coach to participate in each of the Giants' five Super Bowls and the only Giants coach to have his name inscribed on four Lombardi trophies. He also coached in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1996.

Pope enhanced his standing as the NFL's finest tight ends coach in 2011, when Jake Ballard became a valuable component in the passing attack. Ballard joined the team as a rookie free agent in 2010, when he played briefly in one game. But last year he finished fourth on the team with 38 catches and scored four touchdowns, despite missing two games with a knee injury.

In 2009-10, Kevin Boss, a fifth-round draft choice from Western Oregon in 2007, caught 77 passes for 1,098 yards and 10 touchdowns. Boss became a fulltime starter in 2008 and emerged as a reliable receiver and forceful blocker. He had team-high six touchdown receptions among his 33 catches. Boss' 45-yard catch-and-run in Super Bowl XLII set up the Giants' first touchdown. Both Travis Beckum and Bear Pascoe made significant strides working under Pope as second-year pros in 2010.

Pope's guidance and teaching helped make Jeremy Shockey one of the NFL's best tight ends. From 2002-06, Shockey was voted to the Pro Bowl four times. His 371 career receptions place him fourth on the Giants' career list (behind Amani Toomer, Tiki Barber and Joe Morrison).

Shockey was the Giants' first-round draft choice in 2002, when he caught 74 passes, a team record for both rookies and tight ends. He led all NFL tight ends in receiving and receiving yards (894) and he became the first rookie tight end to make the Pro Bowl since 1988. Shockey was elected to several all-pro teams. In 2003, Shockey caught 48 passes and was again chosen to go to Hawaii despite missing the season's final nine games with a knee injury.

Pope has long been an outstanding tutor of tight ends. Shockey was the fifth tight end to play for Pope to make the NFL's all-rookie team, joining former Giants Zeke Mowatt, 1983; Mark Bavaro, 1985; and Howard Cross, 1989; and Cincinnati's Tony McGee in 1993. Pope is not only successful at grooming young talent, but he is also adept at guiding his veteran students to elite status. Five of his players have been selected to the Pro Bowl — Bavaro, Rodney Holman (Bengals), Ben Coates (Patriots), Stephen Alexander (Redskins) and Shockey.

Pope was re-hired by the Giants on Feb. 11, 2000. He played a major role in bringing a new vitality to the Giants offense that season, which ended with the team winning the NFC championship and playing in Super Bowl XXXV. He has further energized it the last decade by overseeing the development of Shockey and then Boss.

Pope was a member of Bill Parcells' Giants' coaching staff from 1983-91. He left the Giants following the 1991 season and spent two years with the Cincinnati Bengals, the first as tight ends coach and the second as offensive coordinator. He joined the New England Patriots in 1994 as running backs coach before moving to tight ends coach in 1995. Pope was the Washington Redskins' tight ends coach from 1997-99.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Pope spent 13 seasons in the collegiate and high school ranks. His first coaching position was at Lenoir (N.C.) High School in 1964, and he coached at high schools in Charlotte, N.C., Jacksonville, Fla., and Lake Wales, Fla.

Pope's first job in college football was with Florida State from 1970-74. He then moved to Texas Tech (1975-77) where he served as a receivers coach and recruiter. From 1978-82, Pope was on the coaching staff at the University of Mississippi, where he coached the receivers, as well as punters and kickers.

Pope played quarterback for Lenoir-Rhyne College, where his team won one national championship and was runner-up a second time. The team's combined record during his playing career was 34-8-3. An all-conference player, Pope was team captain and MVP as a senior. He was also inducted into Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and was the "Team Before Self" award winner as a senior. Pope is a member of the Lenoir-Rhyne College Hall of Fame. A shoulder injury ended Pope's World Football League career after one year.

Pope was born in Monroe, N.C. Michael and his wife, Lee have two sons. Travus spends his time between Naples, Fla., where he runs a hedge fund, and Hollywood, Calif., where he is a co-producer in the movie industry. Daron lives in New York City and runs the business side of his wife's company: Rosie Pope Maternity and Mom Prep. Rosie, a native of London, is the star of Bravo's "Pregnant in Heels." Along with their busy television and business life, they are the parents of three young children: sons, J.R. and Wellington (named after the Giants' late, beloved owner), and a daughter, Vivienne Madison Pope, born on Mother's Day, 2012.

MATT RHULE ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Matt Rhule is in his first season as the Giants' assistant offensive line coach. He soon will work closely with Pat Flaherty, who has been the offensive line coach since 2004. Rhule replaces Jack Bicknell, Jr., who left the Giants soon after they won Super Bowl XLVI to become the Kansas City Chiefs' offensive line coach.

Rhule, 37, a former player at Penn State, coached at the collegiate level for 14 seasons, including the last six at Temple, where in 2011 he was the co-offensive coordinator and tight ends coach.

Last year, the Owls went 9-4 and played in the fourth bowl game in school history, the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, where they crushed Wyoming, 37-15 — Temple's first postseason victory since the 1979 Garden State Bowl. Rhule coached two-time first-team All-MAC tight end Evan Rodriguez. For the second time in Rhule's tenure, the Owls set the school's single-season rushing yardage record and rushing touchdowns records behind All-MAC running backs Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown.

Rhule held a variety of positions in his six seasons at Temple. He coached the defensive line in 2006 and the following season served as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. In 2008, Rhule was promoted to offensive coordinator and continued to coach the quarterbacks, dual roles he held for three years. In 2010, Rhule guided the offense to the largest margin of victory in a MAC game (42 points over Buffalo). Helping the team to an 8-4 regular-season record, the Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79, including their first win over a BCS team. A school-record six offensive players earned All-MAC honors, including repeat first-team honorees offensive linemen Colin Madison and Darius Morris, and Pierce and first-time honoree Rodriguez.

Last year, in addition to coaching the tight ends and serving as co-coordinator, Rhule was again the recruiting coordinator. The Owls' 2012 recruiting class was ranked No. 1 in the MAC for the fourth time during his tenure.

From 2002 to 2005, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina. He coached the linebackers his first three years at the school before becoming offensive line coach and run game coordinator in 2005.

Rhule arrived at Western Carolina after serving as assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001. From 1999 to 2000, Rhule was an assistant coach at the University at Buffalo. Rhule began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Penn State in the spring of 1998 before working at Albright College in Reading, Pa. for the 1998 season. At Albright, he coached the linebackers in a 4-3 scheme and recruited western and central Pennsylvania.

Rhule played four seasons at linebacker at Penn State under Joe Paterno. A three-time Penn State Scholar-Athlete, he earned Academic All-Big 10 honors in 1997.

A State College, Pa. native, Rhule received his undergraduate degree in political science before earning his master's degree in educational psychology from Buffalo in 2003.

SEAN RYAN

QUARTERBACKS

Sean Ryan is in his first season as the Giants' quarterbacks coach and sixth year as a member of Tom Coughlin's staff. He spent the previous two years as the team's wide receivers coach. Prior to assuming that position he spent three years as the Giants' offensive quality control coach.

Ryan was named quarterbacks coach in March and was quickly endorsed by his most important player, Eli Manning.

"I'm excited about Sean Ryan being the quarterbacks coach," Manning said. "He's a guy that's been in this system, worked his way from the ground up and spent two years with the receivers. He's a young guy (40) who is energetic. He's driven to continue to learn."

The Giants' wide receivers were very productive in their two seasons under Ryan. Last year, the unit helped the Giants set franchise records with 359 completions and 4,734 net passing yards. Victor Cruz, who did not have a career reception entering the season, caught 82 passes for 1,536 yards and nine touchdowns. The 82 receptions tied Amani Toomer (2002) for second place on the Giants' single-season list and Cruz's 1,536 yards broke Toomer's former team record by 193 yards. Hakeem Nicks caught 76 passes for a career-high 1,192 yards and seven touchdowns. Under Ryan, Cruz and Nicks became the first receivers to have more than 1,000 yards in the same season. Another receiver, the since-departed Mario Manningham, made perhaps the most important grab of the season for a 38-yard gain in the fourth quarter of the Giants' Super Bowl XLVI victory over New England.

The wide receivers played impressively in 2010, their first season with Ryan as their position coach. Nicks led the Giants with 79 receptions for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns, despite missing three games because of injury. His 11 touchdown receptions tied Del Shofner (1962) for the third-highest total in Giants history. Manningham added nine touchdown catches as he and Nicks became the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had nine.

Manningham was second on the team with 60 catches for 944 yards and those nine scores. In the final two games, he caught Eli Manning touchdown passes of 85 and 92 yards that were two of the nine longest pass plays in the 86-year history of the Giants.

Ryan came to the Giants from Harvard University, where he spent the 2006 season as recruiting coordinator, running backs coach, and head coach of the junior varsity.

Prior to his year at Harvard, Ryan was an assistant coach at Columbia University for three seasons. In 2003 and 2004, Ryan was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The following season, Ryan coached the quarterbacks.

Before coaching at Columbia, Ryan spent two years as a graduate assistant at Boston College, where he worked primarily with the wide receivers. The Eagles won bowl games in each of those seasons, beating Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl and Toledo in the 2002 Motor City Bowl.

Ryan was the running backs coach at Colgate in 2000, a graduate assistant at the University at Albany (where the Giants hold training camp) in 1998-99 and the quarterbacks coach at Siena for a season.

Ryan played defensive back and outside linebacker at Hamilton College, where he graduated in 1994 with a degree in American studies. He also earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Albany.

A native of Hudson Falls, N.Y. — north of Albany — Ryan was a standout football, basketball and baseball player at Hudson Falls High School.

LUNDA WELLS OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

team's wide receivers coach.

Wells spent the previous four seasons at LSU. In 2008-09, he was an offensive line assistant. In addition to his practice and game day duties working with the offensive line, Wells' administrative responsibilities included self-scouting, breaking down tape of opponents and developing scouting reports.

In his final two years at LSU, Wells was an assistant to the head coach and an assistant to special teams coach Thomas McGaughey, who was a member of the Giants' coaching staff from 2007-10. Wells worked with LSU head coach Les Miles on game day responsibilities (charting opponents' defensive and special teams schemes from the coaches' booth), practice preparation, administrative tasks and recruiting duties, and with McGaughey on self-scouting, breaking down tape of opponents, assisting with the game plan and scouting reports.

In 2010, Wells was an offensive line intern in the Dallas Cowboys' training camp, where he worked alongside coach Hudson Houck.

Wells was the offensive line coach, run game coordinator and head strength and conditioning coach at Scotlandville High School in Baton Rouge in 2006-07. He coached the offensive line and devised the offensive run game plans.

An offensive lineman, Wells played in the Arena Football League for the Grand Rapids Rampage, South Georgia Rampage and Louisiana Swashbucklers. Wells was a four-year starter at guard at Southern University (2002-05). In 2002 and 2005, he was voted to the All-Southwestern Athletic Conference first team. Southern won the 2003 SWAC championship. Wells blocked for two quarterbacks who were named SWAC Player of the Year. In addition to his conference title ring, Wells earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and, in 2007, a master's degree in criminal justice at Southern.

Wells is a native of Baker, La., just outside Baton Rouge. He was a Class 5A first-team all-state offensive line selection at Baker High School. Wells was recruited by powerhouses such as Alabama and Nebraska.

Wells, 29, is married to Tiffany. They have a daughter, Adanya Neema.

TRANSACTIONS:

Originally signed as a rookie free agent by the Giants on June 21, 2005...Signed by the Giants on Nov. 30, 2011.

GIANTS NOTE:

- Made the Giants 53-man roster out of training camp as a rookie free agent and has since been one of the team's most consistent contributors on special teams...Led the team in special teams tackles each season from 2005-2010.
- In 2008, was named a 1st alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team as a special teamer.
- Has started games at both weakside and middle linebacker.
- Was 1 of the Giants' most inspirational stories in 2011, when he joined the team the week after Thanksgiving and became a vital contributor during the stretch run and in the playoffs.
- Made 1 of the biggest defensive plays of Super Bowl XLVI when he intercepted a long Tom Brady pass early in the 4th quarter, the Giants' only takeaway of the game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 98 regular-season games with 21 starts and in 10 postseason games with 4 starts...Career totals include 129 tackles (80 solo), 1.5 sacks, 3 interceptions (including 1 returned 32 yards for a touchdown), 5 passes defensed, 1 forced fumble, 2 fumble recoveries and 109 special teams tackles...In the postseason, Blackburn has 35 tackles (22 solo), 1 interception, 2 passes defensed and 7 special teams tackles.
- In 2011, Blackburn had an abbreviated but very rewarding season. He was out of football until the Giants signed him on Nov. 30. Blackburn soon became the team's starting middle linebacker and was the club's 2nd-leading tackler in the 4-game postseason that concluded with a victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI.
- Blackburn played in the final 5 regular season games, started at middle linebacker in the last 4 and he started all 4 postseason games...In the regular-season, he had 21 tackles (15 solo), 1 interception, 2 passes defensed and 5 special teams tackles. His postseason totals included 25 tackles (16 solo), 1 interception, 1 fumble recovery and 1 special teams tackles.
- Made his season debut vs. Green Bay (12/4) with 5 tackles (1 solo) and an interception of an Aaron Rodgers pass that he returned 9 yards to the Green Bay 12-yard line, setting up a Giants touchdown...Started the 1st of 8 consecutive games at middle linebacker at Dallas (12/11) and had 1 tackle...Had 6 solo tackles vs. Washington (12/18) and 5 solo tackles at Jets (12/24)...Contributed 4 tackles (3 solo) in victory over Dallas (1/1) that clinched NFC East title...Tied for team high with 9 tackles (5 solo) in NFC Wild Card Game vs. Atlanta (1/8)...Was credited with 3 tackles (2 solo) in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Green Bay (1/15). Also recovered a Ryan Grant fumble in the 4th quarter and returned it 40 yards to set up a Giants touchdown. It was the longest fumble return in Giants postseason history. The previous long was a 24-yarder by Alex Webster on Dec. 28, 1958...Posted a team-high 7 tackles (5 solo) in the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22)...Had 6 tackles (4 solo) in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5). Made 1 of the Giants' most important defensive plays on the 2nd snap of the 4th quarter, when he intercepted a long Tom Brady pass from Ron Gronkowski on the 8-yard line.
- In 2010, played in 14 games with the vast majority of his action on special teams...Missed games at Indianapolis (9/19) and vs. Tennessee (9/26) with a knee sprain...Had 1 defensive tackle at Green Bay (12/26)...Led the team with 17 special teams tackles (13 solo), the 6th season in a row he has alone or tied atop that category...Had 3 special teams tackles in each of 3 consecutive games: at Minnesota (12/13), vs. Philadelphia (12/19) and at Green Bay.
- In 2009, played in all 16 games - for the 4th consecutive season - with 7 starts - 5 at weakside linebacker and 2 at middle linebacker...Finished the season with 38 tackles (25 solo), an interception and a half-sack on defense and tied Bryan Kehl with a team-high 16 special teams tackles. It was the 5th consecutive season he owned or shared the Giants in that category...Started season opener vs. Washington (9/13) at weakside linebacker and had 6 tackles (3 solo)...Started 4 games after Michael Boley underwent knee surgery: vs. Oakland (10/11), at New Orleans (10/18), vs. Arizona (10/25) and at Philadelphia (11/1)...Had a season-high 9 tackles (7 solo), including a half-sack vs. the Saints...Started at middle linebacker vs. Atlanta (11/22) and at Denver (11/26)...Intercepted Jason Campbell in 4th quarter at Washington (12/21) and returned the ball 24 yards.
- In 2008, played in all 16 regular-season games with 8 starts (7 at weakside linebacker and 1 at middle linebacker) and played in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Philadelphia (1/11)...Contributed a career-high 45 tackles (25 solo), 1 QB hit, 1 sack, 1 pass defensed, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery...Also had a team-high 18 special teams tackles and was voted a 1st alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team for his work on special teams.
- Made his 1st start of the season at middle linebacker in place of injured Antonio Pierce vs. San Francisco (10/19) and had 8 tackles (6 solo), 1 sack and 1 pass defensed. Recorded his 1st career regular season sack when he stripped J.T. O'Sullivan of the ball for a 7-yard loss in the 4th quarter... Started on the weak side vs. Dallas (11/2) and remained there for the rest of the season.

- Was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after recording 3 tackles and recovering a fumble on a kickoff at Philadelphia (11/9)... Also stopped Brian Westbrook on 4th-and-1 with 1.47 remaining in victory at Philadelphia... Started at weakside linebacker and also played at middle linebacker at Minnesota (12/28) and finished with 6 tackles (5 solo) and 1 QB hit.

- Made his 1st career postseason start in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Philadelphia (1/11) and had 5 tackles (2 solo) and 1 pass defensed.

- In 2007, played in all 16 regular-season games and 4 postseason contests... Recorded a team-high 17 special teams tackles... Saw action at middle linebacker in games vs. San Francisco (10/21), vs. Minnesota (11/25) and at Buffalo (12/23)... Recorded 6 tackles (1 solo).

- In 2006, played in 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game... Tied with Reggie Torbor for the team lead with 14 special teams tackles... Saw some reserve action at linebacker... Had 5 tackles (4 solo) and a sack for an 8-yard loss as the nickel linebacker in his 1st career postseason action at Philadelphia in the NFC Wild Card game (1/7).

- As a rookie in 2005, played in 15 games with 2 starts... Led the Giants with a career-high 22 special teams tackles.

- Started 2 games at middle linebacker after Antonio Pierce suffered a season-ending ankle injury... Recovered a fumble on the game's opening kickoff to set up Brandon Jacobs' 1-yard touchdown run at New Orleans (9/19)... Played for the 1st time on defense at San Francisco (11/6) when he replaced an injured Nick Greisen for a few plays early in the 3rd quarter... Made 1st NFL start vs. Kansas City (12/17) after Carlos Emmons was a late inactive due to a pec.

injury. Blackburn finished with 9 tackles (3 solo).

- Started at middle linebacker at Washington (12/24) and recorded 6 tackles (3 solo) and an interception that he returned for a 32-yard touchdown. Picked off a Mark Brunell pass intended for James Thrash and ran up the left sideline for his first pro score. He also had 1 special teams tackle... Left the game in the 3rd quarter with a neck strain that ended his season and forced him to go on injured reserve.

COLLEGE - MARSHALL

HIGH SCHOOL - GRAHAM (VA.)

BIRTHDATE - MARCH 19, 1986

HOW ACQUIRED - DRAFT (7TH ROUND, 2007)

NFL EXP. - 6TH YEAR

GIANT EXP. - 6TH YEAR

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 7th round (250th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2007.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Although a starter for just 2 seasons, Bradshaw is 10th on the Giants' career rushing list with 3,217 yards — 75 yards behind No. 9 Eddie Price.
- Since 2006, four different Giants backs have rushed for at least 1,000 yards — Tiki Barber, Brandon Jacobs, Derrick Ward and Bradshaw. No other team has more than three 1,000-yard rushers in those 6 seasons (Tennessee, Baltimore and Miami).
- Had the Giants' longest rushes in each of his first 3 seasons: An 88-yard touchdown (3rd longest in Giants history) at Buffalo (12/23/07), a 77-yarder vs. Baltimore (11/16/08) and a 38-yarder at Tampa Bay (9/27/09).
- His 1,788 kickoff return yards place him 4th on the Giants all-time list.
- With 32 yards vs. Arizona (10/25/09), Bradshaw became the 39th player to run for at least 1,000 yards in a Giants uniform.
- Bradshaw scored the winning touchdown in Super Bowl XLVI on a 6-yard run with 57 seconds left. It was the 4th time in Super Bowl history the winning touchdown has been scored in the final minute, and 2 have involved the Giants and Patriots. Bradshaw's score is the only rushing touchdown of the 4.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 70 regular-season games with 21 starts and played in 9 postseason games with 3 starts...In the regular season, Bradshaw has 700 carries for 3,217 yards, a 4.6-yard average that is the 2nd highest in Giants history by a back with at least 500 rushing attempts... Bradshaw's 3,217 yards place him 10th in franchise history...He has scored 26 rushing touchdowns, tying him with Bill Paschal 9th in team history...Has rushed for at least 100 yards 8 times; the Giants are 8-0 in those games.
- Bradshaw has also caught 109 passes for 842 yards (7.7-yard avg.) and 2 touchdowns. Bradshaw is 1 of 8 players in Giants history with at least 3,000 rushing yards and 100 receptions.
- Bradshaw's 1,788 kickoff return yards (on 77 returns), place him 4th on the franchise's career list, 84 yards behind No. 3 Willie Ponder.
- In the postseason, Bradshaw has 111 carries for 480 yards (4.3-yard avg.) and 2 touchdowns, plus 20 catches for 141 yards (7.1-yard avg.)...The 111 attempts place him 3rd in Giants postseason history (behind Joe Morris and Brandon Jacobs) and his 480 yards place him 2nd (behind Morris).

- In 2011, played in 12 regular-season games with 9 starts and in 4 postseason games with 3 starts. Inactive for 4 games (Nov. 6-28) with a foot injury...Led the Giants in rushing for the 2nd year in a row with 659 yards on 171 carries. He also had a team-high 9 rushing touchdowns (tying Victor Cruz, who caught 9 scoring passes), for the team lead in touchdowns...Added 34 catches for 267 yards and 2 touchdowns.

- Bradshaw scored on an 18-yard reception for the Giants' final touchdown in a win at Philadelphia (9/25).

- Bradshaw was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week after rushing for a season-high 104 yards and the first 3-touchdown game of his career vs. Buffalo (10/16).

- Carried 15 times for 54 yards, including touchdown runs of 14 and 19 yards, in a victory at the Jets (12/24).

- Bradshaw's 5-yard rushing touchdown vs. Dallas (1/1) was his 9th of the season, breaking the career-high of 8 he set in 2010 — which broke the career-high of 7 he established in 2009. It was the 2nd year in a row a Giants back rushed for 9 touchdowns; Brandon Jacobs did it in 2010...Bradshaw also scored on a 10-yard reception in the game.

- Bradshaw led the Giants in the postseason with 272 rushing yards on 63 carries. In 2007, he had a team-high 208 postseason rushing yards.

- In Super Bowl XLVI, Bradshaw led the Giants with 72 rushing yards on 17 carries, including the game-winning 6-yard touchdown with 57 seconds remaining. He is the 1st player to rush for a game-winning touchdown in the final minute of a Super Bowl.

- Bradshaw is the 4th player to score the game-winning touchdown in the last minute of a Super Bowl, joining John Taylor (Super Bowl XXIII), the Giants' Plaxico Burress (Super Bowl XLII) and Santonio Holmes (Super Bowl XLIII). Taylor, Burress and Holmes all caught touchdown passes.

- In 2010, played in all 16 games with 11 starts...Had career-high totals of 276 carries for 1,235 yards and 8 touchdowns...Bradshaw's 1,235 rushing yards were the 7th-highest single-season total in Giants history and left him 4th in the NFC and 9th in the NFL. The 1,235 yards were only 88 less than Bradshaw had in his first 3 seasons combined...Led the Giants with four 100-yard games, including a Giants season-high of 133 yards vs. Detroit (10/17).

- Bradshaw was 12th in the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 1,549.

- His 47 receptions were a career high and led all Giants who didn't play wide receiver.

- Bradshaw was selected the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance in the Giants' 17-3 victory over Chicago (10/3). He rushed for 129 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries and caught 2 passes for 14 yards. His 3-yard touchdown run late in the 3rd quarter gave the Giants a 10-0 lead. The score was set up by Bradshaw's 25-yard run immediately preceding the touchdown.

- With Bradshaw (1,235) and Brandon Jacobs (823), the Giants were 1 of just 2 teams in 2010 with two 800-yard rushers. Kansas City was the other (with Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones). It was just the 2nd time the Giants had two 800-yard runners in the same season. In 2008, Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards and Derrick Ward added 1,025.

- The Giants rushed for 213 yards at Minnesota (12/13), their highest total since they ran for 220 yards vs. Oakland on Oct. 11, 2009. Jacobs (116 yards on 14 carries) and Bradshaw (103 yards on 11 attempts) each rushed for more than 100 yards. It was only the 2nd time in history the Giants had two 100-yard rushers in the same game. Jacobs (145 yards on 24 carries) and Bradshaw (151 yards on 17 attempts) accomplished the feat at Buffalo on Dec. 23, 2007.

- Jacobs rushed for 9 touchdowns and Bradshaw 8, the first time the Giants had 2 backs run for at least 8 scores in the same season.

- In 2009, played in 15 games with 1 start (at Minnesota on 1/3)...Did not play at Denver (11/26) due to ankle injury...Posted then career-high totals of 163 carries for 778 yards and a team-high 7 rushing touchdowns despite playing with cracked bones in both of his feet, as well as bone spurs in his ankle, all of which required surgery following the season...Also caught 21 passes for 207 yards, with a long reception of 55 yards and returned 6 punts for 55 yards.

- Bradshaw had the Giants' only 2 100-yard rushing games of the season: 104 yards at Tampa Bay (9/27) and 110 yards vs. Oakland (10/11)...Scored 2 touchdowns vs. Oakland and at Washington (12/21)...Caught a season-high 4 passes vs. Philadelphia (12/13)...Had a season-long 55-yard reception vs. Oakland.

- In 2008, played in 15 games with no starts. Inactive at Washington (11/30) due to a neck injury...Finished 3rd on the team with 355 rushing yards and 1 touchdown on 67 carries...Led the team with 39 kickoff returns for 867 yards (a 22.2-yard avg.)...Added 5 receptions for 42 yards and a touchdown...His 8 special teams tackles placed him 6th on the team...Joined Jacobs and Ward in a 3-pronged Giants rushing attack that led the NFL in rushing and established franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry.

- Finished with 5 carries for 52 yards and a touchdown and 1 reception for 18 yards and a touchdown at St. Louis (9/14), where he was the 1st Giant to score rushing and receiving in the same regular season game since Tiki Barber did it against New Orleans on Sept. 19, 2005...Also returned 4 kickoffs for 93 yards...Finished with a season-high 11 carries for 65 yards, all in the 4th quarter, vs. Seattle (10/5)...Led a Giants rushing attack that amassed 207 yards with a season-high 96 yards on 9 carries vs. Baltimore (11/16)...Had a Giants season-long 77 yard run in the 4th quarter.

- As a rookie in 2007, Bradshaw played in 12 regular-season games and all 4 postseason games...Finished the regular season with 23 carries for 190 yards and 1 touchdown, plus 2 receptions for 12 yards...Also returned a team-high 38 kickoffs for 921 yards...Led the Giants in the postseason with 48 carries for 208 yards and a touchdown...Added 4 receptions for 27 yards and a 13-yard kickoff return.

- Made his NFL debut at Dallas (9/9) with 7 kickoff returns for 193 yards...Added 2 special teams tackles and recovered his own fumble on a kickoff return...Contributed a season-long 68-yard kickoff return at Detroit (11/18).

- Had his first 4 NFL rushing attempts (for 29 yards) vs. Minnesota (11/25)...Also had a career-high 8 kickoff returns for 176 yards...Saw his most extensive playing time at running back at Buffalo (12/23), where Jacobs was slowed by an ankle injury...Finished with a team-high 151 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries...Bradshaw and Jacobs (145 yards and 2 touchdowns) became the 1st tandem in Giants history to rush for more than 100 yards in the same game. The Giants became the 1st team to have 2 runners with 140 or more yards in the same game since Nov. 11, 2001, when St. Louis' Marshall Faulk ran for 183 yards and Trung Canidate added 145 in a game against Carolina...Bradshaw's 151 rushing yards were the most by a Giants running back other than Tiki Barber since Rodney Hampton ran for 187 yards at Dallas on Dec. 17, 1995...Bradshaw's 88-yard touchdown in the 4th quarter was the 3rd-longest run in the history of the franchise. Barber set the record with a 95-yarder at Oakland on Dec. 31, 2005, followed by Hop Moran's 91-yard run vs. Green Bay on Nov. 23, 1930...The 88-yard run was also the longest in the NFL in 2007...Also returned 1 punt for 1 yard, his 1st of the season and returned 4 kickoffs for 99 yards with a long of 36 yards.

- Rushed for 66 yards on a postseason-high 17 carries in NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay (1/6)...Ran for 34 yards on 7 attempts in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas (1/13)...Finished with 16 carries for 63 yards and a touchdown with a long run of 10 yards in the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay (1/20)...Also caught 1 pass for 9 yards and scored his 1st playoff touchdown on a 4-yard run in the 3rd quarter that gave the Giants a 20-17 lead...Rushed for a team-high 45 yards on 9 carries in Super Bowl XLII vs. New England (2/3)...Long run of 13 yards came in the 2nd quarter...Also had 1 reception for 3 yards.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 32 games with 22 starts in 3 seasons at Marshall...Rushed 552 times for 2,987 yards (5.4-yard avg.) and 31 touchdowns...Also caught 86 passes for 696 yards (8.1-yard avg.) and 5 scores...Added 118 yards on 11 punt returns (10.7-yard avg.) and 225 yards on 10 kickoff returns (22.5-yard avg.).

- Became the 10th player in school history to gain more than 4,000 all-purpose yards in a career and the 8th player to gain over 1,000 yards rushing (1,523 in 2006) in a season.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally signed as a rookie free agent by the Giants on April 25, 2010

GIANTS NOTES:

- Cruz enjoyed a breakout season in 2011, when he led the Giants in all major receiving statistical categories, set franchise records and scored the team's first touchdown in the 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 19 regular-season games with 7 starts and has started all 4 postseason games in which he played... Career regular season totals are 82 catches for 1,536 yards and 9 touchdowns. Has also returned 3 punts for 12 yards. In the postseason, Cruz has 21 receptions for 269 yards and a touchdown.
- In 2011, played in all 16 regular-season games with 7 starts and started all 4 postseason games...Led the Giants with 82 receptions for 1,536 yards and 9 touchdowns. In the postseason, Cruz had 21 catches for 269 yards and 1 touchdown.
- The 82 receptions tied Amani Toomer (2002) for 2nd place on the Giants' single-season list. Steve Smith holds the record with 107 catches in 2009.
- Cruz's 1,536 yards were a Giants record, breaking Toomer's former mark by 193 yards (Toomer had 1,343 yards in 2002). The yardage total left Cruz 3rd in the NFL, behind only Detroit's Calvin Johnson and New England's Wes Welker and directly in front of Arizona's Larry Fitzgerald. Johnson was the 2nd overall selection of the 2007 NFL Draft and Fitzgerald was picked 3rd in 2004. Welker and Cruz entered the NFL as undrafted free agents.
- Cruz was the first Giants player to finish in the top 3 in the NFL in receiving yards since Toomer in 2002.
- Cruz was the 11th player (and 10th wide receiver) in Giants history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season.
- Joined with Hakeem Nicks (1,192) to give the Giants two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season for the 1st time in team history.
- Cruz's 18.7-yard average was the highest among the 72 NFL players who had at least 50 catches in 2011 and was the highest by a Giant with at least 50 receptions since Del Shofner averaged 21.4 yards on 53 catches in 1962. No NFL receiver had averaged at least 18.7 yards on at least 82 catches since St. Louis' Terry Holt in 2000 (19.9-yard average on 82 receptions).
- In the Giants' NFC East-clinching victory over Dallas on New Year's Night, Cruz caught 6 passes for 178 yards, a 29.7-yard average that was the highest in a game by a Giant with at least 6 receptions since Toomer averaged 30.2 yards (6 catches for 181 yards) in a victory over the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999.
- The 178 yards was the highest total by a Giant since Plaxico Burress had 205 in a victory over St. Louis on Oct. 2, 2005.
- Cruz had seven 100-yard games in 2011, breaking the former franchise record of 5, set by Shofner in 1963 and tied by Homer Jones in 1968.
- Cruz had 4 touchdown receptions of more than 70 yards this season. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, no pro player had done that since Otis Taylor of the then AFL Kansas City Chiefs in 1966. No Giants receiver had accomplished the feat since Jones in 1965.
- Cruz also had a 68-yard touchdown reception. His 5 touchdown catches of at least 65 yards were the 2nd-most in a season in NFL history. The record of 6 was set by Hall of Famer Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsch in 1951.
- From Nov. 20 to Dec. 4, Cruz had 128 receiving yards vs. Philadelphia, 157 at New Orleans and 119 vs. Green Bay to become the 4th Giants receiver in history with 3 consecutive 110+ yard games, joining Shofner (1963), Jones (1968) and Mario Manningham (2010). No Giant has ever had 4 consecutive 110-yard receiving games.
- Cruz had 4 receptions for 25 yards in the Giants' victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5)...Scored the game's 1st touchdown on a 2-yard pass from Eli Manning with 3:23 left in the 1st quarter.
- Caught 10 passes for 142 yards (including 8 for 125 yards in the 1st half) in the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22). The 10 receptions tied Cruz with Ike Hilliard for the 2nd-highest total by a Giant in a postseason game. The record of 11 was set by Plaxico Burress in the 2007 NFC Championship Game in Green Bay. The 10 catches tie Cruz with 3 other players, including Hilliard, for the 3rd-highest total ever in a championship game.
- Cruz's 142 yards was the 5th-highest postseason total in Giants history and was 9 yards behind Burress' 151 in Green Bay, which is 4th.
- Had his first 2 career catches (for 17 yards) vs. St. Louis (9/19).
- Caught 3 passes for 110 yards and his first 2 NFL touchdowns (for 74 and 28 yards) at Philadelphia (9/25).
- Finished with 8 receptions for 161 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown on a pass that he juggled and then secured, vs. Seattle (10/9).
- Had 6 receptions for 84 yards and returned 3 punts for 12 yards at San Francisco (11/13).

GIANTS EXP. - 6TH YEAR

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 4th round (116th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2007.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Zak's father Steve DeOssie was a linebacker and deep snapper with the Dallas Cowboys, New York Giants, New York Jets and New England Patriots... Steve DeOssie played in 175 games in 12 NFL seasons, including more than 4 years with the Giants (1989-93). He delivered the snap for Matt Bahr's 42-yard field goal as time expired that gave the Giants a victory over the San Francisco 49ers in the 1990 NFC Championship Game. A week later, DeOssie started at left inside linebacker in the Giants' Super Bowl XXV victory over the Buffalo Bills.
- Steve and Zak DeOssie (a member of the Giants teams that won Super Bowls XLII and XLVI) are 1 of 13 father-son tandems to reach the Super Bowl, but the only 1 to win Super Bowls with the same franchise.
- Named to the 2008 NFC Pro Bowl team as the "need" player and served as the snapper for his teammates, punter Jeff Feagles and placekicker John Carney... Also played in the Pro Bowl following the 2010 season.
- DeOssie is 1 of 2 Giants from the Ivy League. The other is offensive lineman Kevin Boothe, who played at Cornell.

CAREER NOTES:

- Has played in all 80 regular-season and 9 postseason games in his career as the long snapper and on coverage teams... Has 40 career regular-season special teams tackles and 7 postseason special teams tackles... Selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team as a special teams player in 2008 and 2010.
- In 2011, played in all 16 games as the snapper on punts and placekicks... Enters the 2012 season having played in 80 consecutive games, the second-longest active streak on the Giants (Eli Manning is 1st at 119)... Was voted special teams captain by his teammates in 2011... Finished 4th on the team with 10 special teams tackles (8 solo)... Had 2 special teams tackles at Washington (9/11), vs. Seattle (10/9, when he missed the 2nd half with a concussion), and at the Jets (12/24).
- In 2010, played in all 16 games as the snapper on punts and placekicks... Was the snapper and special teams player for the NFC Pro Bowl team... Tallied 3 solo special teams tackles.
- In 2009, played in all 16 games as the snapper on punts and placekicks. After 2 seasons as the punt snapper, DeOssie added snapping duties on placekicks in the preseason after Jay Alford suffered a season-ending knee injury... Had 8 special teams tackles (6 solo).
- In 2008, played in all 16 games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Philadelphia... Served as the long snapper and finished 3rd on the team in special team tackles with 13... Also had 1 special teams tackle in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/9)... Named to the NFC Pro Bowl team as the "need" player. Snapped for punts and placekicks and contributed 1 special teams tackle.

- As a rookie in 2007, played in all 20 regular season and post-season games as the punt snapper and on other special teams... Finished with 6 special teams tackles in the regular season and led the team with 6 in the postseason.
- Made 1st career special teams tackle at Atlanta (10/15).
- Had 2 special teams tackles in both the NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay (1/6) and the NFC Divisional Playoff at Dallas (1/13)... Had 1 special teams tackle in NFC Championship Game at Green Bay (1/20) and in Super Bowl XLII vs. New England (2/3)... After the Giants took the lead with 35 seconds remaining, DeOssie tackled Laurence Maroney on the kickoff, forcing the Patriots to begin their final possession at their own 26-yard line.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 36 games with 29 starts at Brown and recorded 315 tackles (187 solo) with 10.5 sacks for minus 59 yards, 36.5 stops for losses of 126 yards and 5 quarterback pressures. DeOssie forced 5 fumbles, deflected 11 passes and blocked 1 kick. He had 4 interceptions for 60 yards in returns.
- Was a 2-time finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award, given to the nation's top defensive player in Division 1-AA... DeOssie became only the 3rd player in school history to lead the team in tackles 3 times (98 in 2004, 80 in 2005, 110 in 2006)... His 110 tackles in 2006 rank 8th on the school's season-record list... Was only the 13th player in Brown annals to record over 100 tackles in a season.
- As a senior in 2006, was an All-America 1st-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, earning 3rd-team honors from the Associated Press... A 1st-team All-Ivy League, All-New England and ECAC All-Star pick... Ranked 8th in the nation with 11.4 tackles per game... Started all 10 games at strongside inside linebacker and led the Bears with a career-high 110 tackles including 68 solo stops, 2nd best in the nation.

DAVID DIEHL*TACKLE*HEIGHT - 6-5*WEIGHT - 304*COLLEGE - ILLINOIS*HIGH SCHOOL - BROTHER RICE (ILL.)*BIRTHDATE - SEPTEMBER 15, 1980*HOW ACQUIRED - DRAFT (5TH RD. 2003)*NFL EXP. - 10TH YEAR*GIANTS EXP. - 10TH YEAR*NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS*TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 5th round (160th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2003.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Tough, durable and versatile offensive lineman missed only 4 games in his first 9 seasons with the Giants. Diehl started the first 120 regular-season games and 7 postseason games in his career, the longest such streak by a Giant since the introduction of the 16-game schedule in 1978. The streak ended on Nov. 14, 2010 vs. Dallas because of hip and hamstring injuries Diehl suffered the previous week in Seattle.
- Diehl was the only player selected in the 2003 NFL Draft to start every game from 2003-09. He was 1 of 4 players who entered the league in 2003 and played in every regular-season game through the end of the 2009 season. The others were Josh Brown, Derrick Dockery and Visanthe Shiancoe.
- During the streak, Diehl started 16 games at right guard as a rookie, 16 of right tackle in 2004, 15 games at left guard and 1 game at right tackle in 2005, 15 games at left guard and 1 at left tackle in 2006, 16 games at left tackle in 2007, 2008 and 2009, and 7 at left tackle and 1 at left guard in 2010. After sitting out 4 games, Diehl started 3 games at left tackle and 1 at left guard.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started all 140 regular-season games and 11 postseason games in which he has played since joining the team in 2003.
- Diehl has started games at every position on the offensive line but center. In the regular season, he has started 65 games at left tackle, 42 at left guard, 17 at right tackle, and 16 at right guard. In the postseason, Diehl has 10 starts at left tackle, and 1 at left guard.
- Diehl started 120 consecutive games before sitting out the first of 4 consecutive games on Nov. 14, 2010 vs. Dallas. He suffered hamstring and hip injuries at Seattle (11/7). When he did not play the following week vs. Dallas, it ended the streak. Diehl is the only Giant other than Eli Manning (119 consecutive starts entering the 2012 season) to start at least 100 consecutive games since 1978...Diehl's 120 consecutive starts was the 12th-longest streak among all active players and tied for the 6th longest streak among offensive linemen.
- In 2011, Diehl started all 16 regular-season games for the 8th time in his first 9 seasons. He also started each of the Giants' 4 postseason games. Diehl started the season's first 10 games at left guard. After Will Beatty was sidelined following eye surgery, Diehl started the final 6 regular season games and all 4 postseason games at left tackle.
- Diehl and the offensive line helped the Giants win Super Bowl XLVI behind one of the NFL's most productive offenses. The Giants were 9th in the NFL with 394 points and established franchise records with 6,161 total yards (385.1 a game, which ranked 8th in the NFL) and 4,734 net passing yards. The line blocked well enough for Manning to throw for 4,933 yards, the 6th-highest total in NFL history...In the playoffs, the Giants averaged 402.5 total yards a game.
- In 2010, Diehl started all 12 games in which he played – 10 at left tackle and 2 at left guard (at Seattle and at Washington)...Inactive with hamstring and hip injuries vs. Dallas (11/14), at Philadelphia (11/21), vs. Jacksonville (11/28) and vs. Washington (12/5).
- Despite starting 6 different offensive line combinations in 2010, the Giants were ranked 5th in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. The Giants gained 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The line blocked well enough for the Giants to finish 6th in the NFL in rushing with 137.5 yards a game and they were the only NFC team with two 800-yard rushers (Ahmad Bradshaw, 1,235 and Brandon Jacobs, 823).
- The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010, the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record 5 consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in 7 games overall.
- In 2009, Diehl started all 16 games at left tackle and was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl. He played the entire game at left tackle in the NFC's 41-34 loss...Was joined at the Pro Bowl by center Shaun O'Hara and guard Chris Snee, the 1st time the Giants had 3 players from the same position group in the game since 1962 (when offensive linemen Rosie Brown, Darrell Dess and Ray Wietecha — also a tackle, guard and center — all received the honor)...Run and pass blocking helped the Giants average 366.0 yards a game, the NFL's 8th-highest figure...Line allowed only 32 sacks, tied for 7th-best in the league.
- In 2008, Diehl started all 16 games at left tackle and was selected to the All-NFC team by the Pro Football Writers Association...He was an integral part of an offense that helped the Giants finish with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the 2nd-highest totals in franchise history. The Giants gained 5,695 yards, then the 3rd-highest total in their history. The line's blocking enabled the Giants to lead the NFL and set franchise records in both rushing yards per game (157.4) and yards per carry (5.0). With Diehl and the line opening holes, Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became the 4th pair of running back teammates to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.
- With the line opening holes, the Giants rushed for 301 yards in a victory over Carolina (12/21) that clinched the top seed in the NFC playoffs. It was the 5th-highest total in Giants history...Diehl and the line allowed just 2 sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 21-Oct. 26.

- In 2007, Diehl started all 16 regular season games and 4 postseason games at left tackle. Diehl was a key component of an offense that helped the Giants score 373 points (the 5th-highest total in franchise history) and compile 321 first downs (the 4th-highest total by a Giants team) and 5,302 yards (7th in team history). The line's blocking enabled the Giants to finish 4th in the NFL in rushing yardage with an average of 134.3 yards a game.

- Diehl and the line allowed just 4 total sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 30-Oct. 28.

- In 2006, Diehl started the first 15 games at left guard before shifting to tackle for the regular-season finale and the NFC Wild Card Game. Started at left tackle at Washington (12/30), where the line allowed 1 sack and provided enough run blocking for the Giants to rush for 261 rushing yards, including a franchise-record 234 yards by Tiki Barber... Also played left guard in the game after Grey Ruegamer was sidelined temporarily in the 1st half with a leg laceration... Started at left tackle in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7)...Run blocking helped the Giants gain 151 yards on 31 rushes.

- In 2005, started 15 games (plus the NFC Wild Card Game) at left guard and 1 at right tackle. The line's blocking enabled Barber to rush for a franchise-record 1,860 yards...Pass blocking helped Manning to pass for 3,762 yards, the 5th-highest total in franchise history...Blocking at left guard helped Barber rush for 203 yards, including a franchise-best 95-yard touchdown run, at Oakland (12/31)...Started at right tackle in place of Kareem McKenzie vs. Kansas City (12/17) and line's blocking enabled Barber to rush for a then-team record 220 yards.

- In 2004, Diehl started all 16 games at right tackle. He missed a snap for the 1st time in his career when he left the game for a play in the 4th quarter with a cut below the eye at Green Bay (10/3). Returned to the game and helped the Giants rush for 245 yards.

- In 2003, Diehl played right guard and became the first Giant rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985...Was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games...Was 1 of only 3 offensive linemen on the roster to see action in all 16 games, was 1 of only 2 to start every game during the year and was the only 1 to start at the same position each game during the 2003 season.

COLLEGE:

- Second-team All-Big Ten Conference selection as a senior in 2002.
- Recipient of the Wright Commitment to Excellence Award, presented to the Illinois player who has dedicated himself to academic excellence despite obstacles faced during his collegiate career...Earned a bachelor's degree in communications and a master's degree in human resources.
- As a senior, started every game at left guard, registering 91 knockdowns for an offense that featured its first 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season since 1984. Helped offense total 5,356 yards.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Received the 2012 Wellington Mara Award at the Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York annual Vision of Hope awards dinner.

- Diehl is a strong supporter of Project Sunshine, a nonprofit organization that provides free educational, recreational, and social programs to children facing medical challenges and their families. Besides making regular hospital visits through the organization, David has hosted events to raise funds for their programs, including a Project Sunshine BBQ at Woodhull Hospital in Brooklyn. He brings numerous teammates with him to enjoy a day of friendship and good food with kids receiving medical treatments. Project Sunshine sends volunteers to visit hospitalized children to provide arts and crafts, tutoring, reading, nutritional cooking and special events. He was the recipient of the 2009 Project Sunshine Volunteer Award for the work done on behalf of children and families living with medical challenges. Diehl has continued to work tirelessly for the organization.

- Signed autographs for fans at the Giants Draft Day party at MetLife Stadium.

- Joined teammates to serve a meal at Eva's Village in Paterson, NJ. for the clients of the shelter.

- Attended the Giants Rookie Halloween Party at Hackensack University Medical Center, where the rookies dressed in costume and visited the pediatric cancer unit.

- Attended the Jay Fund's Annual Champions for Children's Gala in New York City.

- Donated the largest strength and conditioning center for football players in the country to his alma mater, the University of Illinois.

PERSONAL:

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 4th round (130th pick overall) draft choice by the Denver Broncos in 2006... Placed on reserve/non-football injury list (left foot) by Denver on Aug. 29, 2006 and remained there the rest of the season... Waived by the Broncos on Oct. 2, 2007...Awarded off waivers to the Giants on Oct. 3, 2007.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Missed the entire 2010 season after tearing his right anterior cruciate ligament in a minicamp practice on June 15.
- Provides major contributions to the team as a receiver, punt returner, kickoff returner and on special teams cover units.
- Hixon's 290 kickoff return yards in 4 games set the Giants' career postseason record in 2007...The previous mark of 272 yards was held by Ron Dixon.
- Hixon's 303 total yards at New Orleans on Oct. 18, 2009 shattered Joe Scott's 61-year-old franchise record by 24 yards. He holds 2 of the 5 largest single-game yardage totals in Giants history.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 48 regular-season games with 10 starts and in 5 postseason games...Career totals include 63 receptions for 838 yards (13.3-yard avg.) and 4 touchdowns, and 3 rushing attempts for 18 yards...Has returned 51 punts for 561 yards (11.0-yard avg.) and a touchdown, and 80 kickoffs for 1,966 yards (24.6-yard avg.) and a touchdown...Also has 25 career special teams tackles.
- In 2011, Hixon played in the first 2 games, but tore his right anterior cruciate ligament — the same injury he suffered the previous season — while catching a 22-yard touchdown pass vs. St. Louis (9/19)...Underwent surgery and placed on injured reserve...In those 2 games, Hixon caught 4 passes for 50 yards and returned 3 punts for 31 yards...Had 2 receptions for 21 yards and 2 punt returns for 27 yards at Washington (9/11)...Added 2 receptions vs. St. Louis, including an acrobatic grab on his touchdown.
- In 2010, Hixon tore his right anterior cruciate ligament returning a punt in a minicamp practice on June 15. He underwent surgery and was placed on injured reserve on July 16.
- In 2009, Hixon played in 14 games with 2 starts (the season's first 2 games)...Was inactive at Tampa Bay (9/27) and at Kansas City (10/4) with a knee injury...Caught 15 passes for 187 yards, including a career-long 61-yard touchdown reception vs. Philadelphia (12/13).

- Hixon set Giants single-season records with 57 kickoff returns for 1,291 yards. The former marks of 55 returns for 1,117 yards were set by Brian Mitchell in 2003...Led the Giants with a 22.6-yard average on 57 kickoff returns, with a long of 68 yards, and a 15.1-yard average on 17 punt returns, including a 79-yard touchdown...Ranks 7th in Giants history with 1,692 kickoff return yards and 9th with 498 punt return yards.

- Hixon had 303 total yards at New Orleans (10/18), breaking Joe Scott's 61-year-old franchise record by 24 yards. Returning kickoffs for the first time in 2009, Hixon had 230 yards on 7 runbacks, including a 68-yarder and a 45-yarder to set up touchdowns. He returned 2 punts for 27 and 24 yards, the latter setting up another score. Hixon also caught 3 passes for 22 yards. Hixon was the 1st player to gain at least 300 yards in a game since Arizona's Steve Breaston totaled 324 yards on Sept. 28, 2008. Breaston had 192 yards on kickoff returns, 122 receiving and 10 on punt returns.

- Hixon now owns 2 of the 5 largest single-game yardage totals in Giants history. Scott, a halfback who played for the team from 1948-53, set the previous yardage record on Nov. 14, 1948 in a 52-37 loss to the Los Angeles Rams in the Polo Grounds. Like Hixon, Scott gained most of his yards on kickoff returns (207). He also had 22 yards rushing, 35 receiving and 15 after fielding laterals. Tiki Barber's 276-yard effort vs. Philadelphia on Dec. 28, 2002 fell to 3rd on the Giants' one-game list. Barber rushed for 203 yards and caught 8 passes for another 73 yards. Hixon is tied for the 4th spot with wide receiver Del Shofner at 269 yards. In a victory at Arizona on Nov. 23, 2008, Hixon had 180 yards returning kickoffs, 57 receiving, 21 on punt returns and an 11-yard rush. Shofner had 269 receiving yards on Oct. 28, 1962, the day Y.A. Tittle tied an NFL record with 7 touchdown passes vs. Washington.

- Hixon was the first Giants player with 2 punt returns of at least 24 yards apiece in a game since Barber did it vs. the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999...His 230 kickoff return yards in New Orleans were the 2nd-highest total in Giants history. Willie Ponder had 259 kickoff return yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 18, 2004.

- Hixon was selected as the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance in the Giants' 31-24 victory vs. Dallas (12/6)...He returned 3 punts for 95 yards and 4 kickoffs for 70 yards and made 1 of the game's biggest plays when he ran back a punt 79 yards for a touchdown to increase the Giants' lead to 31-17 with 5:33 remaining in the game...It was the Giants' 1st punt return touchdown since Sept. 11, 2005, when Chad Morton brought one back 52 yards in a victory over Arizona. The Giants had gone 74 regular-season games and 7 postseason games without a punt return touchdown. Hixon's punt return was the Giants' longest since Barber's 85-yard touchdown on Oct. 18, 1999 — also against Dallas. Hixon was the first Giant to be named Special Teams Player of the Week since linebacker Chase Blackburn in Week 9 of the 2008 season. He was the first Giants player to be honored for his returning exploits since Amani Toomer in Week 8 of the 1997 season (when Toomer scored on a 53-yard punt return).

- In 2008, played in all 16 games with 7 starts and started the NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Philadelphia...

Caught 43 passes for a team-high 596 yards and 2 touchdowns...Also had 2 rushes for 26 yards...Returned a team-high 24 punts for 242 yards, a 10.1-yard average, and 3 punts for 180 yards.

- Had a career-high 102 receiving yards vs. Seattle (10/5). That included a 32-yard score that was the 1st touchdown reception of his career — on his 8th catch. It was his 2nd career score; he returned a kickoff 74 yards for a touchdown on Dec. 29, 2007 vs. New England.

- Hixon gained 269 total yards (180 on kickoff returns, 57 receiving, 21 on punt returns, plus an 11-yard rush) at Arizona (11/23), which was then tied for the 3rd-highest total in Giants history.

- In 2007, played the first 4 games of the season with Denver and the final 12, plus the playoffs, with the Giants...Hixon caught 1 pass for 5 yards and returned 8 kickoffs for 221 yards (a 27.6-yard average) and 1 touchdown for the Giants...He also had 12 kickoff returns for 274 yards and 7 punt returns for 32 yards for the Broncos...In the postseason, Hixon set a Giants postseason record with 290 kickoff return yards on 12 runbacks.

- Made his only start of the season when the Giants opened the game in a 4-wide receiver formation vs. Washington (12/16), but did not have any receptions...Had 3 special teams tackles...Assumed kickoff returns vs. New England (12/29) due to Ahmad Bradshaw's calf injury...Took advantage of the opportunity by returning 8 kickoffs for 221 yards including a 74-yard touchdown in the 2nd quarter....It was the Giants' 1st kickoff return touchdown since Willie Ponder brought 1 back 95 yards vs. Arizona on Sept. 11, 2005.

- Returned 2 kickoffs for 37 yards and had a special teams tackle in the NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay (1/6)...Returned 3 kickoffs for 93 yards and added a special teams tackle in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas (1/13)...Returned 5 kickoffs for 121 yards with a long return of 36 yards in the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay (1/20)...Made a key recovery late in the 4th quarter of an R.W. McQuarters fumble on a punt return with the score tied 20-20...Also had 1 special teams tackle...Returned 2 kickoffs for 39 yards in Super Bowl XLII vs. New England (2/3).

- In 2006, Hixon was selected by the Broncos in the 4th round of the NFL Draft...Was placed on the reserve/non-football injury list on Aug. 29 with a left foot injury suffered while preparing for the draft...Hixon, who did not play in any preseason games, spent his rookie season on that list with Denver.

COLLEGE:

- Hixon started 44 career games at the University of Akron, posting 20 starts as a free safety during his first 2 seasons and 24 as a wide receiver in his final 2 years...He caught 141 passes for 2,092 yards (14.8-yard avg.) with 14 touchdowns while returning 42 punts for 475 yards (11.3-yard avg.) with 1 touchdown...Added 49 kickoff returns for 1,171 yards (23.9-yard avg.) with 1 touchdown.

- Defensively, Hixon totaled 176 career tackles (117 solo), 1 interception, 3 pass breakups and 2 fumble recoveries...He was a team captain as a senior, starting all 13 games and setting school single-season records with 75 receptions and 1,210 yards (the nation's 8th-highest total) and 8 touchdowns...Was a 2nd-team All-Mid-American Conference choice.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVIT:

- Participated in a high school coaching internship at Orange (N.J.) High School.

- Signed autographs for fans at the Giants Draft Day party at MetLife Stadium.

- Kicked off the Giants Play60 Challenge at Little Falls (N.J.) Middle School — encouraging the kids to get 60 minutes of physical activity each day.

PERSONAL:

- Hixon was a 2-way standout at Whitehall-Yearling High School in Columbus, Ohio...As a senior, he had 33 receptions for 429 yards and 4 touchdowns, plus 140 tackles, 5 sacks and 4 interceptions as an honorable mention all-district choice...Hixon also was an honorable mention all-state point guard on Whitehall-Yearling's basketball team and was a 3-year letterwinner in baseball.

- Hixon majored in sports science at Akron...Born Oct. 8, 1984 in Neukirchen, Germany, Hixon moved to Columbus, Ohio, after spending his formative years in Germany.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally signed as a rookie free agent by the Giants on May 8, 2009.

CAREER-HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 22 games with 5 starts...Totals include 36 tackles (28 solo), 2 interceptions, 1 sack, 10 passes defensed, 2 forced fumbles and 14 special teams tackles (11 solo).
- In 2011, spent the entire season on injured reserve after rupturing his Achilles tendon in a training camp practice on Aug. 4.
- In 2010, played in 5 games with no starts...Had 1 solo tackle on defense and 4 on special teams...Was inactive vs. Chicago (10/3)...Placed on injured reserve with a knee injury on Nov. 1.
- As a rookie in 2009, played in all 16 games with 4 starts...Contributed 35 tackles (27 solo), 2 interceptions, a sack, 10 passes defensed and 2 forced fumbles...Also had 10 special teams tackles (7 solo)...In his 2nd pro game (at Dallas, 9/20), Johnson scored the Giants' 1st touchdown when he intercepted a Tony Romo pass intended for Roy Williams and returned it 34 yards for a touchdown with 2:46 remaining in the first quarter. The score gave the Giants a 10-7 lead...It was the Giants' first touchdown on an interception return since Nov. 16, 2008, when Aaron Ross brought one back 50 yards for a score in a victory over Baltimore...Johnson's touchdown was reminiscent of a score under similar circumstances 4 years prior. On Oct. 23, 2006, Kevin Dockery — like Johnson, a rookie free agent cornerback — picked off a Romo pass and ran it back for a touchdown.

- Made his 1st career start vs. Philadelphia (12/13)...Finished with 2 tackles and his 1st career sack, a 12-yarder on which he forced Donovan McNabb to fumble. The ball was recovered by Fred Robbins...Intercepted his 2nd pass of the season at Washington (12/21) when he picked off punter Hunter Smith at the end of the 1st half.

COLLEGE:

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (1st pick overall) draft choice by the San Diego Chargers in 2004. Obtained by the Giants in a trade for quarterback Philip Rivers (whom the Giants had taken with the 4th pick), the Giants' 2004 3rd-round pick, and 2005 1st and 5th-round picks.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Followed his father, Archie, and brother, Peyton, into the NFL...Archie was the 2nd pick of the 1971 draft and played 14 years with New Orleans, Houston and Minnesota. Peyton was the 1st choice of the 1998 draft by the Indianapolis Colts, is a 4-time NFL Most Valuable Player and was the winning quarterback in Super Bowl XLI. Peyton Manning is in his 1st season with the Denver Broncos.
- Manning won the Rozelle Trophy as the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLVI four years after he earned that honor in Super Bowl XLII. He is the 5th player in NFL history to win multiple Super Bowl MVP honors (Joe Montana, 3; Tom Brady, Terry Bradshaw and Bart Starr, 2).
- Manning is the 1st Giants player to win the Rozelle Trophy multiple times. Previous Giants Super Bowl MVPs include quarterback Phil Simms (Super Bowl XXI) and running back Ottis Anderson (Super Bowl XXV).
- Manning hit 9 different targets while completing 30 of 40 passes for 296 yards, a touchdown and no interceptions (a passer rating of 103.8) in the Giants' 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI. It was the 25th time in Super Bowl history a quarterback has won the MVP award (18 different quarterbacks).
- In Super Bowl XLII, Manning was named MVP after completing 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception that caromed off Steve Smith's hands. It was the 2nd year in a row a Manning won the award; his brother received the honor after Super Bowl XLI the previous season.
- Manning is one of 29 different starting quarterbacks to win a Super Bowl and the 2nd Manning. Peyton led the Indianapolis Colts to the title in 2006. The Mannings were the 18th set of brothers to play in the Super Bowl and the 1st pair of brothers to play quarterback.
- Manning is 1 of 19 quarterbacks to win a Super Bowl without losing 1.
- Manning is the 11th quarterback to win at least 2 Super Bowls.
- Manning is 1 of 7 quarterbacks taken with the 1st overall selection in the NFL Draft to start a Super Bowl. The others are Terry Bradshaw (4-0 in Super Bowls), Jim Plunkett (2-0), John Elway (2-3), Troy Aikman (3-0), Drew Bledsoe (0-1), and Peyton Manning (1-1). The former No. 1 choices are 14-4 in Super Bowls.
- Manning and Brady were the starting quarterbacks in Super Bowl XLVI, as they were in Super Bowl II. It was the 3rd starting quarterback rematch in Super Bowl history and each 1 has resulted in a sweep. Terry Bradshaw and Pittsburgh defeated Roger Staubach and Dallas in Super Bowls X and XIII, and Troy Aikman and Dallas beat Jim Kelly and Buffalo in Super Bowls XXV and XXVIII.
- Super Bowl XLVI was the 1st Super Bowl in which both starting quarterbacks had won a Super Bowl MVP award.
- Manning was the 1st quarterback to start 2 Super Bowls for the Giants. In their first 4 Super Bowls, 4 different quarterbacks started for the Giants. The others were Phil Simms, Jeff Hostetler and Kerry Collins. The Giants were the 1st team to start a different quarterback in each of their 1st four Super Bowls. Only 2 other teams have started 4 different quarterbacks in a Super Bowl, though not in the franchise's first 4 games. The Raiders have started Daryle Lamonica, Ken Stabler, Jim Plunkett and Rich Gannon. Washington's 4 Super Bowl quarterbacks were Billy Kilmer, Joe Theismann, Doug Williams and Mark Rypien.
- Manning is the only quarterback to wear No. 10 and win a Super Bowl. The only other starting quarterback to wear No. 10 in a Super Bowl was Minnesota's Fran Tarkenton in Super Bowls VIII, IX and XI.
- In 2011, Manning set an NFL record with 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002).
- Manning's arrival marked the 1st time the Giants came out of a draft with the top player selected since 1965, when they chose Auburn running back Tucker Fredrickson.
- Manning's record as a starter is 69-50 (.580) in the regular season and 8-3 (.727) in the postseason. The 69 victories are the 2nd-most by a Giants quarterback since Giants Stadium opened in 1976. Simms won 95 games from 1979-93. Manning is 51-37 against the NFC and 18-13 vs. the AFC. He is 26-19 in NFC East games, 34-26 at home and 35-24 on the road.
- Manning's record as a starter in October is 23-5, an .821 winning percentage that is the best of any quarterback with at least 20 starts in the Super Bowl era.
- Manning has started the Giants' last 119 regular-season games, the longest streak among active quarterbacks and the 3rd-longest in history. Only Brett Favre (297) and Peyton Manning (208) started more consecutive games than Manning.
- Manning's 119 consecutive starts is a record for Giants quarterbacks. The previous mark of 69 starts in a row was set by Fran Tarkenton from 1967-71.
- Manning has thrown for at least 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns in 7 consecutive seasons, the 5th-longest such streak in NFL history. Peyton Manning holds the record with 13 seasons in a row.

- Manning is the 1st Giants quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in 7 consecutive seasons, the 1st to have three 4,000-yard seasons and the 1st to throw at least 20 touchdown passes 7 years in a row.

- Manning and New Orleans' Drew Brees are the only quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards and at least 20 touchdown passes every season from 2005-11.

- Manning finished the 2011 season with career totals of 3,921 attempts, 2,291 completions, 27,589 yards and 185 touchdown passes – all the second-highest totals in Giants history. Phil Simms is 1st in all 4 categories with 4,647 passes, 2,576 completions, 33,462 yards and 199 touchdowns.

- With 185 career touchdown passes, Manning is the 4th quarterback to throw more than 100 touchdown passes in a Giants uniform, joining Simms (199), Charlie Conerly (173) and Tarkenton (103).

- Manning was selected to play in his 2nd Pro Bowl in 2011, though he did not play in the game because the Giants were in the Super Bowl. When he played in his 1st Pro Bowl following the 2008 season Manning became the 1st Giants quarterback to be selected to the game since Simms in 1993.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 121 regular season games with starts in his last 119 appearances and has started all 11 postseason games in which he's played. In the regular season, Manning has completed 2,291 of 3,921 (58.4 %) for 27,579 yards with 185 touchdowns, 129 interceptions, 22 300-yard games, a long pass of 99 yards and a career passer rating of 82.1. He is 2nd in franchise history in attempts, completions, yards and touchdown passes, 3rd in interceptions and 1st in 300-yard games.

- Manning's career completion percentage of 58.43 is 2nd in Giants history among quarterbacks with at least 1,000 attempts. Kerry Collins is first at 58.51 (1,447-2,473).

- Manning holds the Giants career postseason records with 356 pass attempts, 219 completions, 61.51 completion percentage, 2,516 yards, 17 touchdown passes and is tied for 2nd with Tuffy Leemans with 8 interceptions.

- In 2011, Manning started all 16 games for the 7th consecutive season. He set Giants records for pass attempts (589), completions (359) and yards (4,933). The yardage total was the 4th-highest in the NFL in 2011 and the 6th-highest in league history. Manning's 29 touchdown passes were the 2nd-highest total of his career (he had 31 in 2010) and his 16 interceptions were 9 fewer than he threw the previous season. His passer rating of 92.9 was the 2nd highest of his career (he had a 93.1 rating in 2009).

- Manning led the Giants to their 3rd NFC East championship and 5th postseason berth in his 7 full seasons as the team's quarterback.

- In the Giants' 4-game postseason, Manning completed 106 of 163 passes (.650) for 1,219 yards, 9 touchdowns and 1 interception.

- Manning was 1 of 2 quarterbacks to throw every 1 of his team's passes in 2011. The other was San Diego's Philip Rivers. Manning and Rivers were traded for each other during the 2004 NFL Draft...Manning is the only quarterback to throw every 1 of his team's passes each of the previous 2 seasons.

- With Manning throwing every pass, the Giants shattered a team record with 295.5 passing yards a game. The former record, set in 2009, was 251.2 yards.

- Manning had a career-high eight 300-yard passing games. That increased Manning's career total to 22, breaking Simms' former team record of 21. The Giants are 11-11 in the regular season and 2-0 in the postseason when Manning throws for at least 300 yards.

- The Giants led the NFL with 18 completions of 40 or more yards in 2011. Green Bay and Detroit tied for second with 16.

- Manning was selected to his second Pro Bowl (though he didn't play in the game because the Giants participated in the Super Bowl); he also was a member of the 2008 NFC squad.

- Manning was the first NFL quarterback to throw at least 4 touchdown passes of at least 72 yards since Kurt Warner of St. Louis in 2000 (6). He was the first Giants quarterback to do it since Earl Morrall threw 4 in 1965.

- Manning threw an NFL-record 15 fourth-quarter touchdown passes in 2011. The previous record of 14 was set by Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas in 1959 and tied by Peyton Manning (2002).

- Manning led the Giants to 5 victories in 2011 in which they trailed in the 4th quarter (not counting a comeback in the NFC Championship Game) - plus 1 in which they were tied. The Giants' 5 victories after trailing in the 4th quarter tied the franchise record set in 2002.

- In the Giants 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5), Manning completed 30 of 40 passes (75 %) for 296 yards, a touchdown and no interceptions (a passer rating of 103.8). He was voted the winner of the Pete Rozelle Trophy, awarded to the game's most valuable player. It was his 2nd Super Bowl MVP Award.

- In the Super Bowl, Manning rallied the Giants from a 17-9 3rd-quarter deficit while leading scoring drives on 3 of the team's 4 second-half possessions.

- Manning completed his first 9 passes, a record for consecutive completions to begin a Super Bowl.

- Manning set Giants postseason records with 58 pass attempts and 32 completions in a 20-17 overtime victory over San Francisco in the NFC Championship Game (1/22). It was the first time in their history the Giants won a game when throwing at least 50 passes; they are 0-18 in the regular season in such games.

- Completed 21 of 33 passes for 330 yards, 3 touchdowns and 1 interception in a 37-20 victory in Green Bay in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/15). Manning's 66-yard pass to Hakeem Nicks is the 4th-longest play in Giants postseason history.

- Manning completed 23 of 32 passes for 277 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions in a 24-2 defeat of Atlanta in an NFC Wild Card Game (1/8).

- Manning's 72-yard touchdown pass to Nicks vs. Atlanta is tied for the longest postseason play in Giants history. On Jan. 3, 1982, Scott Brunner threw a 72-yard pass to Earnest Gray. Manning's previous long postseason pass was a 52-yard touchdown to Amari Toomer in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas on Jan. 13, 2008. It was Manning's 5th touchdown pass of more than 70 yards in 2011 and the 1st caught by someone other than Victor Cruz.

- Hit 24 of 33 passes for 346 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions in the Giants' 31-14 victory over Dallas (1/1) that clinched the NFC East title.

- In a 29-16 victory over the Jets (12/24), Manning threw a 99-yard touchdown pass to Cruz, the longest play in the history of the Giants. The previous long play was a 98-yard pass from Earl Morrall to Homer Jones at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 1966. It was the fourth pass of at least 90 yards in Giants history...Manning's previous long throw was a 92-yard touchdown to Mario Manningham at Washington (1/2/11)... On the same day Manning threw his 99-yard touchdown pass, Carolina's Cam Newton threw a 91-yard touchdown pass to Brandon LeFell. It was the first time in history 2 different quarterbacks threw touchdown passes of at least 90 yards on the same day...Manning's pass to Cruz was the 13th 99-yard touchdown pass (and the 14th 99-yard play from scrimmage) in NFL history. On Sept 12, New England's Tom Brady and Wes Welker hooked up for a 99-yard touchdown pass against the Dolphins in Miami. The 2011 season was the first in NFL history with two 99-yard touchdown passes — and they were thrown by the quarterbacks that started in the Super Bowl.

- Manning completed 27 of 47 passes for 400 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception and led the Giants to a 37-34 victory at Dallas (12/11). Manning led the Giants to 2 touchdowns in the final 3:14 to become the 2nd team in 2011 to win a game by overcoming a deficit of at least 12 points with less than 5 minutes to play in the 4th quarter. Denver did it at Miami on Oct. 23...It was the 1st time the Giants won under such circumstances since Sept. 21, 1969, when they trailed Minnesota, 23-10, before Fran Tarkenton threw 2 touchdown passes to Don Herrmann in the final 4:48 for a 24-23 victory. The victory in Dallas was the first time in their 87-year history the Giants overcame a deficit of at least 12 points with less than 5 minutes remaining to win on the road.

- The victory in Dallas was the 2nd game in 2011 in which the Giants won by scoring 2 touchdowns in the final 3½ minutes. They did it at New England (11/6), though the 2nd, game-winning score was necessitated by a touchdown the Patriots scored between the 2 by the Giants. Against the Patriots, Manning completed 20 of 39 passes for 250 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions.

- Manning shattered a team record by completing 21 consecutive passes from late in the 2nd quarter to late in the 4th quarter of New Orleans (11/28). That was tied for the 6th longest streak in NFL history and was the longest since his brother, Peyton Manning, hit 23 straight on Dec. 14 and Dec. 18, 2008 vs. Detroit (6) and Jacksonville (17). It was the longest 1-game streak since David Carr, now Manning's backup, completed 22 consecutive passes for Houston vs. Buffalo on Nov. 19, 2006...The previous Giants record of 13 in a row was set by Phil Simms at Cincinnati on Oct. 13, 1985 and tied by Kerry Collins on Sept. 10 and 17, 2000 (at Philadelphia and Chicago). Manning's previous best had been 12 in a row at Atlanta on Oct. 15, 2007.

- Manning threw for a career-high 420 yards while completing 24 of 39 passes vs. Seattle (10/9). It was one of three 400-yard games and eight 300-yard games Manning had in the regular season. He added 2 more 300-yard games in the postseason.

- Manning was selected NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance at Philadelphia (9/25), where he completed 16 of 23 passes for 254 yards, 4 touchdowns and no interceptions in a 29-16 victory. It was the sixth 4-touchdown game of Manning's career and his first since Dec. 19, 2010, also against the Eagles. Manning's passer rating was 145.7, his highest ever in a game in which he threw more than 10 passes. It was the 5th-highest passer rating by a Giants quarterback since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978. The Player of the Week award was the 3rd of Manning's career.

- In 2010, Manning started all 16 games and completed 339-of-539 passes (62.9 percent) for 4,002 yards, 31 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He had four 300-yard passing games...He was 1 of 4 players to thrown every 1 of his team's passes in 2010. The others were Indianapolis' Peyton Manning, Houston's Matt Schaub and St. Louis' Sam Bradford.

- The 339 completions and 62.9 completion percentage were both franchise single-season records. The previous records were 335 completions by Collins in 2002 and the 62.8 completion percentages by Jeff Hostetler in 1991 and Kurt Warner in 2004.

- Manning's 539 passes were then the 2nd-highest total of his career (he threw 557 passes in 2005) and was the 4th-highest total in Giants history (Collins threw 568 passes in 2001 and 545 in 2002).

- His 31 touchdown passes were the 3rd-highest total in Giants history and the most by a Giants quarterback in 47 years. Y.A. Tittle threw 36 in 1963 and 33 in 1962.

- Manning became the 1st Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons. He threw for 4,021 yards in 2009, Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Simms (4,044 in 1984) are the only other Giants to pass for more than 4,000 yards.

- Manning's 4,002 yards were the 5th-highest total in the NFL. He was among a record 22 quarterbacks to throw for more than 3,000 yards in 2010.

- His 31 touchdown passes were the league's 4th-highest total. Manning was 1 of 11 quarterbacks to throw for at least 25 touchdowns in 2010.

- Manning tied a franchise record by throwing 25 interceptions, a total previously reached by Frank Filchock in 1946 and Charlie Connerly in 1953.

- Manning threw career-long touchdown passes on consecutive weeks: an 85-yarder at Green Bay on Dec. 26 and a 92-yarder on Jan. 2 at Washington, both to Mario Manningham. The 92-yard throw was the NFL's longest play from scrimmage in the 2010 season. It was the 3rd-longest pass in Giants history, exceeded only by Earl Morrall's 98-yard throw to Homer Jones at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 1966 and Norm Snead's 94-yarder to Rich Houston vs. Dallas on Sept. 24, 1972.

- Manning set franchise records for the most attempts (3,169), completions (1,838), passing yards (21,465) and touchdown passes (148) in a player's first 100 games as a Giant.

- Manning threw a career-high 34 completions vs. Dallas on Nov. 14 and had 33 completions against Tennessee on Sept. 26.

- Manning threw a career-high 48 passes without being sacked on Nov. 14 vs. Dallas.

- On Nov. 21, Manning started the Giants' game in Philadelphia 6 years to the day after his 1st game as the Giants' starting quarterback. On Nov. 21, 2004, the Giants lost to Atlanta, 14-10. The Falcons' starting quarterback in that game was Vick, who was the Eagles' starter last Nov. 21.

- Manning twice tied his career high by throwing 4 touchdown passes: at Dallas (10/25) and vs. Philadelphia (12/19)...He was sacked just 16 times all season and was not sacked in a 5-game stretch from Nov. 7 through Dec. 5... Threw for a season-high 386 yards vs. Tennessee (9/26)... Had a season-high passer rating of 125.8 at Seattle (11/7), where he completed 21-of-32 passes for 290 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions.

- In 2009, Manning started all 16 games and completed 317-of-509 passes (62.3 percent) for 4,021 yards, 27 touchdowns, 14 interceptions and a passer rating of 93.1. The completions, percentage, yards, touchdowns and rating were all career highs...The 509 attempts were the 8th-highest single-season total in team history and the 317 completions and completion percentage were both 3rd.

- Manning became the 3rd quarterback in Giants history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in a season, joining Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Simms (4,044 in 1984). - Manning threw at least 1 touchdown pass in every game except the losses in Denver and Minnesota.
- Manning played only the first 5 series in a 44-7 rout of Oakland (10/11) and left the game with a perfect passer rating of 158.3. He completed 8 of 10 passes for 173 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions. The previous Giants quarterback to finish a game with a perfect rating was Collins at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002, when he completed 23 of 29 passes for 366 yards, 4 touchdowns and no interceptions in a 44-27 victory.
- Manning completed 19 of 26 passes for 268 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions at Washington (12/21) for a passer rating of 144.4 that was the 2nd-highest of his career, topped only by his 158.3 rating vs. Oakland. His previous best rating on the road was 131.4 at St. Louis on Sept. 14, 2008.
- The game at Washington was the 2nd week in a row Manning threw for 3 scores without an interception and was the 2nd time in Manning's career he threw 3 touchdown passes in consecutive games. He did it at Philadelphia and Seattle on Sept. 17 and 24, 2006. The Giants are 10-2 in games in which Manning throws 3 touchdown passes.
- When Manning threw his 100th touchdown pass at Dallas, he became the 111th quarterback in NFL history to reach that mark. Eli and Peyton Manning are the first pair of brothers to each throw for 100 touchdowns in their career.
- Manning twice threw for career-high yardage totals in 2009. He passed for 384 yards vs. Atlanta (11/22) and 391 yards vs. Philadelphia (12/13). They were the 9th and 10th 300-yard games of his career, but his first 2 at home.
- The Giants had 62 pass plays of 20 or more yards in 2009, which left them tied for 5th in the NFL. Manning accounted for 60 of those plays and ranked 5th among the league's quarterbacks.
- Manning threw 3 touchdown passes of at least 60 yards in 2 weeks: 1 vs. Dallas (12/6) and 2 vs. Philadelphia (12/13). He was the 1st Giants quarterback to throw 2 touchdown passes of 60 or more yards in the same game since Collins did it vs. the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999 (scores of 61 and 80 yards to Amani Toomer). The last Giants quarterback to accomplish the feat in back-to-back games was Simms on Sept. 2 and 9, 1984, also in home games vs. Philadelphia and Dallas.
- Manning rushed for a career-best 34 yards at Philadelphia (11/1). That was the highest total by a Giants quarterback since Oct. 31, 1999, when Kent Graham ran for 41 yards — also in Philadelphia.
- Manning completed 76 percent of his passes (25 of 33) vs. San Diego (11/8), which tied for the 2nd-best 1-game mark of his career. He hit 79 percent (26 of 33) at Arizona on Nov. 23, 2008 and 76 percent (19 of 25) vs. Seattle on Oct. 5, 2008.
- Manning's 29 completions vs. Carolina (12/27) were his highest total in Giants Stadium. His previous best was 28 completions vs. the Eagles on Dec. 17, 2006.
- In 2008, Manning started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game...He led the Giants to their 4th consecutive postseason berth, a franchise record. Only 1 other QB had then led his team to the playoffs in 4 consecutive seasons — Peyton Manning.
- Manning completed 289 of 479 passes (60.3 percent) for 3,238 yards, 21 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a passer rating of 86.4. The completion percentage and rating were then career highs. It was the 1st time since Manning's rookie season in 2004 — when he started just 9 games — that he did not throw at least 500 passes. The 10 interceptions were his lowest total since he threw 9 as a rookie and were half his 2007 total.
- Manning twice had single-game career-high passer ratings. On Sept. 14 in St. Louis, he completed 20 of 29 passes for 260 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 131.4. Three weeks later vs. Seattle, Manning completed 19 of 25 passes for 267 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 136.6, then the highest of his career, including both regular season and postseason games. His previous best in any game had been a 132.4 rating in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas on Jan. 13.
- When Manning's 4th pass at Cleveland (10/13) was intercepted by safety Brodney Pool it ended a streak of 108 consecutive throws without a pick, the 2nd-longest streak of his career. He threw 124 passes without an interception from Sept. 11 to Oct. 16, 2005, a streak ended by Dallas' Anthony Henry.
- Manning completed 21 of 34 passes for 305 yards, a touchdown and an interception at Washington (11/30). It was his 1st 300-yard game since Oct. 15, 2007.
- Manning was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month in November and Sporting News' 2008 Pro Athlete of the Year.
- In 2007, Manning started all 16 regular season games and 4 postseason games and led the Giants to victory in Super Bowl XLII...Completed 297 of 529 passes for 3,336 yards, 23 touchdowns and 20 interceptions. In 4 postseason games, Manning completed 72 of 119 passes (60.5 percent) for 854 yards, 6 touchdowns and 1 interception.
- Tied a career high — and set a personal best in a road game — by throwing 4 touchdown passes while completing 28 of 41 throws for 312 yards at Dallas (9/9). Three of the scoring passes went to Plaxico Burress, the other to Derrick Ward...Left the game in the 4th quarter with a bruised shoulder...Despite the injury, Manning started the next week vs. Green Bay.
- Led the Giants to their 1st victory of the season at Washington (9/23), where he completed 21 of 36 passes, including the game-winning 33-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.
- Manning threw a career high-tying 4 touchdown passes vs. New England (12/29). Two of the scores went to Burress and 1 each to Brandon Jacobs and Kevin Boss...Completed 22 of 32 passes for 251 yards and 1 interception for a passer rating of 118.6.
- Opened postseason play by completing 20 of 27 passes for 185 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions in NFC Wild Card Game victory at Tampa Bay (1/6)...Became the 5th Giants QB to win a postseason game in the Giants Stadium era (since 1976), joining Simms, Jeff Hostetler, Collins and Scott Brunner.
- Completed 12 of 18 passes for 163 yards and 2 touchdowns to Amani Toomer in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas (1/13)...His 52-yard touchdown pass to Toomer was then his longest postseason completion...Successfully engineered a 2-minute drive in the 2nd quarter by completing 4 passes for 56 yards on a 7-play 71-yard drive in just 46 seconds that resulted in a 4-yard touchdown pass to Toomer to tie the game at 14-14 at halftime.
- Played another turnover-free game and completed 21 of 40 passes for 251 yards in minus-23 degree wind chill in the Giants' NFC Championship Game victory in Green Bay (1/20)...Increased his streak to 101 consecutive postseason passes without an interception.
- Manning was named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLII after completing 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception that caromed off Steve Smith's hands in the Giants' victory over the New England Patriots...Led the Giants on their game-winning 4th quarter drive by completing 5 of 9 passes for 77 yards and a 13-yard touchdown pass to Burress. The most memorable play on the drive was a 32-yard completion to David Tyree, who secured the ball against his helmet after Manning eluded the grasp of numerous Patriots defensive linemen...Threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Tyree early in the 4th quarter that was set up by passes of 45 yards to Boss and 17 yards to Smith...Manning was intercepted by cornerback Ellis Hobbs with 11:53 remaining in the 2nd quarter. It was the Giants' 1st offensive turnover in their 4-game postseason. The offense had gone 34 possessions and run 213 plays without turning over the ball. The previous turnover had been in the regular season finale against the Patriots — also an interception by Hobbs of a Manning pass. Manning had thrown 103 consecutive passes without an interception, including 95 in the postseason. He had thrown 111 postseason passes in a row without a pick...Manning threw 2 interceptions in the Giants' last 5 games and Hobbs had both of them.

- In 2006, started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game...Completed 301 of 522 passes for 3,244 yards, 24 touchdowns, 18 interceptions and 77.0 QB rating...Manning's 24 touchdown pass matched his 2005 total and left him tied for 4th in the NFL with St. Louis Bowler Marc Bulger...Manning was the 1st Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Simms did it 3 years in a row from 1984-86.

- Completed a then career-high 31 passes on 43 attempts for 371 yards with 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 111.7 at Philadelphia (9/17)...In overtime, Manning completed all 8 of his passes for 83 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown pass to Burress to give the Giants a 30-24 comeback victory after they trailed by 17 at the start of the 4th quarter.

- Finished with 17 completions on 33 attempts for 172 yards with 3 touchdowns, 0 interceptions, a long pass of 45 yards and a QB rating of 97.0 at Carolina (12/10)...Game long 45-yard pass to Burress was followed by a 28-yard touchdown pass to the same receiver in the 2nd quarter...Threw a season-long 55-yard touchdown pass to Burress vs. New Orleans (12/24).

- Finished with 16 completions on 27 attempts for 161 yards with 2 touchdowns and 1 interception in the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia (1/7/07)...The Giants scored on their opening possession when Manning threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Burress...Tied the game at 20-20 with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.

- In 2005, started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game in his 1st full season as the starting quarterback...Led the Giants to the NFC East championship...Completed 294 of 557 passes for 3,762 yards with 24 touchdowns, 17 interceptions, a long completion of 78 yards and a QB rating of 75.9...Manning's 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967...Completed 12 of 24 passes for 204 yards, 1 touchdown and no interceptions in a victory at Oakland (12/31) that clinched the division title...Threw a then career-long 78-yard touchdown pass to Burress.

- Scored on a 1-yard quarterback sneak in the 2nd quarter at Philadelphia (12/11), his 1st career rushing touchdown and the 1st by a Giants quarterback since Kurt Warner scored on a 1-yard run vs. Cleveland (9/26/04).

- Threw a career-high 53 passes (completing 29) for 344 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception at Seattle (11/27). The 53 passes were the most thrown by the Giants since Collins had 59 at New England (10/12/03). It was the 12th consecutive game in which Manning threw at least 1 touchdown pass, 3 shy of the Giants record set by Y.A. Tittle from 1962-64.

- Completed 23 of 42 passes for 214 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception vs. Denver (10/23). Led the Giants on 2 touchdown drives in the 4th quarter to secure his 2nd career 4th quarter come-from-behind-victory. His 2-yard touchdown pass to Toomer with 5 seconds remaining in the game gave the Giants a 24-23 victory. On the game-winning 83-yard drive, Manning completed 8 of 13 passes for 68 yards.

- Completed 19 of 35 passes for 296 yards and 4 touchdowns vs. St. Louis (10/2) to become the 1st Giants quarterback to throw 4 touchdown passes in a regular-season game since Collins did it at Indianapolis (12/22/02). Collins matched the feat in an NFC Wild Card playoff game at San Francisco (1/5/03).

- As a rookie in 2004, played in 9 games, including starts in the final 7 games...Rookie record as a starter was 1-6...Improved markedly down the stretch and finished with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, 6 touchdowns and 9 interceptions.

- Earned his 1st NFL victory in the 2004 season finale vs. Dallas, completing 18 of 27 passes for 144 yards, 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 101.5...Manning threw touchdown passes of 2 yards to Visanthe Shiancoe in the 2nd quarter, 15 yards to Tyree and 3 yards to Tiki Barber, both in the 4th quarter. Completed a 23-yard pass to Barber to start the Giants game-winning drive and called a run at the line on which Barber scored the deciding touchdown on a 3-yard run with 11 seconds remaining.

- Completed 16 of 23 passes for 182 yards, 2 touchdowns, 1 interception, a long-pass of 49 yards and a season-high rating of 103.9 vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). Threw his 2nd touchdown pass of the season in the 1st quarter, a 2-yarder to Shockley.

- Made his 1st NFL start vs. Atlanta (11/21) and completed 17-of-37 passes for 162 yards, 1 touchdown and 2 interceptions. His 1st NFL touchdown pass was a 6-yarder to Shockley. Coincidentally, the initial pro scoring pass for all 3 Manning quarterbacks was 6 yards long. Archie Manning threw a 6-yarder to Dave Parks in 1971. Peyton Manning's 6-yard touchdown pass went to Marvin Harrison on Sept. 6, 1998.

- Manning was the 18th quarterback to start a game for the Giants in the Giants Stadium era (including Craig Morton and Norm Snead, who joined the team earlier and were still on the team when the stadium opened in 1976). He was the 4th quarterback in a row to lose his debut, joining Kerry Collins, Jesse Palmer and Kurt Warner...Of the 14 quarterbacks selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft between 1970-2004, he was the 13th to make his starting debut as a rookie (Cincinnati's Carson Palmer was the exception). The 13 quarterbacks taken with the top pick who started as rookies are 4-9 in their debuts.

- Saw his 1st NFL regular season action when he replaced Warner with 2:37 remaining in the 4th quarter at Philadelphia (9/12), with the Giants trailing, 31-10. Completed 3 of 9 passes for 66 yards, including a 34-yarder, no touchdowns and no interceptions. Was sacked once and fumbled after being blindsided by Jerome McDougle. On his 1st career snap, he handed the ball off to Barber, who ran 72 yards for a touchdown. Manning's long completion of 34 yards was a short screen pass to Barber on the final drive of the game.

COLLEGE:

- Only the 5th quarterback in Southeastern Conference history to throw for more than 10,000 career yards...Left Ole Miss owning 47 school game, season and career records... Completed 829 of 1,363 passes (60.8 percent) for 10,119 yards, 81 touchdowns and 35 interceptions...Averaged a school-record 7.42 yards per attempt...His passing yards and total offensive yardage ranked 5th in SEC history, while his pass attempts and completions rank 4th...Manning's 81 touchdown tosses ranked 3rd and his 86 total scores (81 passing, 5 rushing) rank 4th in SEC history...Set an Ole Miss career mark for average yards per offensive play (rush or pass), 6.70... On Dec. 3, 2010 vs. the Minnesota Vikings in Detroit, Manning became the 6th quarterback in NFL history to start 100 consecutive regular season games. Ironically, he reached that milestone in the same game in which Brett Favre's NFL-record streak of 297 consecutive starts ended. Favre was inactive with a shoulder injury.

NFL QUARTERBACKS WITH AT LEAST 100 CONSECUTIVE REGULAR SEASON STARTS:

*Active streak entering the 2012 season.

Since Manning started his first game on Nov. 21, 2004, the other 3 teams in the NFC East have used a total of 20 different starting quarterbacks:

Dallas (7): Vinny Testaverde, Drew Henson, Drew Bledsoe, Tony Romo, Brad Johnson, Jon Kitna, Stephen McGee

Philadelphia (8): Donovan McNabb, Jeff Garcia, Mike McMahon, A.J. Feeley, Koy Detmer, Kevin Kolb, Michael Vick,

Washington (7): Patrick Ramsey, Mark Brunell, Jason Campbell, Todd Collins, Donovan McNabb, Rex Grossman, John Beck

Since Manning started for the first time, 134 different quarterbacks have started an NFL game.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (29th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2009.

GIANTS NOTES:

- In 3 seasons, Nicks has established himself as 1 of the NFL's best receivers and one of the most talented wideouts in Giants history.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 42 regular-season games with 33 starts and has started all 4 postseason games in which he played...Career totals include 202 catches for 3,034 yards and 24 touchdowns. The 202 receptions place Nicks 20th on the Giants' career list...Nicks also has 28 postseason catches for 444 yards and 4 scores. The 28 catches leave him 3rd on the team's postseason list and he is 2nd in both yards and touchdown catches.
- Nick has caught at least 1 pass in 43 consecutive games in which he's played.
- In 2011, Nicks started all 15 regular-season games and 4 postseason games in which he played...Inactive at New England (11/6) due to a hamstring injury...Finished 2nd on the team with 76 catches for a career-high 1,192 yards and 7 touchdowns...The 76 catches tied for the 5th-highest total in franchise history.
- Nicks, who had 1,052 yards in 2010, is the 3rd receiver in Giants history with at least 2 consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, joining Del Shofner (1961-63) and Amani Toomer (1999-2001).
- Teamed with Victor Cruz (1,536) to give the Giants two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season for the 1st time in team history.
- In the postseason, Nicks led the Giants in all 3 major receiving categories with 28 catches for 444 yards and 4 touchdowns. The 28 catches was the highest total by a Giant in a single postseason. Toomer held the previous mark 21 catches in the 2007 playoffs, a total matched by Cruz in 2011.
- Nicks' postseason average of 15.9 yards-per-catch is the highest ever by a Giant with at least 15 receptions. Hall of Famer Frank Gifford is second at 13.9 (17 catches for 236 yards).
- Opened the season with 7 catches for 122 yards at Washington (9/11).
- Scored his 1st touchdown of the season on a 3-yard pass from Eli Manning vs. St. Louis (9/19).
- Caught 10 passes for 162 yards, including the game-winning 29-yard touchdown with 2:39 remaining, at Arizona (10/2).
- Finished with 7 receptions for 88 yards, including touchdowns of 4 and 2 yards, vs. Green Bay (12/4)...Followed with 8 catches for a season-high 163 yards at Dallas (12/11).
- Caught 5 passes for 76 yards, including a 4-yard score, in the Giants' NFC East-clinching victory vs. Dallas (1/1).
- Had 6 receptions for 115 yards, including touchdowns of 4 and 72 yards, in NFC Wild Card Game vs. Atlanta (1/8).
- Nicks' 100-yard game was the 1st by a Giants receiver in the postseason since the 2007 NFC Championship Game, when Plaxico Burress had 151 yards on 11 catches.
- The 72-yard touchdown is tied for the longest postseason play in Giants history. On Jan. 3, 1982, Scott Brunner threw a 72-yard pass to Ernest Gray.
- Had 7 receptions for 165 yards and 2 touchdowns in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Green Bay (1/15)...The 165 yards were the 2nd-highest total by a Giant in a postseason game. Bob Schneller holds the record with 175 receiving yards at Baltimore on Dec. 27, 1959...Nicks' average of 23.57 yards per catch in Green Bay was the highest ever by a Giant with more than 4 receptions in a postseason game.
- With 115 and 165 receiving yards in the Giants' victories over Atlanta and Green Bay, Nicks became the 1st Giant with 2 career postseason 100-yard receiving games.
- His performance vs. the Packers was the 6th time in Giants history a receiver scored 2 touchdowns in a postseason game. Nicks was the 4th different player to accomplish the feat and the 2nd to do it twice. He joined Toomer (twice), Johnny Perkins and Ike Hilliard.
- Nicks' 66-yard touchdown reception in the 1st quarter was the 4th-longest postseason play in Giants history and the 2nd in as many weeks that was at least that long.
- When Nicks reached high to catch Manning's Hail Mary pass as time expired in the 2nd quarter in Green Bay, it was the 1st time in Giants postseason history they scored a touchdown at 0:00 of a 2nd or 4th quarter.
- Nicks caught 2 touchdown passes apiece in the Giants' victories over Atlanta and Green Bay. He joined Toomer as the only Giant to score at least 2 touchdowns in at least 2 postseason games...Nicks' 4 postseason receiving touchdowns are 2nd in Giants history behind Toomer's 7.
- Caught 5 passes for 55 yards in the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22).
- Nicks had game-high totals of 10 receptions for 109 yards - both Giants Super Bowl records - in the 21-17 victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5). On the game-winning drive, Nicks caught a 14-yard pass to give the Giants a first down at the Patriots' 18-yard line and a 4-yarder to the 7, setting up Ahmad Bradshaw's game-winning touchdown.
- In 2010, Nicks played in 13 games with 12 starts and was inactive for 3 games (vs. Jacksonville 11/28 and vs. Washington 12/5 with a leg injury and the season finale at Washington with a broken toe)....Had team-high totals of 79 receptions for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns.

The 79 receptions left Nicks 7th in the NFC and tied for 12th in the NFL. They also tied for the 3rd-highest total in Giants history (Amani Toomer caught 79 passes in 1999).

- Nicks was the 10th player (and 9th wide receiver) in Giants history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

- Nicks' 11 touchdown receptions tied Del Shofner (1962) for the 3rd-highest total in Giants history. Mario Manningham added 9 touchdown catches as he and Nicks became the 1st pair of Giants with at least 9 touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had 9. Nicks was the 1st Giants receiver to hit double digits since Plaxico Burress had 12 touchdown catches in 2007.

- Nicks had 12 receptions at Houston (10/10), which tied the Giants' record for catches in a game by a wide receiver and was 1 shy of the overall mark. Amani Toomer caught 12 passes at Philadelphia on Sept. 17, 2006. Tight ends Mark Bavaro (Oct. 13, 1985 at Cincinnati) and Jeremy Shockey (Nov. 11, 2007 vs. Dallas) also had 12 receptions in a game. The franchise record is 13, set by running back Tiki Barber at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000.

- Nicks joined Toomer as the only players in franchise history to record at least 12 catches, 130 yards and 2 touchdowns in a game.

- Nicks, who had 110 yards the previous week vs. Chicago, was the first Giant with more than 100 receiving yards in consecutive games since Burress in 2005. Burress had 113 receiving yards vs. Philadelphia on Nov. 20 and 109 at Seattle on Nov. 27.

- In addition to the Chicago and Houston games, Nicks had 108 yards on 9 catches at Dallas (10/25) and 128 yards on 6 receptions at Seattle (11/7).

- Nicks scored 3 touchdowns in the Giants' season-opening victory over Carolina (on receptions of 26, 19 and 5 yards). He was the first Giants player to score 3 touchdowns in a game since Brandon Jacobs ran in from 2, 1 and 2 yards out on Dec. 21, 2008 – also against Carolina. Nicks was the first Giant to catch 3 touchdown passes in a game since Burress on Sept. 9, 2007 at Dallas. Burress caught Manning passes of 60, 4 and 10 yards that night.

- As a rookie in 2009, played in 14 games with 6 starts...Inactive at Dallas (9/20) and at Tampa Bay (9/27) with a foot injury...Started for the 1st time at Philadelphia (11/1)...Finished the season with 47 receptions for 790 yards, which were 3rd on the team in both categories...Led the team with a 16.8-yard average...Nicks' 6 receiving touchdowns were 2nd on the team to Steve Smith (7)...His 68-yard touchdown reception vs. Philadelphia (12/13) was the longest by a Giants wide receiver in 2009.

- The 47 catches and 790 yards were both the 3rd-highest total in history by a Giants rookie. Jeremy Shockey had 74 catches for 894 yards in 2002 and Bobby Johnson had 48 for 795 in 1984...Nicks' 6 touchdown receptions were the most by a Giants rookie since Johnson had 7. Bill Swiacki holds the Giants rookie record with 10 in 1948....Nicks' 790 yards tied for 1st among all NFL rookies with Minnesota's Percy Harvin...From Oct. 18 through Dec. 21, Nicks had a catch longer than 20 yards in 9 straight games to become the 1st rookie to accomplish that feat since Miami's Nat Moore in 1974....Nicks had two 100-yards games: 114 at New Orleans (10/18) and 110 vs.

Philadelphia (12/13). Against the Saints, he became the first Giants rookie receiver with at least 100 yards in a game since Jamaal Taylor had 102 yards (on just 2 catches) on Nov. 28, 2004 vs. Philadelphia.

- Nicks caught a touchdown pass in 4 consecutive games from Oct. 4 through Oct. 25, the first Giant to do so since Burress scored in each of the first 6 games of the 2007 season. He was the 1st Giants rookie to score touchdowns in 4 consecutive games since Bob Gaiters scored in 5 straight games in 1961. Nicks was the 1st Giants rookie with a touchdown reception in 4 consecutive games since Swiacki in 1948. In addition, Nicks was the 1st NFL rookie with a touchdown catch in 4 straight games since Buffalo's Lee Evans in 2004.

- Nicks was named the NFL's Offensive Rookie of the Month for October. In 4 games, he caught 14 passes for 297 yards (a 21.2-yard average) and 4 touchdowns, 1 in each game. He was the 1st Giant to win a Rookie of the Month award since October 2004, when safety Gibril Wilson received the defensive honor. The last Giant to be named Offensive Rookie of the Month was Jeremy Shockey in November 2002.

- Returned 1 kickoff for 16 yards vs. Washington (9/13).

COLLEGE:

- Nicks started all 36 games he played for North Carolina and led the team in receptions in each of his 3 seasons...Was the 1st UNC underclassman to declare for the NFL Draft since defensive end Julius Peppers in 2001...Set 14 school records, including catches, receiving yards and touchdown catches...His 181 receptions topped the old record of 177 by Jarwarski Pollock (2001-05) and rank 13th in Atlantic Coast Conference history...Nicks' 2,840 yards receiving broke the previous UNC mark of 2,447 yards by Corey Holliday (1989-93) and placed Nicks 11th on the ACC career-record chart...His 21 touchdown receptions bettered the former record of 19 by Octavus Barnes (1994-97)...Nicks set another school record with 74 receptions in 2007, topping the previous record of 71 by Pollock in 2003...In 2008, he became the 1st player in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season with 1,222 yards (on 68 catches), topping the former record of 990 yards by Sam Aiken in 2003...His 12 touchdown catches in 2008 broke the old record of 9 by Marcus Wall in 1994...Had 10 games with at least 100 receiving yards...Nicks' 217 yards vs. West Virginia in the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl were the 2nd most by a Tar Heel, and he became just the 3rd player in school history to post a 200-yard receiving game. Nicks joined Randy Marriott (247 vs. Georgia Tech in 1987) and Octavus Barnes (211 vs. Ohio in 1995).

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Helped unload turkeys at the Community FoodBank of N.J. with the help of Stop & Shop in preparation for the Thanksgiving Holiday. Hakeem served as spokesman for the Giants' Annual Game Day Food Drive, encouraging fans to bring donations of non-perishable foods to help stock the shelves of local food pantries.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (15th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2010.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Pierre-Paul's 16.5 sacks in 2011 was the 4th-highest total in Giants history.
- In 2011, Pierre-Paul was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.
- In 2010, Pierre-Paul had 2 sacks vs. Jacksonville (11/28) and 2 vs. Washington (12/5) to become the 1st rookie in Giants history with at least 2 sacks in consecutive games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 32 regular-season games with 12 starts and started all 4 postseason games in which he's played. Career regular-season totals include 119 tackles (91 solo), 21.0 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries and 14 passes defensed. In the postseason, JPP has 18 tackles (15 solo) and a half-sack.
- Established himself as 1 of the NFL's premier defensive ends in 2011, his 2nd pro season. Played in all 16 regular season games with 12 starts and started all 4 of the Giants' postseason games...Finished 3rd on the team and 1st among defensive linemen with 88 tackles (67 solo) and led the team with 23 tackles for losses and 29 quarterback hits...Pierre-Paul was 4th in the NFL with 16.5 sacks, the 4th-highest total in Giants history. He joined Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor and Michael Strahan as the only Giants with at least 16 in a season. Taylor did it once — he had 20.5 sacks in his 1986 MVP season — and Strahan did it twice (an NFL-record 22.5 sacks in 2001 and 18.5 in 2003).
- JPP had 5 multiple-sack games: at Washington (9/11), at Philadelphia (9/25), vs. Seattle (10/9), at Dallas (12/11) and at Jets (12/24)...He had at least a half-sack in 12 of the 16 games.
- Pierre-Paul was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl and was named 1st-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.
- JPP was twice selected NFC Defensive Player of the Week in December — when he was also named NFC Defensive Player of the Month.
- In a victory in Dallas, Pierre-Paul led the team with 8 tackles (6 solo), including 2 sacks of Tony Romo. The 1st resulted in a safety for the Giants' 1st points. The 2nd sack was on a 3rd down in the 3rd quarter and forced the Cowboys to punt from their own 43-yard line. Pierre-Paul also forced a Felix Jones fumble that was recovered by Deon Grant and led to a field goal. He secured the victory by blocking Dan Bailey's 47-yard field goal attempt with 1 second left in the game. If good, the kick would have tied the score and sent the game into overtime.
- Was credited with a career-high 16 tackles (11 solo) and a sack vs. Washington (12/18).
- Was again named Player of the Week after his performance at the Jets. Pierre-Paul had 5 tackles (4 solo), including 2 sacks for losses of 14 yards, and 3 quarterback hits. His 1st sack, with 2 seconds to go in the second quarter, resulted in a 7-yard loss and forced the Jets to attempt a 44-yard field goal, which was wide right. His 2nd sack was on the final series and all but ended the Jets' chance for a miracle comeback.
- Pierre-Paul was the 1st NFC defensive player to win the award twice in 3 weeks since New Orleans safety Malcolm Jenkins was honored in Weeks 12 and 14 of the 2010 season. He was the 1st Giant to be cited twice in 1 season since Osi Umenyiora was named Player of the Week in Weeks 4 and 7 of the 2007 season. Pierre-Paul was the 1st Giant to be named Defensive Player of the Week twice in a 3-week span of a season since Strahan in 2001 (Weeks 3 and 5).
- Had 8 tackles (6 solo) in the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Atlanta (1/8), 2 solo tackles in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Green Bay (1/15) and 6 tackles (5 solo) in NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22).
- Pierre-Paul had 2 solo tackles and 2 passes defensed in Super Bowl XLVI vs. New England (2/5).
- As a rookie in 2010, played in all 16 games as a reserve defensive lineman and on special teams...On defense, finished with 31 tackles (24 solo), including 4.5 sacks, the highest total by a Giants rookie since Cornelius Griffin had 5.0 in 2000...Added 6 passes defensed, 17 QB hurries, 11 QB hits, 2 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries...Tied for 3rd on the team with 9 special teams tackles (8 solo).
- Made his NFL debut with 1 defensive tackle and 1 special teams tackle vs. Carolina (9/12)...Had 2 special teams tackles at Houston (10/10) and vs. Detroit (10/17)...Recorded a season-high 7 tackles (6 solo), including his first 2 NFL sacks, and 2 forced fumbles vs. Jacksonville (11/28). Forced David Garrard to fumble on each of his first 2 career sacks...Added 2 sacks the following week vs. Washington (12/5) to become the 1st rookie in Giants history with at least 2 sacks in consecutive games...Recovered 1 fumble in each game vs. the Redskins.

COLLEGE:

- Played at 3 colleges - College of the Canyons in Santa Clarita, Calif., in 2007, Fort Scott (Kan.) Community College in 2008 and South Florida in 2009...In his 3 stops, Pierre-Paul played in 35 games, recording 161 tackles (119 solo) with 31.0 sacks for minus 180 yards, 56.0 stops for losses totaling 248 yards and 13 pressures...He forced seven fumbles and recovered 3 others, deflected 9 passes and intercepted 2 more for 38 yards in returns... In 2009, he was a 1st-team All-America selection by Pro Football Weekly and consensus All-Big East 1st-team choice...Earned team Rookie of the Year honors...A late arrival to fall camp, Pierre-Paul was originally going to be red-shirted, but the coaches relented and allowed him to play...A junior, he moved from 4th on the depth chart at left defensive end to the Bulls' starter vs. Charleston Southern, Florida State, Cincinnati, West Virginia, Miami, Connecticut and Northern Illinois (International Bowl)... Part of a defense that ranked 19th in the nation in scoring defense (19.8 points per game) and 24th in total defense (321.8 yards per game)...Recorded 45 tackles (27 solo) with 6.5 sacks for minus 29 yards, 16.5 stops for losses totaling 53 yards and a team-high 7 quarterback pressures...Forced 2 fumbles, deflected 3 passes and intercepted another that he returned 18 yards for a touchdown vs. Syracuse...Also blocked a kick vs. Connecticut...His 6.5 sacks in 2009 were the most by a Bulls' 1st-year player in a season since Shawn Hay and Demetrius Woods both recorded 8.0 sacks in 1997...In 2008, earned All-America and All-Jayhawk Football Conference 1st-team honors at Fort Scott Community College...Helped the Greyhounds finished 9-2 and a victory in the Heart of Texas Bowl...

Recorded 67 tackles (50 solo), 10.5 sacks for minus 50 yards, 20.5 stops for losses of 78 yards, forced 3 fumbles and recovered 2 others...Added 5 pressures...In 2007, in just his 2nd season playing organized football, Pierre-Paul was named All-America and All-Western State Conference 1st-team at the College of the Canyons...Led all California junior college players with 14 sacks for minus 101 yards and had 19.0 stops for losses totaling 117 yards...Forced 2 fumbles, recovered another, deflected 5 passes and intercepted another for a 20-yard return.

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 2nd round (34th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2004.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Snee enters the 2012 season having played 122 regular-season games for the Giants, the 2nd-highest total among active players. David Diehl has played 140 games.
- In 2010, Snee was voted 1st team All-Pro by The Sporting News and the Pro Football Writers Association and 2nd team by the Associated Press.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started every game in which he's played (122 regular season and 11 postseason) at right guard.
- In 2011, Snee started all 15 regular-season games and 4 postseason games in which he played...Was inactive vs. Buffalo (10/16) due to a concussion suffered the previous week vs. Seattle...His absence ended his streak of consecutive regular-season games played and started at 101 (plus 7 postseason games). Snee had started every game since the 2005 season opener after missing the final 5 games of his 2004 rookie season with an inflamed gland.
- Snee and the offensive line helped the Giants win Super Bowl XLVI behind one of the NFL's most productive offenses. The Giants were 9th in the NFL with 394 points and established franchise records with 6,161 total yards (385.1 a game, which ranked 8th in the NFL) and 4,734 net passing yards. The line blocked well enough for Eli Manning to throw for 4,933 yards, the 6th-highest total in NFL history...In the playoffs, the Giants averaged 402.5 total yards a game.
- In 2010, Snee started all 16 games at right guard for the 6th consecutive season. He was 1 of 2 Giants offensive linemen to start every game at the same position, joining right tackle Kareem McKenzie. Rich Seubert also started all 16 games, 9 at left guard and 7 at center.
- Snee and Shaun O'Hara were each selected to their 3rd consecutive Pro Bowls. They are the 1st Giants offensive linemen selected to 3 Pro Bowls since center Bart Oates in 1990, 1991 and 1993 and the 1st chosen in 3 consecutive years since Hall of Famer tackle Rosie Brown was selected to 6 in a row from 1955-60.
- Despite starting 6 different offensive line combinations in 2010, the Giants were ranked 5th in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. The Giants gained a franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history.
- The line blocked well enough for the Giants to finish 6th in the NFL in rushing with 137.5 yards a game and they were the only NFC team with two 800-yard rushers (Ahmad Bradshaw, 1,235 and Brandon Jacobs, 823).
- The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010, the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record 5 consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in 7 games overall.
- In 2009, Snee started all 16 games at right guard... Played in his 2nd consecutive Pro Bowl, the 1st Giants guard to play in the game in back-to-back seasons since Ron Stone in 2000 and 2001... Was joined at the Pro Bowl by center O'Hara and tackle David Diehl, the 1st time the Giants had 3 players from the same position group in the game since 1962 (when offensive linemen Rosie Brown, Darrell Dess and Ray Wietecha — also a tackle, guard and center — all received the honor)...Snee and O'Hara were the 1st Giants to be selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Tiki Barber and Jeremy Shockey in 2005-06... Run and pass blocking helped the Giants average 366.0 yards a game, the NFL's 8th-highest figure...Line allowed only 32 sacks, tied for 7th-best in the league.
- In 2008, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at right guard. The Giants were the only team to start the same 5 linemen in all 32 regular season games in 2007 and 2008...Snee was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl, as the starting right guard for the NFC...Was also named a 1st-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and The Sporting News and 1st-team All-NFL and All-NFC by the Pro Football Writers Association... Snee was an integral member of the offensive line that helped the Giants finish with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the 2nd-highest totals in franchise history. The Giants gained 5,695 yards, the 3rd-highest total in their history. The line's blocking enabled the Giants to lead the NFL and set franchise records in both rushing yards per game (157.4) and yards per carry (5.0). With Snee and the line opening holes, Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became the 4th pair of running back teammates to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.
- The line's blocking helped the Giants rush for 301 yards in a victory over Carolina (12/21) that clinched the top seed in the NFC playoffs. It was the 5th-highest total in Giants history...Snee and the line allowed just 2 sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 21-Oct. 26.
- In 2007, he started all 16 regular-season games and all 4 of the Giants' postseason games at right guard... Selected as a 2nd alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team.

- Blocking by Snee and the O-line enabled the Giants to finish 4th in the NFL in rushing yardage with an average of 134.3 yards a game. In their 4-game postseason surge that culminated in a Super Bowl XLII victory, the Giants averaged 305.5 yards, including 103.8 on the ground.
- In 2006, started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at right guard...Offensive line provided enough run blocking for the Giants offense to rush for 2,156 yards, the 7th-highest total in the NFL.
- In 2005, started all 16 regular-season games for the 1st time and the NFC Wild Card Game at right guard...Offensive line provided enough run blocking for Tiki Barber to rush for a franchise record 1,860 yards and the pass blocking enabled Eli Manning to pass for 3,762 yards, the 5th-highest total in franchise history.
- As a rookie in 2004, started all 11 games in which he played at right guard, a job he won in training camp...Missed the final 5 games of the season after waking up the morning of the game at Washington (12/5) with an inflamed gland just beneath his jaw...Arrived at the stadium early, but there was no progress in his condition prior to the time the Giants had to submit their list of inactive players...The condition did not improve enough for him to play again in 2004.
- Made his NFL debut at Philadelphia (9/12), where the line's blocking helped Barber rush for 125 yards on 9 carries, including a 72-yard score.
- Gave up his final year of college eligibility to make himself eligible for the NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:

- Was a 2nd-team All-America selection and an All-Big East Conference 1st-team choice by The NFL Draft Report in his final season at Boston College.
- In 2003, started every game, including the San Francisco Bowl, at right guard, providing excellent blocking as tailback Derrick Knight ranked 4th in the nation in rushing with 1,721 yards.
- Started every game at left guard in 2002, helping the team finish 3rd in the Big East in total offense (5,074 yards) and second in passing yards (3,010).
- Third-team Freshman All-America selection by The Sporting News in 2001...Member of the Big East's All-Freshman team...Played in 9 games, starting the final 6 contests...Made his 1st career start vs. Virginia Tech at right tackle before shifting to right guard for the Pittsburgh contest.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Named the 2012 Giants Hometown Hero by the United Way of New York City for his outstanding commitment to the community.
- Honored by the Starlight Starbright Children's Foundation for his commitment to children's charities.
- Chris is highly involved with his hometown branch of the United Way in Susquehanna County (Pa.), where he hosts an annual Punt, Pass and Kick event and parade.

- Serves as the Giants' team representative for the United Way.

- A member of the Muscular Dystrophy's "Muscle Team" and attended their annual fundraiser dinner.
- Attended the Jay Fund's Annual Champions for Children's Gala in New York City and the Jay Fund Golf Classic in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.
- Participated in the Giants' Hometown Huddle playground build at PS 1 School in West New York, N.J.

PERSONAL:

- Married (Kate)...They have 3 sons (Dylan, Cooper Christopher and Walker).
- Attended Montrose (Pa.) High, earning All-State honors as a junior and senior...Named as the Regional Defensive Player of the Year in 1999...Three-time All-Conference choice and a 2-year All-Regional honoree...Recorded 47 sacks in his 3 years as a starter on the defensive line...Led his team to the district title in both 1997 and 1998...Totaled 101 tackles in his senior season.
- Played in the 43rd annual Big 33 Football Classic (features the top players from Pennsylvania and Ohio).
- Two-time All-Conference selection and team captain on the school's basketball team.
- Member of the National Honor Society and French National Honor Society.
- Born Jan. 18, 1982.

- Tynes also owns the Giants postseason record with 59 points. Amani Toomer is 2nd with 42.
- With both Kansas City and the Giants, Tynes kicked at least 1 field goal in 15 consecutive games. With the Chiefs, the streak began at Denver (12/19/04) and ended vs. Denver (12/4/05). With the Giants, he kicked a field goal in each of the 1st 15 games of the 2009 season, beginning vs. Washington (9/13) and ending at Minnesota (1/3). He enters the 2012 season with at least 1 field goal in 13 consecutive games...Tynes has scored at least 100 points in each full season of his career: 109 in 2004 and 2007, a career-high 126 in 2009, 125 in 2005, 107 in 2006 and 100 in 2010 and 2011...Sixty-nine of his 587 career kickoffs (11.8%) have resulted in touchbacks.

- In 2011, Tynes played in all 16 games and scored exactly 100 points in the regular season for the 2nd year in a row. In each season, he kicked 19 field goals and 43 extra points...Tynes made 19 of 24 field goal attempts (79.2%) and all 43 extra point tries in the regular season...The 43 PATs without a miss — a feat he accomplished for the 2nd year in a row — tie him for 3rd on the team's single-season record list. Summerall made all 46 of his extra point tries in 1961 and Tynes succeeded on all 45 of his attempts in 2009. Jay Feely also made 43 without a miss in 2005...Thirty-four of his 79 kickoffs (43.0%) were touchbacks...In 4 postseason games, Tynes scored 34 points by hitting 8 of 10 field goal attempts and all 10 of his extra point tries.

- Tynes kicked a regular-season-high 2 field goals 6 times: vs. Buffalo (10/16), vs. Miami (10/30), at San Francisco (11/13), vs. Green Bay (12/4) and at the Jets (12/24)...Kicked a season-long 50-yard field goal vs. the Packers...Made 3 of 4 field goal attempts in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Green Bay (1/5)...Hit two 31-yard field goals in the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22), the 2nd with 7:54 elapsed in overtime to give the Giants a 20-17 victory. Tynes is the only kicker in NFL history with 2 postseason game-winning field goals in overtime...Booted field goals of 38 and 33 yards vs. New England in Super Bowl XLVI.

- In 2010, Tynes played in 15 games...Did not play vs. Detroit (10/17) after injuring his ankle on his plant foot in practice 2 days before the game.

- Led the Giants with 100 points, his second 100-point season in a row and 3rd in his 4 years with the Giants...Tynes succeeded on 19 of 23 field goal attempts and all 43 of his extra point tries...Tynes' 53-yard field goal at Dallas (10/25) tied his career long, set on Oct. 22, 2006, when he played for Kansas City against San Diego. His previous long field goal as a Giant was a 52-yarder at Denver on Thanksgiving night, 2009 (11/26).

- On Sept. 26 vs. Tennessee, Tynes kicked a 50-yard field goal and was wide left on a 53-yard attempt. It was the 1st time he tried 2 field goals of 50-plus yards since Oct. 21, 2005, when he kicked field goals of 51 and 52 yards in Kansas City's 30-20 victory in Miami. The Giants had last

- attempted 2 field goals of at least 50-yards in a game on Oct. 30, 2005, when Feely tried 50- and 51-yarders against Washington. The first was good, but the latter hit the left upright.
- Hit a season-high 3 field goals (from 22, 29 and 28 yards) vs. Jacksonville (11/28)...Made 15 consecutive attempts beginning at Houston (10/10) and ending when his last attempt of the season was wide right at Washington (1/2).
  - In 2009, Tynes played in all 16 games. He led the Giants and was 5th in the NFL in scoring with a career-high 126 points. His previous best was 125 points with Kansas City in 2005. The 126 points tie him with Joe Morris (1985) for 4th place on the Giants' single-season list...Converted 27 of 32 field goal attempts, an 84.4 percentage that was the 6th best in a single season in Giants history...Made all 45 of his extra point attempts...Tynes kicked at least 1 field goal in 15 consecutive games, placing him in a 4-way tie for the 2nd-highest total in Giants history...Tynes attempted a career-high 5 field goals at Dallas (9/20). His previous high was 4, which he did 3 times, most recently for Kansas City vs. Denver on Nov. 23, 2006...Tied his career high with 4 field goals (from 30, 28, 36 and 37 yards) in Dallas. He also booted 4 field goals for the Chiefs vs. New England on Nov. 27, 2005.
  - Tynes kicked a 52-yard field goal at Denver (11/26), his longest as a Giant and longest since he booted a 52-yarder for Kansas City at San Diego on Dec. 17, 2006. Tynes' career-long is a 53-yarder, vs. the Chargers in Arrowhead Stadium on Oct. 22, 2006.
  - In 2008, Tynes played in 2 regular-season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game...Was inactive for 14 games...Playing time was limited due to knee injury suffered in training camp on Aug. 9...Played at Philadelphia (11/9), where he handled kickoff duties and vs. Baltimore (11/16). ## NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 2nd round (56th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2003.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Set a Giants franchise record with 6.0 sacks vs. Philadelphia on Sept. 23, 2007, surpassing the old mark of 4.5 sacks by Pepper Johnson at Tampa Bay on Nov. 24, 1991.
- From 2004-10, Umenyiora was the Giants' sole or shared leader in sacks in 6 of 7 seasons, missing only 2008, when he did not play a game after undergoing knee surgery. He was the team sack leader in 4 consecutive seasons with 7.0 in 2004, 14.5 in 2005, 6.0 in 2006 and 13.0 in 2007, and again with 7.0 in 2009. He was tied with Justin Tuck for the team lead in 2010 with 11.5. Umenyiora was the 1st Giant to top the team in sacks 4 years in a row since Lawrence Taylor led the team in 5 consecutive seasons from 1986-90. Michael Strahan was No. 1 in sacks each season from 1995-98, but shared the 1996 lead with Chad Bratzke.
- Has 69.0 career regular-season sacks, which place him 4th on the Giants' official career list (since 1982, when sacks were 1st recognized)...He is 10.5 sacks behind No. 3 Leonard Marshall.
- Umenyiora is the only player in Giants history with 3 touchdowns on fumble returns.
- Was voted to the Pro Bowl following the 2005 and 2007 seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 113 regular-season games with 85 starts and in 10 postseason games with 6 starts at right defensive end...Career totals include 374 tackles (252 solo), 69.0 sacks, 11 passes defensed, 30 forced fumbles and 13 fumble recoveries in the regular season, and 29 tackles (22 solo), 3.5 sacks and 2 forced fumbles in the postseason.
- Has been named NFC Defensive Player of the Week twice, Special Teams Player of the Week once and Defensive Player of the Month once.
- In 2011, played in 9 regular-season games with 7 starts and in 4 postseason games with no starts...Missed the season's first 3 games after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery on Aug. 19 and the Giants' 4 December games with an ankle injury suffered at New Orleans (11/28)...Finished 2nd on the team with 9.0 sacks...Was credited with 25 tackles (16 solo), and 2 forced fumbles...In the postseason, Umenyiora tied with Justin Tuck for the team lead with 3.5 sacks. He had 9 tackles (6 solo) and a forced fumble.

- After sitting out the first 3 games, Umenyiora had 6 sacks in his first 4 games...Made his season debut with 2 sacks at Arizona (10/2)...Added 2 sacks the following week vs. Seattle (10/9)...Had 1 sack vs. Buffalo (10/16), vs. Miami (10/30) and at San Francisco (11/13)...Had 2 sacks vs. Dallas (1/1)...In the postseason, had 1 sack in the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Atlanta (1/8), 2 in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Green Bay (1/15) and a half-sack in the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22).

- In 2010, started all 16 games at defensive right end...Finished with 66 tackles (53 solo)...Named 2nd-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.

- Umenyiora and Tuck shared the team lead with 11.5 sacks apiece. It was the 1st time the Giants had 2 players with at least that many sacks since 2005, when Umenyiora had 14.5 and Michael Strahan finished with 11.5.

- It was the 6th time in 7 years Umenyiora claimed the team sack title. The only season since 2004 he was not atop the team's sack rankings was 2008, when he missed the entire year after undergoing knee surgery. Tuck was the team leader that season.

- Umenyiora and Tuck each had 3 sacks vs. Chicago (10/3), when the Giants totaled 10. It was Umenyiora's highest total in a game since he set a team record with 6 sacks against the Eagles when the team had 12 on Sept. 30, 2007.

- Umenyiora led the Giants and tied an NFL record with 10 forced fumbles, tying Jason Taylor's record set in 2006 with Miami. The stat has been kept since 1994.

- Umenyiora was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October. In 4 games – all Giants victories – Umenyiora had 18 tackles (10 solo), including 7.0 sacks and 6 forced fumbles. Umenyiora had 3 consecutive multiple-sack games in October: 3.0 sacks vs. Chicago, 2.0 at Houston and 2.0 vs. Detroit. Prior to that stretch, he had never had multiple sacks in back-to-back games. Umenyiora also forced 2 fumbles in each of those 3 games... Umenyiora was the first Giant to win a Player of the Month award since November 2008, when Eli Manning was honored as the NFC Offensive Player of the Month. He was the first Giants defender to receive the award since Michael Strahan in October 2001.

- Had a season-high 7 tackles 3 times: vs. Chicago, at Philadelphia (11/21) and at Washington (1/2).

- In 2009, played in all 16 games with 11 starts at defensive right end...Finished the season with 45 tackles

(19 solo), a team-high 7.0 sacks, 4 forced fumbles (tied with Tuck for the team lead) and a team-high 4 fumble recoveries...Led the team in sacks for the 5th time in 6 seasons...Had a season-high 2 sacks at Kansas City (10/4) and a season-best 5 tackles at New Orleans (10/18)...Tallied 3 tackles and a sack vs. Washington (9/13)...On one play in the 2nd quarter, he had a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery and return for a touchdown. On 2nd-and-8 from the Giants' 42-yard line, Umenyiora sacked Jason Campbell for an 11-yard loss. He forced Campbell to cough up the ball, which Umenyiora scooped up and returned 37 yards for a touchdown. It was Umenyiora's 3rd career touchdown, and all of them have been on returns after fumble recoveries, a team record. He brought 1 back 50 yards at Baltimore on Dec. 12, 2004, and 75 yards vs. San Francisco on Oct. 21, 2007.

- Umenyiora missed the entire 2008 season after undergoing knee surgery...He suffered a torn lateral meniscus cartilage in his left knee in a preseason game vs. the Jets on Aug. 23....Underwent surgery and was placed on injured reserve 3 days later.

- In 2007, started all 16 regular-season games and 4 postseason games at right defensive end...Umenyiora was the only member of the Super Bowl champion Giants selected to the Pro Bowl, the 2nd time he was chosen...Led the team in sacks for the 4th consecutive season with 13.0 for 87 yards...Also had 53 tackles (33 solo), 2 passes defensed, 5 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries...Was twice named NFC Defensive Player of the Week...Added 10 tackles (7 solo) and a fumble recovery in the playoffs.

- Set a Giants record with 6.0 sacks vs. Philadelphia (9/30). The old record of 4.5 sacks was set by Pepper Johnson at Tampa Bay on Nov. 24, 1991. The NFL record of 7.0 sacks was set by the late Hall of Famer Derrick Thomas for Kansas City against Seattle on Nov. 11, 1990. Umenyiora is tied for 2nd in league history with San Francisco's Fred Dean (6.0 sacks vs. New Orleans on Nov. 13, 1983) and Thomas (6.0 sacks vs. Oakland on Sept. 6, 1998)...Umenyiora's previous career high was 2.0 sacks, which he had accomplished 6 times...He entered the game with no sacks in 2007 and just 1 sack in his last 8 games dating back to 2006 – not counting his sack in the Giants' postseason loss to Philadelphia...In addition to his 6 sacks, he forced 2 fumbles and had 4 QB hurries...Contributed to a defense that set a team record for sacks with 12.0...The previous Giants record was 9 sacks, which they accomplished 3 times. Two of the 3 games were at home against the Eagles, most recently on Aug. 31, 1997. They also had 9 sacks on Dec. 6, 1987 against Philadelphia and Dec. 14, 1986 vs. the St. Louis Cardinals...Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week.

- Finished with 4 solo tackles, 1 sack, 3 QB hurries and 3 QB hits vs. the Jets (10/7)...Recorded his 7th sack of the season when he dropped Chad Pennington for a 7-yard loss in the 4th quarter.

- Had 3 tackles (2 solo), 1 sack, 2 QB hits, 1 forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries vs. San Francisco (10/21)...Scored the Giants' 3rd touchdown of the game when he sacked Trent Dilfer for a 10-yard loss, forced a fumble that he recovered and returned 75 yards for a score in the 3rd quarter. It was the longest fumble return for a touchdown by a Giant since Sept. 9, 1984, when linebacker Andy Headen brought one back 81 yards in a victory over Dallas...The performance earned Umenyiora his 2nd Player of the Week award in 2007.

- Posted his second 2-sack game of the season vs. Minnesota (11/25)...Also had sacks in each of the next 2 games, at Chicago (12/2) and at Philadelphia (12/9)...Contributed 6 tackles (4 solo) and a 10-yard sack in the Giants' playoff-clinching victory at Buffalo (12/23).

- Made a big contribution in Super Bowl XLII vs. New England (2/3), with 3 tackles (2 solo), 2 QB hurries and a team-high 5 QB hits. Also recovered a Tom Brady fumble after the quarterback was hit by Justin Tuck and lost the ball in the 2nd quarter...Tackled RB Laurence Maroney for losses of 3 yards in the 2nd quarter and 2 yards in the 3rd quarter.

- In 2006, started all 11 regular-season games in which he played and the NFC Wild Card Game at right defensive end...Led the team with 6.0 sacks despite missing 5 games with a strained hip flexor...Finished the season with 39 tackles (27 solo), 16 QB hurries, 12 QB hits, 1 pass defensed and 1 forced fumble.

- Contributed 4 tackles, 1 sack and 3 QB hurries in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7).

- In 2005, started all 16 regular-season games and the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Carolina at right defensive end...Finished with 70 tackles (49 solo), 14.5 sacks, 3 passes defensed, 4 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries

- His 14.5 sacks placed him 1st in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL and was the highest total by a Giant other than Michael Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989....Umenyiora and Strahan combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates...Umenyiora was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl and was named 1st-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly and was selected the NFL's Most Improved Player by Pro Football Weekly.

- Umenyiora and Strahan became the 1st tandem of defensive ends from the same team to go to the Pro Bowl together since Jason Taylor and Trace Armstrong of the Miami Dolphins in 2000.

- Finished with 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 sacks and a forced fumble at Oakland (12/31)...Dropped Kerry Collins for a 12-yard loss in the 2nd quarter and recorded his 2nd sack of the game in the 4th quarter when he stripped Collins of the ball for a 9-yard loss.

- In 2004, played in 16 games with 7 starts at defensive right end...Led the team with 7.0 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries (including 1 he returned for a touchdown) and 3 forced fumbles along with 58 tackles (42 solo) and 3 passes defensed.

- Recorded 9 tackles, 1 sack and a forced fumble vs. Dallas (1/2)...Sacked Vinny Testaverde and forced a fumble in the 4th quarter that was recovered by Reggie Torbor and led to Tiki Barber's 3-yard touchdown reception...Did not start at Baltimore (12/12), but recorded 4 tackles, a half-sack, 2 passes defensed and a fumble recovery. Scored the 1st touchdown of his career when he recovered a Kyle Boller fumble that was forced by a Reggie Torbor sack and returned it 50 yards in the 2nd quarter.

- As a rookie in 2003, played in 13 games with 1 start...Finished with 19 tackles (15 solo), 1 sack and 1 special teams tackle in rookie season.

- Set up all 3 Giants touchdowns in season finale against Carolina (12/28), the first 2 with blocked punts and the third with a sack and forced fumble that was recovered for a score by Keith Washington. Umenyiora's first was the first time the Giants blocked 2 punts in 1 game since Oct. 9, 1943 against the Phil-Pitt Steagles, a team made up of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia players during World War II. Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after finishing with 4 tackles (1 solo) and a sack for a loss of 17 yards.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 48 games with 46 starts for Troy, recording 276 tackles (129 solo) with 25 sacks for minus-140 yards, 39 stops for losses of 168 yards, 71 quarterback pressures, 7 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries and a pass deflection... He was a teammate of Lawrence Tynes.
- As a senior, was named All-American honorable mention and All-Independent 1st-team selection by The NFL Draft Report... Started every game at right defensive end, recording 57 tackles (35 solo) with 3 forced fumbles... Set school records with 43 quarterback pressures and 16 sacks for minus 81 yards.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Weatherford punted 12 times in the Giants' NFC Championship Game victory in San Francisco, tying David Lee of the Baltimore Colts (in a 1977 AFC Divisional Playoff) for 2nd-highest total in NFL postseason history.
- Weatherford set a Super Bowl record with 3 punts downed inside the 20-yard line.
- Tied an NFL record in 2010 by placing 42 punts inside the 20-yard line.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 94 regular-season games...Career totals include 445 punts for 19,330 yards, a gross average of 43.4 yards and a net average of 37.3 yards...Has a career-long punt of 66 yards...Weatherford has dropped 139 punts inside the 20-yard line and has 43 touchbacks...He has never had a punt blocked...Weatherford has played in 11 postseason games in which he has 57 punts for 2,442 yards, a 42.8-yard gross average and a 35.8-yard net average, 15 punts placed inside the 20 and 11 touchbacks...Weatherford has 5 career rushing attempts for 64 yards, with a long of 26, 1 pass attempt that was incomplete, and has kicked off 25 times for a 62.7-yard average.

- In 2011, his 1st season with the Giants, Weatherford played in all 16 regular-season games and 4 postseason games...In the regular season, he booted 82 punts for 3,745 yards, a 45.7-yard gross average (14th in the NFL) and a 39.2-yard net average (13th in the league) — both career highs...The 45.7-yard gross average was the second-highest single-season average in Giants history, surpassed only by Don Chandler's 46.6-yard average in 1969 (minimum 35 punts)...Weatherford dropped 25 punts inside the 20-yard line, had 6 touchbacks and a long punt of 62 yards...Also had 4 solo special-teams tackles...In the postseason, Weatherford had 22 punts for 999 yards, a 45.4-yard gross average and a 39.7-yard net average with 6 inside the 20, two touchbacks and a long punt of 57 yards.

- Weatherford punted 12 times in the Giants' NFC Championship Game victory in San Francisco. He tied David Lee of the Baltimore Colts (in a 1977 AFC Divisional Playoff) for the 2nd-highest total in NFL postseason history. The record of 14 was set by Jets punter — and former Giant — Dave Jennings in a 1986 divisional playoff game. All 3 games went into overtime. The former Giants postseason record was 11 punts by Brad Maynard against the Ravens in Super Bowl XXXV.

- Weatherford's 557 punting yards vs. the 49ers easily outdistanced the Giants' former postseason record of 422, set by Maynard in Super Bowl XXXV.

- Weatherford set a Super Bowl record with 3 punts downed inside the 20-yard line in the Giants' victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI (2/5).

- Punted a regular-season-high 9 times vs. Philadelphia (11/20) and at the Jets (12/24)...Hit 463 yards vs. the Eagles were a season-high...Had a season-best 53.7-yard gross average (3 punts for 161 yards) vs. Buffalo (10/16) and a season-high 44.5-yard net average vs. Miami (10/30) and vs. Washington (12/18)...Had regular season-long 62-yard punt at Dallas (11/21) and postseason-long 57-yarder in NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/22)...In Super Bowl XLVI, punted 4 times for 163 yards, a 40.8-yard gross average and a 35.6-yard net average with 3 inside the 20 and 1 touchback.

- In 2010, played in all 16 regular-season games and 2 postseason games for the Jets...Had a career-high 84 punts for a gross average of 42.6 yards and a net average of 38.1 yards...Tied an NFL record by placing 42 punts inside the 20-yard line. He shares the mark with San Francisco's Andy Lee (2007) and Arizona's Ben Graham (2009)...His 4 touchbacks tied a career low...In 3 postseason games, Weatherford had 15 punts for a 40.9-yard gross average and a 29.5-yard net average with 3 kicks inside the 20 and 6 touchdowns...Punted 5 times for a season-high 48.6-yard gross average at Denver (10/17)...Had a season-best 45.3-yard net average vs. Houston (11/21)...Placed 6 punts inside the 20 vs. Miami (12/12) and 5 vs. Cincinnati (11/25)...Tied his career-high with 61-yard punts at Miami (9/26) and vs. Cincinnati...Booted a 65-yard punt in AFC Wild Card Game at Indianapolis (1/8)...Ran for a 17-yard gain out of punt formation vs. Green Bay (10/31). Originally ruled an 18-yard gain on 4th-and-18, but the 1st down was overturned after a replay challenge.

- In 2009, played in all 16 regular-season games and 2 postseason games for the Jets...Finished with 80 punts for a 42.0-yard gross average and a 36.7-yard net average, with 25 punts inside-the-20... Played in the final 2 postseason games (at San Diego on 1/17 and at Indianapolis on 1/24) after missing the AFC Wild Card Game at Cincinnati (1/9) due to an illness... Punted 4 times for a 51.0-yard gross average and a 45.0-yard net average, with 2 punts inside the 20... Executed a successful fake punt when he ran for 26 yards and a 1st down on 4th-and-6 on the Jets' opening drive at Miami (10/12), where all 3 of his punts landed inside the 20... Booted a career-long 66-yard punt in the 4th quarter vs. Carolina (11/29), when he finished with a 50.8 average on 5 punts with a 32.8 net, including 1 inside-the-20... Had 2 special-teams tackles and ran 16 yards on 4th-and-7 on a fake punt, making a 1st down to end the 1st quarter at Oakland

- In 2008, played for New Orleans (7 games), Kansas City (2) and Jacksonville (5)... Finished the season with 59 punts for a 42.7-yard gross average and a 34.1-yard net average... Booted 26 punts for averages of 41.1 and 34.2 yards with 5 inside the 20 and 2 special-teams tackles for New Orleans, 12 punts for 42.7 and 27.8-yard averages with 1 inside the 20 for Kansas City and 21 punts for 43.6 and 37.7-yard averages for Jacksonville.
- In 2007, played all 16 games for New Orleans and punted 63 times for a 43.8-yard gross average and a 37.2-yard net average with 20 punts inside-the-20... Also had 1 rush for 5 yards and one special-teams tackle.
- As a rookie in 2006, Weatherford played in all 16 regular-season games and 2 postseason games for the Saints... Punted 77 times in the regular season for a 43.8-yard gross average and a 37.5-yard net average with 19 inside-the-20... Had 1 special-teams tackle... In the postseason, had 8 punts, including 5 for a 38.8-yard gross average and a 30.0-yard net average in the NFC Championship Game at Chicago.

COLLEGE:

- At Illinois, Weatherford punted 193 times for a career average of 43.5 yards, which was the highest mark in school Illinois history... Earned All-Big Ten honors as a junior in 2004 after posting a 45.4-yard gross average on 57 punts and placing 23 of them inside the 20.

THE VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

GETTY IMAGES

The Giants raise the Lombardi Trophy during the postgame ceremonies at Super Bowl XLII

The Vince Lombardi Trophy is the trophy awarded each year to the winning team of the National Football League's annual championship game, the Super Bowl. It is considered to be the NFL's most prestigious award. The trophy was originally called the "World Championship Game Trophy" when the Super Bowl was originally named the AFL-NFL World Championship Game. It was renamed in 1970 in honor of legendary Green Bay Packers head coach Vince Lombardi.

Since Super Bowl XXX, it is presented to the winning team's owner on the field following the game. Previously, the trophy was presented inside the winning team's locker room.

Unlike trophies such as the Stanley Cup and the Grey Cup, a new Vince Lombardi Trophy is made every year and the winning team maintains permanent possession of that trophy.

Each trophy is handcrafted by Tiffany & Co. master artisans at their workshop in Parsippany, New Jersey. The trophy depicts a regulation-size football in kicking position that is made entirely of sterling silver. It stands 22 inches (55 cm) tall, weighs seven pounds (3 kg), and takes approximately four months and 72 man-hours to create. The words "Vince Lombardi Trophy" and the NFL logo are engraved on the base. After the trophy is awarded, it is sent back to Tiffany & Co. to be engraved with the winning team's name, score, logo and roster if the team wishes.

Late in the afternoon on Dec. 18, 2011, the Giants trudged off the field in MetLife Stadium after a lackluster 23-10 loss to the Washington Redskins. The Giants had not scored a touchdown until 33 seconds remained in the defeat, their fifth in a six-game stretch that included a four-game losing streak. More importantly, the Giants fell to 7-7 and were one defeat from missing the playoffs for a third consecutive season.

But instead of continuing their freefall, the Giants rose up and concluded the season with one of the most inspiring and memorable runs in the 87-year history of the franchise, one that ended with a victory over New England in Super Bowl XLVI – their second championship in five seasons.

The surge began with a Dec. 24 victory over the Jets in which the Giants were the visiting team. Eight days later, the Giants routed Dallas in a winner-take-all showdown for the NFC East title. The Giants finished 9-7 and became the first team to win the division with fewer than 10 wins since the 1970 merger.

The Giants opened their playoff run with a 24-1 rout of Atlanta in MetLife Stadium. They followed that up with road victories that avenged regular season losses to Green Bay and San Francisco, the latter a 20-17 overtime thriller in the NFC Championship Game.

That advanced the Giants to the Super Bowl, where they found a familiar foe in the Patriots, the same team they defeated four years earlier in Super Bowl XLII. This time, Ahmad Bradshaw scored the game-winning touchdown on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining and the defense knocked down Tom Brady's last-play pass into the end zone to clinch the 21-17 victory.

Eli Manning completed 30 of 40 passes for 296 yards to win his second Super Bowl MVP award as the Giants became the first seven-loss team to win a Super Bowl.

During the regular season, the Giants set franchise records with 6,161 total yards and 4,734 net passing yards. Manning set Giants marks with 589 passes and 359 completions. Wide receiver Victor Cruz established a team record with 1,536 receiving yards while catching 82 passes. Hakeem Nicks had 1,192 yards to give the Giants two 1,000-yard receivers for the first time in franchise history.

Ahmad Bradshaw missed four games with a foot injury, but led the team with 659 rushing yards and nine touchdowns.

Second-year pro Jason Pierre-Paul had 16.5 sacks, the fourth-highest total in team history.

GIANTS AT REDSKINS

SEPT. 9, 2011
REDSKINS 28, GIANTS 14

The Giants did not perform to the standard they set for themselves when the curtain went up on their 2011 season.

They wasted two leads, were shutout in the second half, converted only one third-down opportunity, made costly mistakes in all three phases and lost to the Washington Redskins in FedExField, 28-14, their first opening-day defeat since 2007. The loss ended the Giants' six-game winning streak against the Redskins and their five-game streak in Washington.

Tim Hightower rushed for one touchdown, Rex Grossman threw scoring passes to Anthony Armstrong and Jabar Gaffney and rookie Ryan Kerrigan returned an interception for a Washington's touchdowns.

Eli Manning and Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for touchdowns for the Giants in the first half. But Manning threw the pick that turned into Kerrigan's game-winning touchdown, a Lawrence Tynes field goal attempt was blocked and, the Giants rushed for only 75 yards – 62 yards less than their 2010 average – and they succeeded on one of 10 third-down chances.

The Giants' disappointment was exasperated by playing poorly on the 10th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks, which were remembered in a poignant pregame ceremony.

GAME 2

RAMS AT GIANTS

SEPT. 19, 2011

GIANTS 28, RAMS 16

The Giants' first home Monday night game in eight years was one to celebrate. Opportunistic on both offense and defense, the Giants took charge with two second quarter touchdowns and earned a 28-16 victory over the St. Louis Rams in MetLife Stadium that raised their record to 1-1.

Eli Manning threw touchdown passes to Hakeem Nicks and Domenik Hixon, Brandon Jacobs rushed for a score and Michael Boley picked up a fumble and returned it 65 yards for another touchdown.

This was the time the Giants hosted a Monday night game since Sept. 15, 2003, when they lost to the Dallas Cowboys in overtime, 35-32. It was their first home Monday night victory since Oct. 18, 1999, when they beat Dallas, 13-10.

St. Louis, which fell to 0-2, scored on a touchdown pass from Sam Bradford to Danario Alexander and three Josh Brown field goals. The Rams traveled inside the Giants' 20-yard line four times, but settled for field goals on three occasions.

GAME 3

GIANTS AT EAGLES

SEPT. 25, 2011
GIANTS 29, EAGLES 16

The Giants set aside their numerous injuries, their six-game losing to the Eagles and the hype that had made their opponents so popular to the football public and earned a complete and rewarding victory 29-16 road victory over the Philadelphia Eagles.

Eli Manning completed 16 of 23 passes for 254 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions and his 145.7 passer rating was his highest ever in a full game. Victor Cruz stepped in for the inactive Mario Manningham and scored his first two NFL touchdowns on receptions of 74 and 28 yards (he had three catches for 110 yards). Ahmad Bradshaw had team-high totals of 86 rushing yards and five catches, one the 18-yard touchdown that clinched the victory and sent the fans scurrying from their seats. Brandon Jacobs had a 40-yard touchdown catch.

Aaron Ross intercepted two passes and Kenny Phillips had a third pick. Phillips, Jason Pierre-Paul and rookie Jacob Williams had nine tackles apiece (all of Williams' stops were solo). Pierre-Paul had two sacks. Michael Boley made a huge tackle to stop an Eagles bid on fourth down. Safety Deon Grant, who played most of the game in place of middle linebacker Greg Jones, had seven tackles (six solo).

The game was a three-act play. Acts 1 and 3 belonged to the Giants, who outscored the Eagles 14-0 in the first quarter and 15-0 in the fourth to win when trailing after three quarters for the first time since last Nov. 28 vs. Jacksonville. The second act was controlled by Philadelphia, which shutout the Giants, 16-0, in the second and third quarters. LeSean McCoy ran for Philly's only touchdown and rookie Alex Henery kicked three field goals.

GIANTS AT CARDINALS

OCT. 2, 2011

GIANTS 31, CARDINALS 27

The Giants certainly feel at home in University of Phoenix Stadium. They used an exhilarating fourth-quarter to erase a late 10-point deficit and defeat the Cardinals, 31-27, their third victory in as many visits to the Cardinals' home field, one of them the thriller in Super Bowl XLII. This time, Eli Manning threw two touchdown passes in 58 seconds, including the game-winning 29-yarder to Hakeem Nicks with 2:39 left, to give the Giants their third consecutive victory.

The 10-point fourth-quarter deficit was the largest they overcame in a victory since Sept. 17, 2006, when they trailed in Philadelphia, 24-7, but won in overtime, 30-24. It was the largest fourth-quarter deficit they overcame in a victory without an overtime since Oct. 23, 2005, when they rallied from a 23-10 deficit to defeat Denver in Giants Stadium, 24-23.

Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs each rushed for a touchdown, Manning threw scoring passes to Jake Ballard and Nicks and Lawrence Tynes kicked a field goal for the Giants. Manning completed 27 of 40 passes for 321 yards and the two scores. On the two late touchdown drives, he was seven-for-eight for 126 yards.

Beanie Wells scored three touchdowns on runs that totaled four yards and Jay Feely kicked two field goals for the Cardinals.

SEAHAWKS AT GIANTS

OCT. 9, 2011

SEAHAWKS 36, GIANTS 25

The Giants tried living on the edge for the third week in a row, but slipped into the abyss.

Poised to earn their third fourth-quarter comeback victory in as many weeks, the Giants twice traveled inside the Seattle 15-yard line twice in the final six minutes, but committed two costly penalties, scored only three points and threw an interception that ricocheted off their receiver's hands and was returned 94 yards for the clinching touchdown. That ended a game in which the Giants had five turnovers, gave up a safety, averaged 2.8 yards a carry, surrendered 424 yards to a team that was ranked 32nd and last in the NFL in total offense and fell to the Seahawks, 36-25.

In their previous two games, they had come from behind in the fourth quarter to win at Philadelphia and Arizona. This time they led twice in the fourth, 22-19 and 25-22. But they committed two fourth-quarter turnovers and left rookie wide receiver Doug Baldwin uncovered on the game-winning 27-yard touchdown pass.

Eli Manning threw for a career-high 420 yards and three touchdowns while completing 24 of 39 passes. But he also threw three interceptions and lost a fumble. Victor Cruz had eight catches for 161 yards, including a spectacular 68-yard touchdown. But he was also the central figure on two crippling fourth-quarter turnovers, a fumble that tipped off his hands and was returned for a touchdown. Manning also threw touchdown passes of 12 yards to Jake Ballard and 19 yards to Hakeem Nicks and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 26-yard field goal for the Giants.

Seattle scored on Tarvaris Jackson's 11-yard touchdown pass to Ben Obomanu, Charlie Whitehurst's go-ahead scoring pass to Doug Baldwin, Marshawn Lynch's one-yard run, a safety when Anthony Hargrove tackle D.J. Ware in the end zone and Steven Hauschka tied goals of 51 and 43 yards and Brandon Browner's 94-yard interception return with just 1:08 remaining.

BILLS AT GIANTS

GIANTS 27, BILLS 24

The Giants defeated Buffalo, 27-24, to continue a long-standing tradition of success in the week prior to their regular season bye. They are 18-5 in such games, tying Dallas for the NFL's best record.

Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for a season-high 104 yards and scored three one-yard touchdowns and Corey Webster intercepted two passes as the Giants overcame an early deficit to defeat the Bills.

Lawrence Tynes scored the game-winning points on a 23-yard field goal with 1:32 remaining. But Webster and Bradshaw both made huge contributions to help set up the score. Webster intercepted Buffalo quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick for the second time at the Giants' four-yard line with the score tied and only 4:02 remaining. Stevie Johnson's facemask penalty gave the Giants possession at the 19.

Bradshaw opened the ensuing drive with an 11-yard run. Two plays later, he went around left end for a 30-yard gain to the Buffalo 37-yard line. Two pass interference penalties on Drayton Florence and two more Bradshaw runs totaling 10 yards helped move the ball to the Bills' one-yard line. But Bradshaw lost four yards and Eli Manning threw an incompleteness, so Tynes came on to kick the field goal.

While the Giants scored short touchdowns, Buffalo used big plays for its points. Fred Jackson ran 80 yards for one touchdown and Ryan Fitzpatrick threw a touchdown pass to Naaman Roosevelt that covered 60 yards. He also threw a nine-yarder to Stevie Johnson in the fourth quarter. Rian Lindell kicked a 49-yard field goal for the Bills.

DOLPHINS AT GIANTS

OCT. 30, 2011

GIANTS 20, DOLPHINS 17

The Giants rallied from deficits of 11 points in the first half and seven points in the fourth quarter to defeat the winless Miami Dolphins in MetLife Stadium, 20-17. Victor Cruz scored the game-winning touchdown on a 25-yard pass from Eli Manning with 5:58 remaining. Cruz caught Manning's pass at the five-yard line, slipped out of the grasp of former Giant Will Allen and stepped into the end zone for the game-winning points. It was the Giants' only lead of the game.

The Giants improved to 5-2 for the seventh time in Tom Coughlin's first eight seasons as head coach (they were 6-1 in 2008).

Manning was one of the Giants' stars as he completed 31 of 45 passes for 349 yards, two touchdowns (including one to Mario Manningham) and no interceptions. The Giants, who did not commit a turnover for the second straight game, had to take to the air for success, because their rushing attack generated only 58 yards.

The defense surrendered big plays and touchdowns on each of Miami's first two possessions — one-yard runs by running back Steve Slaton and quarterback Matt Moore — but only a field goal the rest of the way. The Giants allowed a season-low 246 yards, including 94 in the second half. Miami's last five possessions ended with four punts and an interception.

GIANTS AT PATRIOTS

NOV. 6, 2011

GIANTS 24, PATRIOTS 20

In a game with an eerily similar conclusion to the finishes of Super Bowls XLII and XLVI, Eli Manning threw two touchdown passes in the final 3:03, including the one-yard game-winning to Jake Ballard with just 15 seconds left, as the Giants defeated the Patriots, 24-20, three months before the teams met in the Super Bowl.

The teams traded the lead three times in the fourth quarter, just as they did in their first Super Bowl clash. In that game, Giants' ruined New England's perfect season. This time, they ended the Patriots' 20-game regular season home winning streak.

New England took a three-point lead on Tom Brady's 14-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ron Gronkowski with 1:36 remaining. Manning and the Giants responded with an 80-yard drive that was highlighted by Ballard's terrific 28-yard reception on third-and-10. Four plays and a pass interference penalty later, Manning found Ballard for the winning touchdown.

Manning completed 20 of 39 passes for 250 yards – 179 in the decisive second half.

Neither team scored a point in the first half and the third quarter ended with the Giants holding a 10-3 lead. The Patriots took their first lead at 13-10 with 7:08 remaining. Manning led the Giants on an eight-play, 85-yard drive that was aided by a 35-yard pass interference penalty on Kyle Arrington. It ended when Manning floated a perfect 10-yard touchdown pass to Mario Manningham on third-and-five for a 17-13 lead, a precursor to the thrilling finish.

GAME 9

GIANTS AT 49ERS

NOV. 13, 2011

49ERS 27, GIANTS 20

The Giants learned they couldn't pull fourth-quarter magic out of their helmets every week.

After Eli Manning-led late rallies produced victories in their previous three games, the Giants tried duplicating the blueprint against the 49ers in Candlestick Park. They sliced a 14-point deficit in half with 8½ minutes remaining and got the ball back with 6:35 left. When they converted a fourth-and-six on an 18-yard pass to Mario Manningham, the Giants seemed poised for another memorable finish.

But they couldn't quite pull it off. An open Manningham couldn't get to Manning's pass in the end zone, which was their best chance to tie the score. They did convert another fourth down, on a 10-yard pass to Victor Cruz. But when they went to the well the third time it came up dry. Manning's pass on fourth-and-two was batted down by defensive end Justin Smith with 34 seconds left and the Giants fell, 27-20, in what was a preview of the NFC Championship Game.

The Giants outgained San Francisco, 395-305 and owned the ball for nine more minutes (34:37-25:23). They limited a team averaging 137.6 rushing yards a game to just 77.

Alex Smith threw a 31-yard touchdown pass to Vernon Davis, Kendall Hunter scored on a 17-yard run and David Akers kicked field goals of 36, 52, 39 and 28 yards for the 49ers.

The Giants scored on Manning touchdown passes of 13 yards to Manningham in the third quarter and 32 yards to Hakeem Nicks in the fourth, and Lawrence Tynes field goals of 23 and 25 yards. Manning completed his first 10 passes of the game and finished 26-for-40 for 311 yards.

GAME 10

EAGLES AT GIANTS

NOV. 20, 2011
EAGLES 17, GIANTS 10

When the Giants picked up a first down at the Philadelphia Eagles' 21-yard line with 1:25 remaining Sunday night, it seemed they would add to their list of late comeback victories.

But it was not to be. Instead, the Giants got another lesson that waiting until the game's final few minutes to play at a high level is risky business. Eli Manning was sacked by Jason Babin and fumbled. The ball was recovered by Derek Landri, effectively dooming the Giants to their second straight loss.

The Giants posted season-low totals of 278 total yards and 12 first downs and rushed for only 29 yards, their lowest total since Nov. 20, 2006 at Jacksonville. With Ahmad Bradshaw sidelined with a fractured bone in his foot, Brandon Jacobs led the Giants with 21 yards.

The Giants did have a few positive performances. Victor Cruz caught six passes for 128 yards and their only touchdown, on a 24-yard pass from Manning in the fourth quarter. First-round draft choice Prince Amukamara made his NFL debut with five tackles and an interception. Rookie Mark Herzlich started at middle linebacker and had four solo tackles.

The Eagles scored on Alex Henery's field goal and Vince Young touchdown passes of 11 yards to Steve Smith and eight yards to Riley Cooper. The latter occurred with 2:45 remaining and ended an 80-yard drive on which the Eagles owned the ball for 18 plays and 8:51. They converted all six of their third down opportunities in the series, including the touchdown.

GIANTS AT SAINTS

SAINTS 49, GIANTS 24

The Giants lost their third consecutive game because they couldn't slow down New Orleans' offense. The Saints scored touchdowns on seven of 11 offensive possessions. They gained 577 yards, the second-highest total allowed by the Giants in their 87-year history. The Chicago Bears gained 682 yards on Nov. 14, 1943.

Drew Brees completed 24 of 38 passes for 363 yards and four touchdowns, two apiece to Jimmy Graham and Lance Moore. Brees spread the ball around; five different receivers had at least three catches, but Graham, Devery Henderson and Moore tied for the team lead with five. Brees was not sacked.

That same balance carried over to the run game. New Orleans rushed for 205 yards as Mark Ingram, Pierre Thomas and Darren Sproles each ran for at least 54 yards. Ingram, Thomas and Brees had rushing touchdowns.

Eli Manning completed 33 of 47 passes – including a Giants record 21 in a row – for 406 yards and two touchdowns to Victor Cruz. But he fell to 0-2 in his hometown and in the stadium where he watched so many games in his youth. Brandon Jacobs scored on an eight-run and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 42-yard field goal for the Giants.

PACKERS AT GIANTS

DEC. 4, 2011

PACKERS 38, GIANTS 35

The Giants put up a tremendous fight, but in the end they learned that you can't take out a champion unless you knock him down and don't let him regain his feet.

With their home crowd roaring, the Giants tied the score with a Hakeem Nicks touchdown and D.J. Ware's two-point conversion with 58 seconds remaining. But that was more than enough time for Aaron Rodgers and the Packers, who marched down the field and won the game, 38-35, on Mason Crosby's 31-yard field goal as time expired. It was the Giants' fourth consecutive loss.

The Giants scored on Eli Manning touchdown passes of 67 yards to Travis Beckum, four and two yards to Nicks, Brandon Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run and two Lawrence Tynes field goal, one a 50-yarder.

Rodgers threw four touchdown passes: 12 yards to Jermichael Finley, 13 and seven yards to Donald Driver and 20 yards to Greg Jennings. The Packers also got a 38-yard interception return for a touchdown by Clay Matthews.

The final series began with Rodgers throwing a 24-yard pass to the right side for Finley. He followed immediately with a 27-yarder to Jordy Nelson, who got behind reserve cornerback Will Blackmon. That put Green Bay on the Giants' 29-yard line with 44 seconds left. After the Packers lost a yard, Rodgers threw a short pass that Jennings turned into a 18-yard gain to the 12. Green Bay ran the clock down to three seconds and summoned Crosby, who calmly kicked the game-winner.

GIANTS AT COWBOYS

GIANTS 37, COWBOYS 34

For the sixth time this season — a franchise record — Eli Manning led the Giants to a victory in a game in which they trailed or were tied in the fourth quarter. He orchestrated the latest comeback in Cowboys Stadium, where they Giants are 3-0 after scoring two touchdowns in the final 3:14 to defeat Dallas, 37-34, in a game that featured eight lead changes. Brandon Jacobs scored the game-winner on a one-yard run with 46 seconds left.

The victory was preserved when Jason Pierre-Paul blocked Dan Bailey's 47-yard field goal attempt with one second left. The Giants stopped their four-game losing streak.

The Giants trailed, 34-22, after a wide-open Dez Bryant caught Tony Romo's fourth touchdown pass with 5:41 remaining.

Manning led the Giants on an eight-play, 80-yard drive that ended with an eight-yard touchdown pass to Jake Ballard, which cut the deficit to 34-29. After Dallas went three-and-out, the Giants took possession at their own 42 with 2:12 remaining.

The game-winning drive began with a 21-yard pass to Ballard. After the two-minute warning, Manning threw to Victor Cruz for nine yards. The Cowboys were twice penalized five yards, the second a hold on former Giant Frank Walker that gave the Giants a first down at the Dallas 19 with 1:21 left. Another throw to Ballard gained 18 yards. Two plays later, Jacobs scored the game-winner, which was also his 56th career rushing touchdown, breaking Tiki Barber's franchise record.

On the last two drives, Manning completed eight of 11 passes 102 yards and a touchdown.

GAME 14

REDSKINS AT GIANTS

DEC. 18, 2011

REDSKINS 23, GIANTS 10

The Giants played one of their poorest games of the season in losing to Washington, 23-10, in MetLife Stadium.

They didn't score a touchdown until 33 seconds remained in the game. The Giants threw three interceptions. Their defense picked off two passes in the first quarter and punted after each of them. Washington converted eight of 15 third down opportunities, rushed for 123 yards and owned the ball for 10 more minutes (35:25).

The Redskins scored on Rex Grossman's 20-yard touchdown pass to Santana Moss, Darrel Young's six-yard run and Graham Gano field goals of 36, 43 and 25 yards. Washington swept its season series with the Giants for the first time since 1999.

Lawrence Tynes' 40-yard field goal was the only scoring for the Giants until Ahmad Bradshaw crossed the goal line from three yards out in the final minute. Eli Manning completed 23 of 40 passes for 257 yards, but threw those three picks.

The Giants thought they had a touchdown in the fourth quarter on a Manning pass to D.J. Ware, but it was taken off the board after a replay review, with a fourth down at the two-yard line. David Deihl's holding penalty sent them back to the 12 and Manning was sacked for a 13-yard loss by Ryan Kerrigan, putting the Giants in dire straits with 8:53 remaining.

GAME 15

GIANTS AT JETS

DEC. 24, 2011
GIANTS 29, JETS 14

Talk never seemed so cheap and playing a game was never as sweet as it was for the Giants the day before Christmas in MetLife Stadium.

After a week listening to the Jets sling verbal barbs in their direction — and arriving at the stadium to find the Super Bowl logos painted outside their locker room had been covered with a black curtain by the home-team Jets — the Giants answered in the best possible fashion. They took the lead on a franchise-record 99-yard touchdown pass to Victor Cruz in the second quarter and never relinquished it in delivering a 29-14 decision over the Jets.

This game belonged to the Giants' defense. The Jets ran 89 plays and held the ball for 36:06, 14 minutes longer than the Giants. But the Jets averaged only 3.7 yards per play and managed only two touchdowns in 16 offensive possessions.

In addition to the Cruz's record touchdown, the Giants scored on a pair of rushing touchdowns by Ahmad Bradshaw, two Lawrence Tynes' field goals and a safety when Chris Canty sacked Mark Sanchez in the end zone.

The Jets got Sanchez's five-yard touchdown pass to Josh Baker on their first offensive series and the quarterback's one-yard run in the fourth quarter.

The game — and the season — turned on an event that hadn't previously occurred in the 87-year history of the franchise — a 99-yard play. This one was a pass from Manning to Cruz.

On third-and-10 from the Giants' one, Manning threw to the right side for Cruz, who caught the ball at the 11. Cruz eluded tackle attempts by Antonio Cromartie and Kyle Wilson and took off down the sideline. Safety Eric Smith lunged at him near midfield, but Cruz skipped away from him and quickly covered the rest of the ground to the end zone for a 10-7 lead with 2:12 remaining in the first half.

GAME 16

COWBOYS AT GIANTS

JAN. 1, 2012
GIANTS 31, COWBOYS 14

With their season, division title and playoff aspirations down to a one-game, do-or-die situation Sunday night, the Giants responded with an impressive and memorable victory. They jumped out to a 21-point lead in the first half and went on to defeat Dallas, 31-14, in MetLife Stadium.

The Giants' second-straight victory to end the season gave them the NFC East championship with a 9-7 record, one game better than the Cowboys, who they beat twice in the last four games. They earned their first division title and first postseason berth since 2008.

The Giants rode to the title on the same path that had brought them to so many victories this season — Eli Manning throwing passes and Victor Cruz catching them. Manning completed 24 of 33 passes for 346 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions, a passer rating of 136.7. Cruz caught six of them for a career-high 178 yards, a 29.7-yard average.

Manning threw touchdown passes of 74 yards to Cruz, 10 yards to Ahmad Bradshaw and four yards to Hakeem Nicks. Bradshaw also scored on a five-yard run and Tynes kicked a 28-yard field goal.

Dallas scored on Tony Romo touchdown passes of 34 and five yards to Laurent Robinson in the second half. The Giants sacked Romo six times, intercepted him once and stopped him on a quarterback sneak on a fourth down early in the fourth quarter.

WILDCARD PLAYOFF

FALCONS AT GIANTS

JAN. 8, 2012
GIANTS 24, FALCONS 2

Using a smothering defense and an opportunistic, big-play offense, the Giants routed the Atlanta Falcons, 24-2, in an NFC Wild Card Game. It was the Giants' first postseason victory since Super Bowl XLII and their first home playoff win since the 2000 NFC Championship Game triumph over Minnesota.

Eli Manning set a career postseason high with three touchdown passes – four and 72 yards to Hakeem Nicks and 27 yards to Mario Manningham. The Giants also got a 22-yard field goal from Lawrence Tynes. Manning completed 23 of 32 passes for 277 yards. Brandon Jacobs ran for a career postseason high 92 yards and Ahmad Bradshaw added 63 as the Giants ran for 172 yards, 50 more than their previous 2011 high total.

As good as the offense was, the defense was even more dominant. The unit did not allow a point – the Falcons' only score, obviously, was on a safety. Atlanta rushed for just 64 yards, including 41 on 15 carries by Michael Turner, who ran for 1,340 yards in the regular season. The Giants stopped the Falcons on 10 of 14 third down attempts and all three of their fourth-down conversion tries, including a pair of fourth-and-one quarterback sneaks by Matt Ryan.

The game began poorly for the Giants. They punted on each of their first three possessions. Their fourth series – which began after the Giants stopped Ryan on fourth down – was worse. Manning was being tackled in the end zone by safety James Sanders when he threw the ball to the right side. The officials ruled that no receiver was in the vicinity and penalized Manning for intentional grounding – a safety in the end zone.

But Nicks' short touchdown reception gave the Giants a 7-2 halftime lead and the home team outscored Atlanta in the second half, 17-0.

GIANTS AT PACKERS

JAN. 15, 2012
GIANTS 37, PACKERS 20

Repeating a feat they accomplished four years earlier, the Giants traveled to Wisconsin in January and stunned a higher-seeded Green Bay Packers team in the playoffs. The fourth-seeded Giants rode another terrific defensive effort and three Eli Manning touchdown passes to defeat the top-seeded, 15-1, defending Super Bowl Champion Packers, 37-20, an NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

One of Manning's touchdown passes was a Hail Mary to Hakeem Nicks on the final play of the second quarter. The defense again played superbly, holding a Packers team that had averaged 40.1 points at home to half its average and forcing four turnovers.

Manning completed 21 of 33 passes for a career playoff record 330 yards and three touchdowns — 66 and 37 yards to Nicks and four yards to Mario Manningham. Brandon Jacobs scored on a 14-yard run and Lawrence Tynes kicked field goals of 31, 23 and 35 yards.

The defense sacked Aaron Rodgers four times — two apiece by Osi Umenyiora and Michael Boley — recovered three fumbles and got a game-clinching interception from Deon Grant. Boley led the way with nine tackles (eight solo), and Antrel Rolle added eight unassisted stops.

The Packers scored on Rodgers touchdown passes of eight yards to fullback John Kuhn and 16 yards to wide receiver Donald Driver, plus Mason Crosby field goals of 47 and 35 yards.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

JAN. 22, 2012

GIANTS 20, 49ERS 17 (OT)

For the second time in five seasons, the Giants have advanced to the Super Bowl with a thrilling overtime victory on the road in the conference title game. In rainy and windy Candlestick Park, Lawrence Tynes kicked a 31-yard field goal with 7:54 elapsed in the extra period to give the Giants a 20-17 victory over the San Francisco 49ers to put the Giants in Super Bowl XLVI against New England.

The game-winning kick was set up by an overtime takeaway when Devin Thomas recovered a Kyle Williams fumble on a punt return that was forced by Jacquian Williams.

The Giants had many big-time contributors. Despite being sacked six times, Eli Manning threw for 316 yards and two touchdowns while setting Giants postseason records with 58 passes and 32 completions. He threw touchdown passes to Mario Manningham and Bear Pascoe, his first as a professional. Tynes kick another field goal, also from 31 yards. Victor Cruz had 10 receptions for 142 yards, including eight for 125 in the first half. Steve Weatherford had a 40.6-yard net average on a franchise postseason record 12 punts. Ahmad Bradshaw totaled 126 yards from scrimmage, including 74 on the ground. Chase Blackburn, unemployed until the week after Thanksgiving, had a team-high seven tackles (five solo). Jason Pierre-Paul had six tackles (five solo), a half-sack and deflected a pass.

The 49ers scored on Alex Smith touchdown passes of 73 and 28 yards to tight end Vernon Davis and David Akers' 25-yard field goal.

Manningham's touchdown – on a third-and-15 – gave the Giants a 17-14 lead with 8:34 remaining in the fourth quarter. On the play, Manningham beat cornerback Tramaine Brock, who was substituting for the injured Tarrell Brown.

Akers' final field goal with 5:39 remaining tied the score and created the deadlock that wasn't broken until Tynes' overtime kick.

SUPER BOWL XLVI

GIANTS AT PATRIOTS

FEB. 5, 2012

GIANTS 21, PATRIOTS 17

It was a magnificent case of Deja Blue.

None one does fourth-quarter comebacks like Eli Manning and in the season's final game he executed one for the ages on football's grandest stage, the Super Bowl — again. The drive gained momentum with a miracle catch by a Giants wide receiver — again. And the Giants scored the winning touchdown in the final minute of the game to defeat the New England Patriots — again.

Yes, history happily repeated itself for the Giants in Super Bowl XLVI. Ahmad Bradshaw's scored on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining in the game and the defense withstood one final assault from Tom Brady as the Giants defeated the Patriots, 21-17, in Lucas Oil Stadium.

The Giants won their fourth Super Bowl and eighth championship in franchise history in a game that was eerily similar to their victory over the same opponent in Super Bowl XLII four years earlier.

Manning, who completed his first nine passes and 30 of 40 overall for 296 yards and a touchdown to win his second Pete Rozelle Trophy as the game's Most Valuable Player. His biggest throw was a pinpoint 38-yarder to Mario Manningham that began the 88-yard, nine-play game-winning drive that was completed in 2:49.

In addition to Bradshaw's touchdown, the Giants scored on Manning's two-yard touchdown pass to Victor Cruz, Lawrence Tynes field goals of 38 and 33 yards and a safety when Brady was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone.

New England's points came on Brady touchdown passes of four yards to Danny Woodhead and 12 yards to Aaron Hernandez and Steve Gostkowski's 29-yard field goal.

PANTHERS 20, GIANTS 10

Aug. 13, 2011

Bank of America Stadium

The 2011 preseason opener was not a game the Giants savored. They did not score an offensive touchdown, gave up critical big plays on defense and missed three field goal attempts (one a 56-yarder and the last a 44-yard try that was blocked). The Giants' lone touchdown was scored by linebacker Michael Boley, who returned an interception 56 yards for a touchdown on the game's first series. Lawrence Tynes' 37-yard field goal late in the second quarter was the only other score for the Giants, who were shutout in the second half. Carolina scored on a pair of touchdown passes – an 18-yarder from Jimmy Clausen to Greg Olsen in the first quarter and a 35-yarder from Derek Anderson to Kealohe Pilares in the fourth – and two Olindo Mare field goals. Including Boley's touchdown, the starting defense played four series in the first quarter and surrendered 90 yards, four first downs and Clausen's touchdown pass. The first unit prevented Carolina from converting any of its four third down opportunities in the quarter. Jason Pierre-Paul had two sacks. The Eli Manning-led starting offense played the first five series for a total of 18 plays. The unit gained 79 yards, but its possessions ended with Tynes' slightly short 56-yard try and four punts.

GIANTS 41, BEARS 13

MetLife Stadium

If Tom Coughlin handed out game balls for preseason victories, he have had to place a special order to award everyone who made big plays or significant contributions in the Giants' 41-13 demolition of the Chicago Bears in MetLife Stadium. In no special order, the Giants got touchdown runs from Brandon Jacobs, D.J. Ware and rookie Da'Rel Scott (a 97-yarder that would have been the longest in franchise history had it occurred in the regular season); terrific catches by Domenik Hixon for a touchdown and Victor Cruz on a fourth down to keep a scoring drive alive; two touchdown passes by David Carr; a blocked punt by rookie linebacker Greg Jones that set up a touchdown; Devin Thomas returning three kickoffs for a 46.0-yard average, including a 73-yarder; two goal line stands that helped keep the Bears out of the end zone until 24 seconds remained; an interception by rookie linebacker Mark Herzlich; and no sacks allowed on 27 pass attempts. Jacobs averaged 8.0 yards a carry, tight end Daniel Coats also caught a touchdown pass (he had none in 57 career regular season games), fill-in Rhys Lloyd kicked two field goals and five extra points, rookie linebacker Spencer Paysinger led the team with seven tackles (four solo) and cornerback Michael Coe had a team-high six unassisted stops. It would have been a near-perfect night had starting cornerback Terrell Thomas not torn a knee ligament late in the first half. The injury sidelined him for the entire season.

JETS 17, GIANTS 3

MetLife Stadium

The inaugural MetLife Bowl in MetLife Stadium was postponed two days because of Hurricane Irene. When it was finally played, it provided a perfect example of why football statistics can be misleading. The Giants had 94 more total yards and six more first downs than their opponents. They had the game's leading rusher and leading receiver and their starting quarterback completed two more passes than the three Jets signal-callers combined. Yet the Giants lost, 17-3, because they made too many mistakes and squandered too many opportunities, including two second-half drives inside the Jets' 20-yard line that yielded no points. The game's storyline was written in the first two quarters, when the Giants dominated statistically with advantages of 224-73 in total yards and 13-4 in first downs – but went into locker room at halftime trailing, 7-3. The Giants' first possession ended when Eli Manning, under a fierce rush, threw a pass to Victor Cruz that was intercepted by Jim Leonhard at the Jets' 18. In the second quarter, Manning's pass to Ahmad Bradshaw came up short and was picked off by David Harris. Manning completed 15 of 30 passes for 200 yards, but led just one scoring drive, which ended with Rhys Lloyd's second-quarter field goal.

GIANTS 18, PATRIOTS 17

Gillette Stadium

Sept. 1, 2011

The only similarity between the Giants who defeated the Patriots in the preseason finale and the team that played in the regular season was the uniforms. The Giants' 22 starters, as well some key reserves, did not suit up as the Giants overcame a 14-point deficit at the end of the third quarter to defeat New England, 18-17, in Gillette Stadium. Tom Coughlin did not want to put his most valuable players on the field just 72 hours after they played the majority of the game against the Jets – a contest that was postponed 48 hours because of Hurricane Irene. So stalwarts like Eli Manning, Ahmad Bradshaw, Hakeem Nicks, Chris Snee, Justin Tuck, Chris Canty, Jonathan Goff, Corey Webster and Antrel Rolle were part of a 28-man contingent that either didn't make the trip or never left the sideline. The starting offense included quarterback David Carr and running back Andre Brown. The first-team defense included Ayanga Okpokowuruk, Phillip Dillard and Tyler Sash. The Giants scored fourth-quarter touchdowns on a 65-yard run on a fake punt by rookie Da'Rel Scott, an 11-yard fumble return by safety Derrick Martin (and a two-point conversion pass from Ryan Perrilloux to Jerrel Jernigan). Rhys Lloyd kicked a 48-yard field goal and missed 49 and 48-yard attempts.

HISTORY

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to lower their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the Stock Market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine-degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "Sneakers Game." With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever were a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosie Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to new powers like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s, the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program. By 1986 the championship pieces fit together and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February, 1991, less than a month after winning their second Super Bowl, it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim

WHY GIANTS? HOW THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS GOT ITS NAME

Owner Tim Mara "borrowed" the Giants' name from the city's Major League Baseball team of the same name. This was not unusual among early day pro football franchises. At one time or another there were NFL franchises named the New York Yankees, Brooklyn Dodgers, Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds, and Detroit Tigers.

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was hired as coach before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach. In the first season under Fassel's leadership, the Giants captured the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The Giants fell short of a playoff berth in 1998 after overcoming a 3-7 start to finish with an 8-8 record. The Giants were 7-9 in 2000.

In 2000, the Giants returned to the upper echelon of the NFL. They won the NFC East title and earned home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 12-4 regular season record. The Giants then beat Philadelphia in the divisional playoffs and routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game to advance to the Super Bowl for the third time. But they failed to win the game for the first time, falling to the Baltimore Ravens.

The Giants slipped to 7-9 in 2001, losing their last two games to fall out of playoff contention. In 2002, the Giants won their final four regular season games, including an overtime thriller in the regular season finale against Philadelphia, to clinch a wild card playoff berth. In the third period of the postseason game in San Francisco, the Giants led the 49ers, 38-14. But San Francisco rallied for a 39-38 victory.

Because of their impressive stretch run, the Giants began the 2003 season with high hopes. At midseason, they were in the thick of the playoff race with a 4-4 record. But a second-half collapse against Atlanta set the tone for an eight-game, season-ending losing streak. With two games remaining, the Giants announced that Fassel would not return. On Jan. 6, 2004, Tom Coughlin, a highly-successful head coach at Boston College and with the Jacksonville Jaguars, and a former Giants assistant, was hired as the 16th head coach in Giants history.

In the 2004 NFL Draft, the Giants traded for quarterback Eli Manning, who started the final seven games of his rookie season. The Giants were 6-10 in Coughlin's first year at the helm. In 2005, Manning started every game and the Giants were 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000. The first-place finish was an NFL-record 21st in franchise history. Five Giants were elected to the Pro Bowl, the team's largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven. The group was led by running back Tiki Barber, who was second in the NFL in rushing with a team-record 1,860 yards. Barber's 2,390 total yards were the second-highest total in league history. The Giants finished 8-8 in 2006, but made the playoffs as a wild card.

The 2007 season began inauspiciously, with losses in the first two games, but ended as one of the greatest seasons in Giants history. The Giants clinched an NFC wild card postseason berth with a victory in Buffalo in their 15th game. The following week, they narrowly lost to the undefeated New England Patriots in the regular season finale to finish 10-6. What followed was one of the greatest postseason runs in NFL history, one that culminated with an upset of the Patriots in an exhilarating Super Bowl XLII. Along the way, the Giants set an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from their home stadium.

The Giants, seeded fifth in the conference, opened postseason play with a 24-14 Wild Card victory at Tampa Bay. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants. The following week, the Giants avenged two regular season defeats with a 21-17 triumph over the Cowboys in Dallas in a divisional playoff. Amani Toomer caught two touchdown passes, Jacobs scored on a short run and the defense limited the high-scoring Cowboys to three second-half points.

The Giants captured the conference title with a thrilling 23-20 overtime triumph over the Green Bay Packers in frigid Lambeau Field. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with a wind-chill factor of minus-23, making it the coldest game in Giants history. Lawrence Tynes — who missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final play of regulation — kicked a 47-yard field goal 2:35 into overtime for the victory. The field goal was set up by Corey Webster's interception of the last pass of Brett Favre's career. Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw scored touchdowns for the Giants and Tynes added field goals of 29 and 37 yards.

dogs to a New England team that was 18-0 and was bidding to conclude the second perfect season in NFL history. But it was the Giants who enjoyed a perfect finish. Trailing, 7-3, entering the fourth quarter, they took their first lead of the game on Manning's five-yard touchdown pass to David Tyree. The score was set up by a 45-yard catch-and-run by rookie tight end Kevin Boss. New England took a 14-10 lead on a six-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Randy Moss with just 2:42 remaining.

The Giants took possession at their own 17 with 2:39 left in the game and Manning proceeded to lead them on one of the great drives in NFL postseason history. The highlight of the 12-play, 83-yard march occurred on third-and-five form the Giants' 44. Manning somehow eluded the grasp of the rushing Patriots line and threw downfield for Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet for a miracle 32-yard gain. Steve Smith picked up a critical first down before Manning threw the game-winning 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with just 35 seconds remaining. The Giants stopped a last desperate New England possession won win their third Super Bowl in one of the biggest upsets in the game's history.

In 2011, the Giants again won the Super Bowl under very similar circumstances, using a last-minute touchdown to defeat New England, 21-17, in Super Bowl XLVI in Indianapolis. Once again, the Giants shocked the football public by winning the Vince Lombardi. After a home loss to Washington on Dec. 18, their record was 7-7. A loss in either of their final two regular season games would have eliminated them from the playoffs. But they defeated the Jets, 29-14, as the visiting team before routing Dallas on New Year's Night, 31-14, to clinch the NFC East title.

Seeded fourth, the Giants opened the postseason with their third consecutive convincing victory in MetLife Stadium, a 24-2 triumph over the Atlanta Falcons in an NFC Wild Card Game. The following week, Manning threw for 330 yards and three touchdowns, including a Hail Mary to Hakeem Nicks on the final play of the first half, and the Giants crushed the top-seeded and defending champion Green Bay Packers, 37-20, in Lambeau Field. That advanced the Giants to the NFC Championship Game in San Francisco, where they had lost a regular season game two months earlier. This time, Devin Thomas recovered a fumble on a punt return that was forced by Jacquian Williams that led to Tynes' game-winning 31-yard field goal with 7:54 elapsed in overtime and a 20-17 Giants victory.

In the Super Bowl, the Giants jumped ahead, 9-0, before the Patriots scored 17 consecutive points. Two third-quarter field goals by Tynes lifted them to within 17-15. The Giants trailed by that score when they took possession at their own 12-yard line with 3:46 remaining. Manning then reprised the fourth-quarter magic he had used to win the previous Super Bowl and seven games in the 2011 season. He immediately threw a perfect strike down the left sideline to Mario Manningham for a 38-yard gain. He completed five of six passes on the drive and 10 of 14 in the decisive quarter. Ahmad Bradshaw scored the game-winning touchdown by backing into the end zone on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining. The defense withstood one last Patriots rally to secure the Giants' second Super Bowl victory in five seasons and fourth overall.

1925

Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds, losing to the Frankford Yellow Jackets, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

1926

Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927

Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the 13-game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and allowed only 20 points all year.

1928

After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929

Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit

1930

For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931

After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most of $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932

Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a hard-fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass-reception champion with 21 catches.

1933

The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

1934

In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27-point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

1935

After beginning the season with a 4-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit

1936

The initial NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, marking only the third time in the team's twelve-year history that it did not have a winning record.

1937

Seventeen rookies helped make up the 25-man roster in 1937, a season that also marked the debut of the now-familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938

A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. A crowd of 48,120 fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants earned the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939

On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Chicago. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940

The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing the feat for the 10th year in a row.

1941

With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

1942

After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and in third place in the Eastern Division. The Giants recorded a memorable victory in the season opener, defeating the Washington Redskins, 14-7, although they didn't have a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown. The Giants also scored on an intercepted return and handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

1943

With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944

Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945

The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946

Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

1947

The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan led for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

1948

The Giants renovation was accelerated in 1948 when they acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The franchise reached another milestone in its illustrious existence, but it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949

Giants head coach Steve Owen switched from the "A" formation to the "T," which helped the Giants improve to a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950

The Giants and New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns, their first season above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game.

1951

End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952

Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953

Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr. of Morgan State, a future Hall of Famer, was the Giants 27th pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giant head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954

Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end

coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955

On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956

Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive linebacker but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

1957

The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

1958

After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY THE NEW YORK GIANTS

1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959

On February 4, assistant offensive coach Vince Lombardi left to join the Green Bay Packers as their new head coach. On February 17, Giants co-founder Tim Mara died. The Baltimore Colts exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960

1961

The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

1962

Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.

1964

Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became a full-time defensive coach. For the first time in 17 years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. Offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966

Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record. They allowed a then NFL-record 501 points. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

1967

On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up their first and second-round picks in 1967, number one pick in 1968, and second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 touchdown passes led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.

1968

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969

The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. After losing seven games in a row, the Giants finished with three straight victories to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

1970

After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the postseason with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971

After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead, two additional players and draft choices. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972

Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973

Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

1974

Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

1975

The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for Giants Stadium to open. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976

Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977

Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978

The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of its final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979

Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980

A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, the second-highest total in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. A highlight was a 38-35 defeat of Dallas that ended an eight-game losing streak. Dave Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981

With the second selection in the draft, New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, before obtaining running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. The Giants lost three straight to drop to 5-6. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced an injured Phil Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime defeat of Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

1982

A wild and turbulent year in which the NFL players' strike shortened the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout until late November, returning to play in just the final five games. On December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants — Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings — were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again — Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an NFL record with 35 field goals.

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants earned the NFC wild card playoff berth, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second place in the NFC East. Simms set three single-season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies — Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson — were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, 21-0. Five players — Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall — were named to the Pro Bowl. There were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set a team records with 1,336 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns. Simms set club marks with 40 completions and 513 passing yards in a game. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

1986

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set a record for all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the 39-20 Super Bowl victory over Denver after completing a playoff record 88% of his passes (22-25). Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP. Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players — Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and the team set attendance records at home and on the road.

1987

After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in a season that included a players strike and three games with replacement players. In addition, injuries sidelined 11 starters. While the Giants finished with six wins in its final ten games, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players — Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro — were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

1988

The Giants bounced back and after splitting the first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 record heading into the final weekend of the season. But an upset loss to the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth. The Giants 10-6 record gave them a five-year mark of 54-32 (.628), including postseason play. Those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year span. Joe Morris set a club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' career rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants won their second NFC East championship in four years with a 12-4 record. Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set club marks with 582 punt return yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equaled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990

The Giants started the season by winning its first ten games, and eventually won the division with a 13-3 record despite losing Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. Veteran running back Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the Mara family's sole ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch, who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer. In May, 1991, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting quarterback, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the campaign. Simms added his 15th club record when he passed Charlie Connerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6-10 season as injuries to key players hurt the team. Phil Simms regained his starting quarterback spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th player in NFL history to surpass 30,000 passing yards. Jeff Hostetler started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press, which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a wild card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC divisional playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame at the conclusion of the 1998 season.

After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak that resulted in a 9-7 record. The Giants came into Week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a wild card berth. The Giants defeated Dallas, 15-10, but the season ended when the Bucs lost to the Packers, 34-19. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he like two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

1996

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. The Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of 7.5 straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

In his first season as head coach of the Giants, Jim Fassel led his team to a 10-5-1 record and the team's first NFC East Championship since the 1990 Super Bowl season. The Giants started the year with a 1-3 record before rebounding to become the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. Second-year QB Danny Kanell filled in for an injured Dave Brown and led the Giants to a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Week Six. Kanell was eventually named the new starting quarterback and finished with a 7-2-1 record. His season was highlighted by a three-touchdown performance at Philadelphia in a key NFC East victory on December 7. The Giants defense blossomed into one of the NFL's strongest, finishing first in the league with a franchise-record 44 takeaways. The Giants defense led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished third in the NFL with 54 sacks. The season ended when the Minnesota Vikings overcame a 19-3 second half deficit to pull out a 23-22 victory at Giants Stadium in a Wild Card game. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous publications, including The Sporting News, which is determined by a vote of NFL coaches. Jessie Armstead set a team-record with 134 total tackles and was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14. Strahan was also named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. At the end of the season, George Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President of Football Operations in the started. Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

1995

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workman-

National Football League office. Ernie Accorsi was named the team's new General Manager.

After overcoming a 3-7 start, the Giants remained in the hunt for a playoff berth until the final week and finished with an 8-8 record. The Giants won five out of their last six games, including a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated (13-0) and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos. Entering the final game, the Giants needed a victory over Philadelphia, combined with a Tampa Bay loss and an Arizona loss, to qualify as the third wild card participant in the NFC playoff field. The Giants beat the Eagles at Veterans Stadium, but the Buccaneers and Cardinals were victorious to spoil the Giants playoff hopes. Kent Graham replaced Danny Kanell at quarterback after the team fell to 3-7 and finished with a 5-1 record in the starting role. Gary Brown emerged as the Giants top running back, reaching the 1,000-yard mark with a career-best 1,063 yards that included six 100-yard games. Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season. Armstead eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the third straight year with 101 tackles (75 solos). Strahan set a career-high with 15 sacks as he triggered a Giants defense that led the league with 54 sacks.

1999

For the second straight year, the Giants entered the final week of the regular season with a chance to make the NFL's postseason field. The difference between the two seasons is that in 1998 the Giants won five of their last six games. In 1999, victories over the Jets and at Buffalo raised the Giants' record to 7-6; however, the Giants dropped their last three games to finish 7-9. It was the team's first losing season in three years under head coach Jim Fassel. The final blow was a 26-18 loss at Dallas, a game that followed the Giants' elimination from the playoff race with Green Bay's victory over Arizona earlier in the day. In spite of the obvious disappointment, a few bright spots emerged for the Giants in 1999. The Giants set records on offense, led by Amani Toomer, who established a team single-season record with 79 receptions (breaking Earnest Gray's record of 78 receptions set in 1983). Toomer fell 26 yards shy of the team record of 1,209 receiving yards, set by Homer Jones in 1967. Also, for the first time in the 75-year history of the team, the Giants had four receivers record over 50 receptions in a season: Toomer (79), Ike Hilliard (72), Tiki Barber (66), and Pete Mitchell (58). Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Armstead surpassed the 100-tackle mark for the fourth straight year with 124 tackles (97 solos) and recorded a career-high 9.0 sacks. Strahan recorded 56 tackles (41 solos) and posted 5.5 sacks. QB Kerry Collins started the final six games of the season after replacing Kent Graham in the lineup following the 10th game.

2000

The Giants enjoyed their finest season in a decade, winning the NFC East and home-field advantage in the playoffs with a 12-4 record before defeating Philadelphia and Minnesota to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. The highlight of the season was a 41-0 victory over Minnesota in the NFC Championship game at Giants Stadium. In their first Super Bowl appearance in 10 years, the Giants lost to Baltimore, 34-7. The Giants took a seven-game winning streak into the Super Bowl, a surge that began after Jim Fassel issued his now-famous playoff guarantee on November 22. The Giants finished 7-1 in the division and 7-1 away from Giants Stadium. The seven road victories tied a franchise record set in 1930 (when three of the road games were in Newark, Staten Island and Brooklyn) and marked the first time since 1963 that the Giants lost just one game as visitors. The Giants averaged 125.6 rushing yards a game, a robust 37.5-yard gain over the 1999 average. Quarterback Kerry Collins was sacked 28 times; in 1999 Giants quarterbacks were sacked 42 times. Collins had the best season of his career, setting career highs in passes (529), completions (311), completion percentage (58.8) and touchdown passes (22). Halfback Tiki Barber set a Giants record of 2,085 all-purpose yards (1,006 rushing, 719 receiving, 332 punt returns and 28 on kickoff returns). Amani Toomer caught 78 passes (one less than the franchise record he set in 1999). Ike Hilliard led the team with a 14.3-yard average and eight touchdown catches. The defense was second in the NFL against the run (72.3 yards a game) and fifth in points allowed (15.4 per game). In 359 rushing attempts, opponents had an NFL-best two runs of longer than 20 yards. Jessie Armstead led the team with 102 tackles — his fifth consecutive season with more than a hundred tackles — and was selected to his fourth straight Pro Bowl. Defensive tackle Keith Hamilton had the best season of his nine-year career. He was a dominating run-stopper and he led the Giants with 10 sacks, an impressive feat for a tackle. Defensive end Michael Strahan had perhaps his finest all-around season and raised his sack total from 5.5 in 1999 to 9.5.

After a strong 3-1 start, the Giants lost eight of their last 12 games and finished 7-9 and in third place in the NFC East, the third time in as many tries they failed to make the playoffs a season after reaching the Super Bowl. The terrorist attacks in New York and Washington on Sept. 11 — the day after the Giants lost their Monday night opener in Denver — made the rest of season a minor footnote by comparison. After the attacks, many players reached out to victims' families, firefighters, police officers and other rescue workers and their children. Despite the disappointing record, the season included many highlights, notably Michael Strahan setting a new NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks. Kerry Collins became the first quarterback in league history to throw every one of his team's passes in two consecutive seasons. Collins set team marks for passes (568) and completions (327). Tiki Barber accounted for 1,782 total yards, Mike Barrow set a team record with 135 tackles, Morten Andersen became the second-leading scorer in NFL history, Howard Cross set a new franchise record for games played (207), Amani Toomer caught more than 70 passes for the third season in a row, rookie Rodney Williams established a team record with a 90-yard punt against the Broncos and Jessie Armstead played in his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl (and was joined in Hawaii by Strahan and Ron Stone). Although they struggled with two three-game losing streaks, the Giants thrilled their fans with scintillating last-second victories over Dallas (in overtime), Arizona and Seattle. After the defeat in Denver — and a week off after the NFL's decision not to play the Sunday after the attacks — the Giants won three straight, against Kansas City, New Orleans and Washington. The winning streak was followed by consecutive heartbreaking 1-point losses to St. Louis and Philadelphia, and a defeat at Washington. The Giants then rebounded with victories over Dallas and Arizona before again dropping three straight, to Minnesota, Oakland and Dallas. They played their way back into playoff contention with dramatic triumphs over Arizona and Seattle, but closed the season with losses to Philadelphia and Green Bay.

An exciting and rewarding season concluded with the Giants winning their final four regular season games to finish 10-6 and in second place in the NFC East. More importantly, they earned a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoffs, where they lost a heartbreaking 39-38 game to the San Francisco 49ers. But the game did not diminish the season's many team and individual achievements. The Giants made their 26th appearance in the playoffs, tying them with the Dallas Cowboys for the most post-season appearances in NFL history. They finished the regular season ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense, with 364.1 yards a game. It was their highest ranking and most yards per game since the 1985 Giants finished fifth in total offense with 367.8 yards a game. The Giants improved to 19-5 in regular season December games under Jim Fassel. Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons. Kerry Collins completed 335 passes, a Giants record, and was 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL with 4,073 passing yards, breaking the previous team record of 4,044, set by Phil Simms in 1984. Collins completed 61.5 percent of his passes, a career-high and the third-best percentage in team history. Tiki Barber was 4th in the NFL and 1st in the NFC with 1,984 yards from scrimmage (1,387 rushing and 597 receiving). He rushed for 1,387 rushing yards, the second-highest total in team history after Joe Morris' 1,516 yards in 1986. Amani Toomer set team records with 82 receptions for 1,343 yards and established a career-high with eight touchdown catches. Pro Bowler Jeremy Shockey caught 74 passes, the fifth-highest total in Giants history, and a team record for both rookies (shattering the mark of 48 set by Bobby Johnson in 1984) and tight ends (eclipsing the 66 passes Mark Bavaro caught in 1986). Michael Strahan was selected to his 4th Pro Bowl in 5 years and from Sept. 22 through Dec. 1, he had at least a half-sack in 10 consecutive games, tying the NFL record set by Denver's Simon Fletcher in 1991 and tied by Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999.

The Giants endured one of their most unpleasant seasons in recent memory, losing their last eight games to finish 4-12. The Giants were 4-4 at midseason. In Game 9, they were tied at halftime with Atlanta, 7-7. But the Falcons scored 20 unanswered second-half points to send the Giants to a defeat from which they would never recover. The Giants finished the season 1-7 at home, the first time since 1983 they won a single home game. Despite their poor record, the Giants had several individual highlights. Michael Strahan led the NFL with 18.5 sacks, the second-highest total of his career, and became the first Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. For the second consecutive year, Strahan and tight end Jeremy Shockey were the only Giants selected to the Pro Bowl. Shockey became the first Giant to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first two seasons since Taylor in 1981-82. Running back Tiki Barber had team-high totals of 1,216 rushing yards (the second-highest total of his career) and 69 receptions. He became the first Giant to lead the team in both rushing and receptions since Joe Dawkins in 1974. Barber finished the season as the franchise's all-time leader in total yards (10,746) and receptions (422) and is second in rushing (5,409 yards). Amani Toomer extended his own team record with his fifth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Quarterbacks Kerry Collins and Jessie Palmer combined to throw a franchise-record 616 passes in 2003. Right guard David Diehl became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985. He was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games in 2003. The team announced with two games remaining that Jim Fassel would not return as head coach. Fassel was replaced by Tom Coughlin on January 6, 2004.

2004

A new era dawned in Giants Stadium in 2004 with the arrival of Tom Coughlin as the 16th head coach in franchise history. With Coughlin at the helm, the Giants revamped their roster and started the season 5-2. But the Giants couldn't sustain the momentum and lost eight consecutive games before winning the season finale against the Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished in second place in the NFC East with a 6-10 record, a two-game improvement over their 2003 mark. Running back Tiki Barber set four significant team records and was selected to his first Pro Bowl. He finished first in the NFL with a Giants-record 2,096 yards from scrimmage. Barber was fifth in the league and second in the conference with a team-record 1,518 rushing yards, two more than Joe Morris' total in 1986. He set the record on a game-winning three-yard run with 11 seconds remaining in the finale against Dallas. Barber tied a career high by averaging 4.7 yards a carry.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY THE NEW YORK GIANTS

Barber rushed for at least 100 yards in nine games, breaking the team's previous single-season record of eight, set by Morris in 1986. Barber finished the season with 6,927 career rushing yards, eclipsing Hampton's former team record of 6,897. The Giants had other standout performers. Willie Ponder's averaged an NFL-best 26.9 yards on kickoff returns, the highest average by a Giant since Leon McQuay averaged 27.6 yards in 1974. The Giants finished first in the NFL with a 25.1-yard kickoff return average, the first time since 1953 they led the NFL in that statistical category. Ponder was the first Giant to lead the NFL in average kickoff return yardage since Clarence Childs in 1964. Jeremy Shockey led the Giants with 61 receptions to become the first tight end to top the team since Mark Bavaro had 55 catches in 1987. Bavaro had 55 catches that season. Shockey's team-leading six touchdown receptions were two more than he had in his first two seasons combined. Amani Toomer led the team's wide receivers with 51 catches for 747 yards. It was the sixth consecutive season Toomer had more than 50 receptions and 700 yards. Eli Manning, selected with the top pick in the 2004 draft and then acquired by the Giants in a trade, started the last seven games and finished the season with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, six touchdowns and nine interceptions. Osi Umenyiora, a second-year defensive end, led the Giants with 7.0 sacks, six more than he had as a rookie. Linebacker Carlos Emmons led the team with 97 tackles (62 solo) and David Tyree had a team-high 23 special teams tackles.

The 2005 season was marked by soaring success and searing tragedy. The Giants finished 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000 before losing an NFC Wild Card Game to Carolina, 23-0. But the Giants' beloved owners, Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch, passed away within three weeks of each other, both from cancer. Mara, an NFL patriarch who was one of the most respected and influential figures in league history, and who had been with the Giants for their entire 81-year history, died on Oct. 25. Tisch, who purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991, was a business titan, renowned philanthropist and nonpareil New York City mover and shaker, died on Nov. 15. The Giants were only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. The Giants had five players selected to the Pro Bowl, their largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven players to Hawaii. The Pro Bowlers were Barber, Shockey, Osi Umenyiora, Michael Strahan and David Tyree.

Barber had the greatest season by a running back in Giants history and was selected NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated and a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was second in the NFL with a team-record 1,860 rushing yards, shattering the franchise mark of 1,518 he set in 2004. Barber also had 530 receiving yards to become the only player in NFL history with at least 1,800 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. His 2,390 total yards were second-most in NFL history. St. Louis' Marshall Faulk had 2,429 yards in 1999 (1,381 rushing, 1,048 receiving). Barber led the NFL in runs of 20 or more yards (16), 40 or more yards (seven) and 50 or more yards (five). His 263 scrimmage yards at Oakland, 220 rushing yards against Kansas City and 95-yard run against the Raiders were all NFL single-game highs in 2005. Barber's 95-yard run at Oakland was the longest in Giants history and broke a record that stood for 75 years — Hap Moran's 91-yard run vs. Green Bay on Nov. 23, 1930.

Eli Manning threw 557 passes this season, the second-highest total in team history. His 294 completions place him fourth on the Giants' career list and his 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943.

Umenyiora was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks, the highest total by a Giants player other than Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989.

Strahan was third in the NFC with 11.5 sacks. He and Umenyiora combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates.

Jay Feely led all NFL kickers with a team-record and career-high 148 points, the first Giants kicker to hold the top spot since Dan Chandler in 1963 (106 points). Jeff Feagles played in all 16 games for the 18th consecutive season (third with the Giants). On Nov. 27 in Seattle, Feagles played in his 283rd consecutive game, a new NFL record. Former Minnesota defensive end Jim Marshall had held the old mark of 282 since retiring in 1979.

Tyree was selected to his first Pro Bowl despite missing three games with an elbow injury, the Giants' first special teams player chosen since Reyna Thompson in 1990.

2006

The Giants finished 8-8 and earned their second consecutive postseason berth, the first time they accomplished that feat since 1989-90. The record was incongruously fashioned with a 3-5 home record and a 5-3 mark away from Giants Stadium.

Tiki Barber ended his record-setting career by rushing for 1,662 yards and catching 58 passes. Eli Manning was tied for fourth in the NFL with 24 touchdown passes. Tight end Jeremy Shockey led the team with 66 receptions and was voted to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his five-year career. Plaxico Burress caught 10 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant in 26 years, and was right behind Shockey with 63 catches. Linemen Chris Snee, David Diehl, Shaun O'Hara and Kareem McKenzie played solidly while missing just two games among them.

Defensively, middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 159 tackles (38 more than anyone else on the team), including 93 solo. He was selected to play in his first Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Brian Urlacher. Safeties Gibril Wilson and Will Demps had 121 and 116 tackles, respectively, Osi Umenyiora led the team in sacks for the third consecutive year (despite missing five games) and tackle Fred Robbins had a solid all-around season.

On the debit side, the Giants were never at full strength in the second half of the season because several key players suffered injuries that forced them to go on injured reserve. The group included wide receiver Amani Toomer (knee), seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (Lisfranc foot sprain), left tackle Luke Petitgout, three-time Pro Bowl linebacker LaVar Arrington, reserve defensive end Justin Tuck and, late in the year, return specialist Chad Morton.

2007

The 2007 season was one of the most successful, rewarding and memorable in franchise history.

The Giants stumbled to a 0-2 start – then fell behind by two touchdowns at halftime of their third game – before beginning a remarkable turnaround. They rallied to win that game, 14 of their next 18 and concluded the season with an exhilarating and unforgettable 17-14 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII. It was one of the greatest upsets and most exciting championship games in the long history of the National Football League.

Eli Manning threw the game-winning 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with just 35 seconds remaining, giving the Giants a victory over a New England team that entered the game with an 18-0 record, including a three-point win over the Giants in the regular season finale. After New England had taken a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining in the fourth quarter, Manning completed five passes on an 83-yard drive – including a 32-yarder on the greatest play in Super Bowl history, when he slipped the dutches of the Patriots' pass rusher and threw down field to David Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet and away from safety Rodney Harrison.

Two days after bringing the Vince Lombardi Trophy back to the metropolitan area, the Giants were lauded by more than a million fans at a ticker tape parade up Manhattan's famed Canyon of Heroes, and later at a rally in Giants Stadium.

The Giants triumphed for the third time in four Super Bowl appearances, won their sixth title game and seventh overall championship. They won Super Bowls following the 1986, 1990 and 2007 seasons, NFL Championship Games in 1934, 1938

But this title was the most improbable of all. The Giants were just the fourth team to start a season 0-2 and reach the Super Bowl (and the third to win it). They finished the regular season at 10-6 and became the first six-loss team to win the Super Bowl since the 1988 San Francisco 49ers. The Giants won just three home games – none after October 21 – to become the first team with a losing home record to ever make the Super Bowl. The Giants were the fifth wild card team – and first from the NFC – to win the Super Bowl. They were the third team to reach the Super Bowl by winning three road playoff games, the second such team to win the Super Bowl and the first from the NFC. The Giants set an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from home (seven regular season, four postseason, including the Super Bowl). Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons, games or moments. Eli Manning started every game and threw for 3,336 yards and 23 touchdowns to become the first Giants quarterback since Phil Simms (1984-86) to top 3,000 yards and 20 touchdown passes in each of three consecutive seasons. Brandon Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards despite missing five games and most of a sixth with injuries. Burress was unable to practice virtually the entire season because of an ankle injury, but led the team with 70 receptions for 1,025 yards and 12 touchdowns, the highest total by a Giants receiver since Homer Jones had 13 in 1967. Amani Toomer caught 59 passes and became the franchise's all-time leader in receptions with 620. The offensive line – and fullback Madison Hedgecock, acquired off waivers after he was cut by St. Louis – played well throughout the year, a big reason the Giants finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards, averaging 134.3 a game.

Under new coordinator Steve Spagnuolo, the defense ranked seventh in the NFL, allowing 305.0 yards a game. The Giants led the NFL with 53.0 sacks and set a franchise record with 12 in a victory over Philadelphia on Sept. 30. Osi Umenyiora was third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 13.0 sacks and was the lone Giant voted to the Pro Bowl. Justin Tuck became a force on the defensive line and had 10.0 sacks. Michael Strahan, in the final season of his great career, added 9.0 sacks and moved to fifth on the NFL's career list with 141.5. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 116 tackles (63 solo). Corey Webster stepped up to play superbly in the playoffs. R.W. McQuarters has intercepted a pass in each of the first three postseason games.

When the 2008 NFL season began, the Giants had the Vince Lombardi Trophy on display in their lobby and legions of skeptics and doubters who were convinced they had won it more through luck and timing than skill. A popular refrain was that the Giants had simply become a hot team at the right time in the 2007 playoffs. For evidence, the disbelievers cited the Giants' stirring Super Bowl XLII victory over the previously-undefeated New England Patriots. When it was time to make predictions for the 2008 season, most prognosticators placed the Giants second or third in the NFC East.

But the Giants proved them all wrong. No, they didn't win another Super Bowl. But they did capture the division title and the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs. They started the season 11-1 and winning 12 regular season games, they became only the fifth defending Super Bowl champion to win more games the season following a championship than they did on their way to winning the title (not counting the strike-shortened 1982 season).

The Giants achieved their success despite losing several key players from the 2007 championship team, including seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (retirement), two-time Pro Bowl defensive end Osi Umenyiora (knee injury suffered in the preseason), four-time Pro Bowl tight end Jeremy Shockey (traded to New Orleans) and wide receiver Plaxico Burress, (who did not play in the season's final month after he was wounded in an accidental shooting).

The day after the season ended with a loss to the Philadelphia Eagles in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game, Coach Tom Coughlin addressed many of the issues that had been raised in training camp.

"What I thought I would start with this morning is to think back to last spring and last summer when all of your questions concerned how this team would respond to winning the Super Bowl," Coughlin said. "Would they be, for lack of a better word, satisfied? Would they be as hungry coming into training camp and beyond training camp as they were in working our way to a Super Bowl championship? I think that our team responded and answered that question. I think we came out, we transitioned, we bridged from the Super Bowl year to the next season very well. Our competitiveness was there, our fire, our attempt to take the success of the Super Bowl season on into the next season was very successful. We were 11-1 and we did come out of camp and play very, very well for a very long time. We, of course, played well and the record stood for that. We didn't finish the season as well as we would have liked to, but I think we answered the questions of what this team was about."

"Twelve and five is not a bad season," general manager Jerry Reese said. "When you set the bar high like that and then all of sudden you get eliminated in the second round it stings. Overall, we had a real good season. It's not where we want it to be, but we said we wanted to be the organization that put our team in position to win the Super Bowl every year. For the last couple of years we have been able to put our team in position to do that. We fell short this time."

The loss to Philadelphia did not mitigate the achievements of a successful regular season. The Giants were one of only two teams to finish in the top nine in both the NFL's offensive and defensive rankings. They rushed for an NFL-leading and franchise record 2,518 yards and also topped the league with a Giants-best 5.0 yards per carry. The Giants were the first team since 1985 to have two running backs rush for 1,000 yards each (Brandon Jacobs and Derrick Ward).

Seven Giants were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team: Quarterback Eli Manning, center Shaun O'Hara, guard Chris Snee, defensive end Justin Tuck, punter Jeff Feagles and kicker John Carney. Two weeks before the game, long-snapper Zak DeOssie was added as the NFC's need player.

Snee and Tuck were named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and fullback Madison Hedgecock, O'Hara and Carney finished second in the voting at their positions. O'Hara, Hedgecock and defensive tackle Fred Robbins were named first-team All-Pro by Sports Illustrated and O'Hara and Snee were selected to The Sporting News' All-Pro first team.

The Giants opened their season at home against NFC East rival Washington in the traditional Thursday night opener showcasing

Before the game, the Giants' three Super Bowl championship teams were honored during an inspiring and exciting pre-game ceremony that featured a surprise appearance by Michael Strahan.

A huge inflatable replica of the Lombardi Trophy was wheeled out to midfield as the stadium video boards showed highlights from Super Bowls XXI and XXV. Bob Papa, the voice of the Giants, then introduced the players from those teams that were in attendance: Hall of Famer Harry Carson, Stacy Robinson, Karl Nelson, Brad Benson, Bill Ard, Howard Cross, Rodney Hampton, Ottis Anderson, Carl Banks and Mark Bavaro.

"Giants Stadium, you thought I was never coming back," said Strahan, who had announced his retirement three months previously after 15 stellar seasons with the team. "But I had to come back to celebrate the championship with the greatest fans in all of sports. And for one final time, salute my teammates for an incredible championship run. So what I want you to do is, I want you to get on your feet, I want you to make some noise and I want you to be ready to stomp somebody out and welcome the New York Giants Super Bowl champions."

With that, the 79,742 fans in attendance screamed in delight as the 2008 Giants took the field for the first time. At the other end of the stadium, a championship banner was raised.

When the Giants embarked on their 2009 season, the popular belief was that they could succeed because of the strength of a retooled defense, particularly the reinforced front, and a running game that had been the NFL's best in 2008. If a weakness, or at least a unit with multiple questions, existed, it was the untested group of wide receivers.

But someone shredded that script when the games began. The defense did not play as well as anticipated and the rushing attack wasn't as productive as it had been in previous seasons. But the passing game, with Eli Manning having the finest year of his career and record-setting Steve Smith leading a group of receivers that exceeded expectations, was the strongest facet of the team.

The Giants' fortunes unfolded in a similarly unexpected fashion. Playing their 34th and final season in Giants Stadium, they hoped to win their second consecutive NFC East title and extended their franchise record with a fifth consecutive postseason berth. The journey began smoothly, as the Giants won their first five games. But they soon took a wrong turn, veered completely off course and ultimately hit a dead end. The Giants won just three times after that burst from the gate and finished with an 8-8 record and in third place in the division. They finished out of the playoffs for the first time since Tom Coughlin's inaugural season as head coach in 2004.

The Giants were hit by a debilitating series of injuries. Safety Kenny Phillips, their first round draft choice in 2008, played superbly in the first two games but missed the rest of the season because of an arthritic condition in his knee that required surgery. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce, a team leader, captain and the top tackler, sat out the final seven games with a bulging disk in his neck. Two of the free agents acquired to strengthen the defense, Chris Canty and Michael Boley, missed significant chunks of the season with injuries. Defensive tackle Jay Alford missed the entire year with a knee injury. Gerris Wilkinson led the team in special teams tackles when he was placed on injured reserve with a wrist injury. Running backs Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw and defensive end Justin Tuck played hurt most of the year and offensive linemen Rich Seubert and Kareem McKenzie were sidelined at the end of the season with injuries.

Manning finished the season with 317 completions in 509 attempts (62.3 percent) for 4,021 yards, 27 touchdowns, 14 interceptions and a passer rating of 93.1. The completions, percentage, yards, touchdowns and rating were all career highs. Manning is the third quarterback in Giants history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in a season, joining Kerry Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Phil Simms (4,044 in 1984).

Smith was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 107 receptions, 25 more than the franchise's previous single-season record-holder (Amani Toomer had 82 in 2002) and 50 more than this season's runner-up, Mario Manningham. Smith's 1,220 receiving yards were the second-highest total in franchise history. Toomer had 1,343 in 2002. Smith joined Toomer, Plaxico Burress (1,214 yards in 2005) and Homer Jones (1,209 yards in 1967) as the only Giants with 1,200-yard receiving seasons. Smith led the NFL with 38 receptions on third down.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY THE NEW YORK GIANTS

Manningham had a break through season with 57 catches (in 14 games) and Hakeem Nicks had 47 receptions for 790 yards, both the third-highest total in history among Giants rookies. Nicks' six touchdown receptions were the most by a Giants rookie since Johnson had seven.

Center Shaun O'Hara and guard Chris Snee were selected to their second consecutive Pro Bowls and tackle David Diehl to his first. Tight end Kevin Boss had a solid season with 42 catches and five touchdowns. Cornerback Terrell Thomas started every game and led the team with 101 tackles (67 solo). Defensive end Osi Umenyiora returned from the knee surgery that cost him the 2008 season to record a team-high 7.0 sacks, the fifth time in six seasons he has led the team. Kicker Lawrence Tynes scored a career-high 126 points and Chase Blackburn and Bryan Kehl tied for the team lead with 16 special teams tackles.

The Giants finished with a record of 155-117 in regular season games in Giants Stadium, easily the most in league history. They were 7-4 in postseason games for a total record of 162-121.

Giants Stadium hosted 477 NFL regular season games played in Giants Stadium, easily the most in league history. Chicago's Wrigley Field is second with 365.

2010

The 2010 season will always elicit mixed reactions from the New York Giants.

Playing their 86th season, the Giants moved into a beautiful new home, New Meadowlands Stadium, which is located just a few yards away from where Giants Stadium, their home from 1976-2009, once stood. The Giants were 10-6, one of a record-tieing 13 teams to finish with double-digit victories. They finished the season with the same record as the NFC East champion Philadelphia Eagles, the same record as the eventual Super Bowl XLV champion Green Bay Packers and the same record as the 2007 Giants team that won Super Bowl XLII.

But ultimately, the season did not meet their expectations because the Giants did not make the playoffs. Two losses to the Eagles and another to the Packers in the final seven weeks of the season first cost the Giants the NFC East title and then an opportunity to participate in the postseason. The Giants lost the NFC's last postseason berth on a tiebreaker.

The Giants ended their season with an unusual blend of emotions. They accepted their fate and took responsibility for coming up short, but they were equally defiant in their belief that they are better than a playoff non-qualifier.

HAKEEM NICKS CATCHES THE FIRST-EVER
TOUCHDOWN IN METLIFE STADIUM

"I'm really disappointed to be here talking to you guys about 10-6," general manager Jerry Reese said at his season-ending news conference. "I really felt like we had an opportunity to get into the playoffs and really do some damage when we got there, but it didn't work out that way. I'm really disappointed, even more so than last year because we put ourselves in position and that's what our goal is every year, to put ourselves in a position and we put ourselves in position and we just did not finish the job and that's very disappointing."

Although disappointed at missing the playoffs for the second season in a row, Coach Tom Coughlin had high praise for his players.

"I love this team, I love these guys, I think they're strong character people, we work together on everything, we're all in it together, we're all for one, one for all and that's the way that it has to be," Coughlin said. "It's a group of guys that don't make excuses for anything, they accept responsibility, they accept whatever takes place. They've done an outstanding job this year of adjusting to some very unusual circumstances that surround the game. They've done a good job of that. We've had a couple of huge disappointments, emotionally we weren't to where we should have been. We did come back to a certain level (in the season finale vs. Washington), but it's an outstanding group of guys who by and large are on the same page, they're focused, they come to work, they prepare themselves, they play hard, there are all kinds of personalities just like there always is, but as I said, I'm very, very appreciative of the kind of effort, the attitude, the enthusiasm, and the fact that this year's team was a very responsive team."

The Giants had many impressive statistical achievements in 2010. The offense (fifth) and defense (seventh) each finished in the top 10 of the NFL rankings. Eli Manning set franchise records for completions and completion percentage and became the first Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons and the second with more than 30 touchdown passes. Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235) and Brandon Jacobs (823) rushed for a combined 2,058 yards. Despite missing three games with injuries, Hakeem Nicks had one of the finest seasons by a wide receiver in Giants history with 79 catches for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns. Mario Manningham caught 60 passes, including 85- and 92-yard touchdowns. Osi Umenyiora (10 forced fumbles) and Justin Tuck (five fumble recoveries) tied for the team lead with 11.5 sacks.

But those players and the rest of the team and coaches ultimately exited the season with an empty feeling.

"Overall, I'm disappointed in the outcome of the season," said quarterback Eli Manning, who threw for 4,002 yards and 31 touchdowns, but also tossed 25 interceptions. "We thought we had potential. We thought we had players to make it in the playoffs and make a run, and we didn't accomplish that. We didn't play well enough at times of the season to make it into the playoffs."

"We had a good year," Tuck said. "Ten and six is nothing to hold your head down about. Obviously, it wasn't good enough, and we always have a goal of reaching the playoffs and going deep in the playoffs and hopefully winning the Super Bowl. It didn't happen this year, but we're not going to hold our heads about it. We had opportunities, and you try your best to learn from them. Hopefully, that's being carried over to next year and it gets us to work a little harder in running and work a little harder in lifting and propel us to where we want to be next year."

STADIUMS OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official.

The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

In 2010, the Giants moved into a beautiful, new, state-of-the-art stadium built just a few yards from where Giants Stadium sat for more than three decades. The nation's finest football stadium, it seats 82,500 fans. It is one of the NFL's most technologically advanced stadiums and took more than four million man-hours and $1.6 billion to build. The stadium features 10,000 dub seats, 222 suites and 130,000 square feet of state-of-the-art dub lounges. The first row of seats is just 46 feet from the sidelines and the sightlines are superb. The site of Super Bowl XLVIII, Giants' new home is 2.1 million square feet, compared to Giants Stadium's 900,000 square feet. It has four 30' by 118' high definition video screens, a 350,000 square foot outdoor plaza filled with interactive activities for fans of all ages.

COMMEMORATIVE PATCHES

The Giants have celebrated two major anniversaries by wearing uniform patches on its jerseys. The first was in 1999 for its 75th season, the second coming in 2004 commemorating 80 years.

Over the years, the team has honored deceased players and administrators by wearing memorial patches. In 1986, the team wore a patch in remembrance of Carl "Spider" Lockhart. In 2001, a "GBY" patch honored longtime general manager George Bernard Young. Most recently, Wellington T. Mara was remembered during the 2005 season with a "WTM" patch after his passing, and a few weeks later, Preston Robert Tisch was added to a patch with Wellington Mara separated by the NY logo.

The Giants honored Hall of Famer, player and coach, Rosie Brown with a "79" decal on the back of their helmets in after his passing in 2004.

In addition, the team has also worn patches in Super Bowls XXV and XLII. Those patches were representations of the NFL's Super Bowl logos for those years.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

CO-OWNER

FORDHAM

ENSHRINED IN 1997

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, Coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, was a member of the four-man

1997 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, were the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor. Mara was one of the most influential and beloved figures in American sports history. His entire working lifetime was dedicated to the Giants and the NFL and he helped the Giants produce 21 NFL/NFC first place finishes, 27 postseason appearances and six NFL championships during a 68-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937. Mara passed away on Oct. 25, 2005.

END

ENSHRINED IN 1981

Badgro joined the Giants in 1930 and played six seasons at end. He made a name for himself as a superior defender, excellent blocker and big-play receiver. Badgro helped lead the Giants to the NFL's inaugural championship game in 1933 and he scored the first touchdown in the league's championship game history on a 29-yard pass from Harry Newman in the second quarter. Badgro tied for the NFL receiving title in 1934 with 16 receptions for 206 yards, including one touchdown. He was named to the All-NFL team three times: 1931, 1933 and 1934. Before joining the Giants, Badgro played with the Red Grange-led New York Yankees in the American Football League (12 games in 1927 and one game in 1928). He played pro baseball for three seasons, the first with the Tulsa in the minor leagues and then with the St. Louis Browns for two seasons. Badgro has the distinction of being the oldest player ever to be elected into the Hall of Fame. He was 77 when he was enshrined in 1981.

TIM MARA

FOUNDER

CHARTER ENSHRINEE IN 1963

Tim Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved in the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The Chicago Bears arrived at the Polo Grounds with the most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, who helped draw a crowd of more than 70,000 people. After seeing so many people attend a Giants game, Mara decided that professional football could be a big success under the right circumstances. Mara bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. He helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse and was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

TACKLE

ENSHRINED IN 1975

Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was selected All-NFL eight consecutive seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the league title, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was a big, strong blocker who had the speed to make a block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, where he has served since the 1971 season. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966.

HARRY CARSON

LINEBACKER

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE

ENSHRINED IN 2006

Carson played his entire 13-year NFL career with the Giants. An inside linebacker, he was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, including seven in a row from 1982-88. Carson led the Giants in tackles six times, was a two-time All-NFL first team selection and was a leader throughout his career and the sole captain of the 1986 Super Bowl champions. Carson joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice in 1976 from South Carolina State, where he never missed a game in four seasons, was a two-year captain and a Little All-America selection by the Associated Press. A defensive end in college, Carson successfully moved to linebacker with the Giants so quickly and so successfully that he was voted to NFL All-Rookie team. Carson played 173 games in a Giants uniform — tying him with Keith Hamilton for seventh all-time — and he was a punishing run defender who also intercepted 11 passes. Carson had 17 sacks, 14 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles. He had 25 tackles (20 solo) in a Monday night game against Green Bay in 1982 and seven tackles in the Giants' 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. During his prime, Carson was the best run-stopping linebacker in the NFL. In the seven seasons from 1981 to 1987, Giants' opponents averaged only 3.59 yards per rushing attempt, a remarkable achievement for so long a period. During that period, Carson was credited with 856 tackles, including 627 unassisted tackles.

ROSIE BROWN IN 1953

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

FRANK GIFFORD
HALFBACK, FLANKER
ENSHRINED IN 1977

Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily

retired in 1961 due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first choice in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. He rushed for 3,609 yards rushing, caught 367 passes and scored 484 points. Gifford was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL history. He played in seven Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. Gifford holds the Giants record with 78 touchdowns. A true triple-threat back, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and returned in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including their victory in 1956.

CENTER
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hein joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons, a team record matched only by Phil

Simms and Michael Strahan. He was named All-NFL eight consecutive years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. He joined the Giants after the team submitted the highest salary bid at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. He never missed a game in high school, college or the NFL. Hein took time out only in two games and was injured only once. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1938 after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the NFL Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the Polo Grounds.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

CAL HUBBARD

TACKLE

ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hubbard played for the Giants from 1927-28 and again in 1936. He was one of the 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Hubbard was named All-NFL six years in a row from 1928-33. He played for the Green Bay Packers from 1929-35 and the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1936 before returning to the Giants. He was acquired before the start of the 1927 season in order to help beef up the Giants defense. That season, the defense surrendered only 20 points as the Giants captured their first NFL championship. He went to Green Bay in 1929 in a move that would haunt the Giants, as Hubbard led the Packers to a 12-0-1 record to edge out the 13-1-1 Giants for the league title. The Packers handed the Giants their only loss of the season by a 20-6 score.

TOM LANDRY

COACH

ENSHRINED IN 1990

Landry was with the Giants as a defensive back from 1950-55 and an assistant coach from 1954-59. The Giants' 1956 championship team not only consisted of players that would eventually be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, but it also had one of history's greatest coaching staffs. Head coach Jim Lee Howell had Vince Lombardi coaching the offense and Landry coaching the defense. When the Dallas Cowboys entered the league in 1960, Wellington Mara recommended the Cowboys hire Landry as head coach. Landry coached the Cowboys from 1960 through 1988 and led Dallas to two Super Bowl victories and five NFC titles. Landry coached the Cowboys to 20 consecutive winning seasons.

SAM HUFF

LINEBACKER

WEST VIRGINIA

ENSHRINED IN 1982

Huff became an immediate star at middle linebacker after he was drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 following an All-America career at West Virginia. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four years. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, including Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. He was named the NFL's Outstanding Lineman in 1959. Huff anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. He was traded to the Washington Redskins prior to the 1964 season and has been a color analyst on the Redskins radio broadcasts for many years.

ALPHONSE (TUFFY) LEEMANS

HALFBACK, FULLBACK

G. WASHINGTON/

OREGON

ENSHRINED IN 1978

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was personally scouted by Wellington Mara and was a second-round draft choice in the inaugural NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

VINCE LOMBARDI
COACH

Lombardi was an offensive assistant coach with the Giants from 1954-58 and the head coach of the Green Bay Packers (1959-67) and Washington Redskins (1969). With Lombardi running the offense, the Giants captured the NFL championship in 1956. In 10 years as head coach, Lombardi had a 105-36-6 record. He directed the Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 65-66-67) and victories in Super Bowls I and II, a feat without equal in pro football history. A guard, Lombardi played his collegiate football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

ANDY ROBUSTELLI
DEFENSIVE END
ENSHRINED IN 1971

Robustelli was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams championship teams. In 1956, Wellington traded for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants' title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. He played in eight NFL championship title games and seven Pro Bowls. Robustelli was named All-NFL seven times, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career.

STEVE OWEN
COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Owen was a four-time All-NFL tackle who played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the NFL title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. But Owen made his greatest imprint on the sideline, where he coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owens had a coaching record of 153-100-17 and won eight division and two NFL titles. The 153 victories are a Giants record. Some of his coaching innovations include the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system.

KEN STRONG
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY
ENSHRINED 1967

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47. He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants' career scoring leader with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 championship game over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career.

GIANTS IN THE HALL OF FAME

LAWRENCE TAYLOR
LINEBACKER

Taylor joined the Giants as the second overall selection of the 1981 NFL Draft and played his entire 13-year career for the team. When Taylor retired, he was the NFL's No. 2 all-time sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1981 and the NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times (the award was established in 1984), as well as the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986 and September 1989. Taylor was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. He was a unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1986, when he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles.

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1971

The Giants engineered one of the best trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordleone to the San Francisco 49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern Division championship. Tittle played two seasons in the All-American Conference and 11 in the NFL before joining the Giants. In 1962, Tittle set an NFL record by throwing 33 touchdown passes and tied another mark with seven scoring throws in one game. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963, when he led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes broke his own league mark and set a Giants record that still stands. Tittle's career totals include 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with more than 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957, when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the honor again in 1961 and 1963, as he took the Giants to Eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls.

EMLEN TUNNELL
TOLEDO/IOWA

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948 and played 11 seasons for the teams. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a tryout. Tunnell was the first African-American player signed by the Giants. He holds Giants records with 74 interceptions and 261 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kickoff returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls.

ARNOLD WEINMEISTER

Weinmeister played for the Giants from 1950-53. He was one of the first defensive players to captivate the masses in the same manner a star running back or quarterback could. A big and extremely fast player with great ability to diagnose plays, Weinmeister began his pro career with the New York Yankees in the All-American Football Conference in 1950. He moved to the NFL during the 1950 merger. Weinmeister played two ways in the AAFC, but was used exclusively on defense in the NFL.

OTHER HALL OF FAMERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

LARRY CSONKA

FULLBACK

ENSHRINED IN 1987

Csonka played for the Giants from 1976-78. He was originally drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the first round in 1968. Csonka left the Dolphins following the 1974 season and played for the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1975. He returned to the Dolphins to finish his career in 1979. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. He excelled in those Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and rushing for more than 100 yards in two of them. Csonka finished his career with 8,081 yards, a 4.3-yard average and 64 touchdowns.

BENNY FRIEDMAN

QUARTERBACK

ENSHRINED IN 2005

Friedman, a two-time All-America quarterback at Michigan, played with the Cleveland Bulldogs (1927), Detroit Wolverines (1928), Giants (1929-1931) and Brooklyn Dodgers (1932-1934). Following the 1928 season New York Giants owner Tim Mara purchased the Detroit franchise just to secure the services of Friedman. A versatile player, Friedman could run, kick and pass the ball better than any player who preceded him. From 1927-30, Friedman threw 11, nine, 20, and 13 touchdown passes, leading the league each year. In 1928, he topped the league in both rushing touchdowns and touchdown passes; no other player has ever accomplished that feat. His 20 touchdown passes in 1929, including four in one game, were both NFL records for years. Although very durable, a knee injury coupled with the rigors of serving as an assistant coach at Yale, Friedman's productivity dropped in 1931. Still the player-coach managed to earn third-team All-NFL honors that year and second-team All-NFL honors in 1933.

RAY FLAHERTY

END, COACH

GONZAGA

ENSHRINED IN 1976

Flaherty played for the Giants from 1928-29 and 1931-35 and helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship Game in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He spent the 1930 season coaching at Gonzaga. Flaherty finished with an 80-37-5 record as a coach with the Boston Redskins, Washington Redskins, New York Yankees and Chicago Hornets. Flaherty introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game when the Washington Redskins scored a 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears. He suggested to Coach Steve Owen that the Giants wear sneakers in the icy conditions at the Polo Grounds in the 1934 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

JOE GUYON

HALFBACK

CARLISLE

ENSHRINED IN 1966

Guyon played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. His career highlight was catching a touchdown pass that gave the Giants a win over the Bears for the 1927 NFL championship. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs in 1920, the Cleveland Indians in 1921, Oorang Indians from 1922-23, the Rock Island Independents in 1924 and the Kansas City Cowboys from 1924-25.

ENSHRINED IN 1970

McElhenny played for the Giants in 1963, when he helped them advance to the championship game. His career totals include 5,281 yards rushing and 360 points. On his first play as a professional, McElhenny scored on a 40-yard touchdown run. He also played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1952-60, the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-62 and the Detroit Lions in 1964.

ARNIE HERBER

QUARTERBACK

ENSHRINED IN 1966

Herber played for the Giants in 1944 and 1945. Pro football's first great long passer, Herber was the NFL passing leader in 1932, 1934 and 1936. Herber came out of retirement in 1944 to lead the Giants to the NFL Eastern Division crown. He also played for the Green Bay Packers from 1930-40, and ranks fifth in Packers annals with 64 career touchdowns.

FRAN

QUARTERBACK

ENSHRINED IN 1986

Tarkenton played for the Giants from 1967-71. He began his career with the Minnesota Vikings in 1961 before moving to the Giants in 1967 and back to the Vikings in 1972 in blockbuster trades. He retired as the NFL's record holder for career passing yards with 47,003. An elusive scrambler, Tarkenton rushed for 3,674 yards and 32 touchdowns. A four-time All-NFL and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he led the Vikings to Super Bowl appearances in 1973, 1974 and 1976.

DON MAYNARD

WIDE RECEIVER

ENSHRINED IN 1987

Maynard played for the Giants in 1958. He went on to play for the New York Titans from 1960-62, the New York Jets from 1963-72 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. He caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7-yard average) and 88 touchdowns. He had at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. Maynard caught eight passes for 118 yards, including the winning touchdown, against Oakland in the AFL Championship game to help the Jets advance to Super Bowl III.

HALFBACK

ENSHRINED IN 1963

Thorpe played for the Giants during their first season in 1925. He was a charter inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Thorpe was the biggest name in football at the time the Giants signed him at the age of 37. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Oorang Indians, Toledo Maroons, Rock Island Independents and the Chicago Cardinals. He was the first president of the American Professional Football Association in 1920.

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

In 2010, the Giants unveiled their Ring of Honor, which commemorates some of the most prominent and influential figures in the 87-year history of the franchise. The original class of 30 players, coaches, executives and owners was joined by five more honorees in 2011. These men have helped the Giants win eight NFL championships and more than 650 games and contributed to them becoming one of the most respected and admired organizations in professional sports.

The names of the men in the Ring of Honor are prominently displayed at each Giants home game in MetLife Stadium above the club level on each sideline.

TIM MARA

Tim Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved in the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The Chicago Bears arrived at the Polo Grounds with the most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, who helped draw a crowd of more than 70,000 people. After seeing so many people attend a Giants game, Mara decided that professional football could be a big success under the right circumstances. He bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. Mara helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse and was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WELLINGTON MARA

It is impossible to overstate the influence Wellington Mara had on the Giants and in the NFL. He was one of the most important and influential figures in the history of professional football, a man credited with many of the ideas and innovations that have made the NFL the nation's most popular professional sports league. Mara is the most beloved and influential Giant in history and one of the most significant figures not just in the NFL, but in American sports. He was a vital member of the franchise for each of its first 81 years until his death in 2005. Mara was instrumental in helping the Giants make 26 postseason appearances, including 18 divisional championships and six NFL championships, among them the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV titles. Despite his ties to the team, Mara was recognized for always putting the league's interests ahead of what was best for the Giants. He was an invaluable contributor to the NFL as a member of many ownership committees. In 1997, Mara was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining his father, Tim Mara, as the first father-son duo elected to the Hall.

JACK MARA

During the very first game the Giants ever played in 1925, Jack Mara followed each play along the sidelines as he held the first down marker. It wasn't long before he held far more important jobs in the organization. Mara was only 22 years old in 1930 when his father, Tim, turned over the ownership of the Giants to him and his younger brother Wellington, who was all of 14. He served as the team's president for 31 years and was in charge of the Giants' business operations. Jack Mara was the driving force behind one of the most significant decisions in franchise history, to move the Giants' home games to Yankee Stadium from the crumbling Polo Grounds prior to the 1956 season. Tim Mara defeted Yankees owner Dan Topping, so it was Jack who negotiated the deal that saved the financial future of the franchise. Jack Mara also lobbied the owners to share television revenue, which helped create the parity that has made pro football America's favorite spectator sport.

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

BOB TISCH

Preston Robert Tisch – "Bob" to everyone who knew him – realized a longtime dream in 1991, when he became co-owner of the Giants. Soon after the Giants won Super Bowl XXV, Tisch completed negotiations with Tim Mara (son of Jack Mara) and his family for a 50 percent interest in the team. That commenced Tisch's career as an owner of a professional sports franchise, one of many he simultaneously pursued. Tisch led an extraordinarily accomplished life. He was an enormously successful businessman, an extremely generous philanthropist, a postmaster general, a friend of presidents, governors and mayors and a nonpareil New York City mover and shaker. But nothing gave Tisch more pleasure and pride than being the co-owner of the Giants and working on several influential NFL ownership committees. As a member of the National Football League's Finance and Super Bowl Policy Committees, he attained a prominence in the sports arena equal to his position in the world of business.

GEORGE YOUNG

George Young was hired as the Giants general manager on Feb. 14, 1979 and stayed in that position through the 1997 season. He led the franchise out of the bleak 1970s and brought in great players such as Taylor, Simms, Joe Morris, Mark Bavaro and Carl Banks. Young hired Parcells, the head coach of two Super Bowl champions. During his tenure, the Giants earned eight playoff berths, highlighted by victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV, and compiled an overall record of 155-139-2. He was named NFL Executive of the Year an unprecedented five times – 1984, 1986, 1990, 1993, and 1997. Young also served as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee.

STEVE OWEN

Owen was a four-time All-NFL tackle who played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the NFL title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. But Owen made his greatest imprint on the sideline, where he coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owen had a coaching record of 153-100-17 and won eight division and two NFL titles. The 153 victories are still the Giants record. Some of his coaching innovations included the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system. Owen was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1966.

JIM LEE HOWELL

Jim Lee Howell was the Giants' head coach from 1954-60. He quickly added two future Hall of Fame coaches to his staff, Vince Lombardi to lead the offense and Tom Landry, whom he converted from a player, to coach the defense. In Howell's seven seasons as head coach, the Giants played in three NFL Championship Games and defeated George Halas's Chicago Bears, 47-7, in 1956. Howell's regular season record was 53-27-4 record, a .630 winning percentage. He coached six future Pro Football Hall of Fame players in Huff, Robustelli, Brown, Tunnell, Gifford and Don Maynard. Howell stayed with the Giants as Director of Player Personnel until his retirement in 1981.

BILL PARCELLS

When Parcells began coaching the Giants in 1983, the team had finished with a winning record just once in the previous 10 seasons. Parcells led the Giants to the playoffs in his second and third seasons. In 1986, he coached one of the greatest teams in Giants history. That year, the Giants won their last 12 games and finished 17-2, including a 39-20 rout of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. Four years later, Parcells led the Giants to a 20-19 victory over the favored Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. He left the team after that season with a 77-49-1 regular season record. The 77 victories are the second-most in team history, behind Owen's 153. Parcells holds the Giants' record with eight postseason wins.

MEL HEIN

Hein joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons, a team record matched only by Simms and Strahan. He was named All-NFL eight consecutive years from 1933-

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. He joined the Giants after the team submitted the highest salary bid at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. He never missed a game in high school, college or the NFL. Hein took time out only in two games and was injured only once. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1938 after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the NFL Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the Polo Grounds. Hein was a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 1963.

KEN STRONG

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47. He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants' career scoring leader with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 championship game over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career. Strong was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967.

TUFFY LEEMANS

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was personally scouted by Wellington Mara and was a second-round draft choice in the inaugural NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career. He was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1978.

EMLEN TUNNELL

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948 and played 11 seasons for the team. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a tryout. Tunnell was the first African-American player signed by the Giants. Fifty-two years after playing his last game for the team, he still holds Giants records with 74 interceptions and 261 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kickoff returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls. Tunnell was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967.

FRANK GIFFORD

A Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee in 1977, Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily retired in 1961 due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first choice in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. He rushed for 3,609 yards, caught 367 passes and scored 484 points. Gifford was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL history. He played in seven Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. Gifford holds the Giants record with 78 touchdowns. A true triple-threat back, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and returned in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including their victory in 1956.

ROSIE BROWN

Roosevelt Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was selected All-NFL eight consecutive seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the league title, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was a big, strong blocker who had the speed to make a block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, a position he held from 1971 until his death in 2004. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966. Brown was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

SAM HUFF

Huff became an immediate star at middle linebacker after he was drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 following an All-America career at West Virginia. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, including Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. He was named the NFL's Outstanding Lineman in 1959. Huff anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. He was traded to the Washington Redskins prior to the 1964 season and has been a color analyst on the Redskins radio broadcasts for many years. Huff was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1982.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

Robustelli was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams championship teams. In 1956, Wellington Mara traded for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants' title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. He played in eight NFL championship title games and seven Pro Bowls. Robustelli was named All-NFL seven times, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career. He was the Giants' general manager prior to George Young. He was a 1971 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee.

Y.A. TITTLE

The Giants engineered one of the best trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern Division championship. Tittle played two seasons in the All-American Conference and 11 in the NFL before joining the Giants. In 1962, Tittle set an NFL record by throwing 33 touchdown passes and tied another mark with seven scoring throws in one game. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963, when he led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes broke his own league mark and set a Giants record that still stands. Tittle's career totals include 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with more than 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957, when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the honor again in 1961 and 1963, as he took the Giants to Eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

HARRY CARSON

Carson played his entire career with the Giants from 1976-88. An inside linebacker, he was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, including seven in a row from 1982-88. Carson led the Giants in tackles six times, was a two-time All-NFL first team selection and was the sole captain of the 1986 Super Bowl champions. Carson joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice from South Carolina State, where he never missed a game in four seasons, was a two-year captain and a Little All-America selection by the Associated Press. A defensive end in college, Carson successfully moved to linebacker with the Giants so quickly and so successfully that he was voted to the NFL All-Rookie team. Carson played 173 games in a Giants uniform — tying him with Keith Hamilton for seventh all-time — and he was a punishing run defender who also intercepted 11 passes. Carson had 17 sacks, 14 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles. He had 25 tackles (20 solo) in a Monday night game against Green Bay in 1982 and seven tackles in the Giants' 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. During his prime, Carson was the best run-stopping linebacker in the NFL. In the seven seasons from 1981 to 1987, Giants' opponents averaged only 3.59 yards per rushing attempt, a remarkable achievement for so long a period. During that period, Carson was credited with 856 tackles, including 627 unassisted tackles. He was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR

Taylor joined the Giants as the second overall selection of the 1981 NFL Draft and played his entire 13-year career for the team. When Taylor retired, he was the

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

NFL's No. 2 all-time sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1981 and the NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times (the award was established in 1984), as well as the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986 and September 1989. Taylor was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. He was a unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1986, when he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1999.

AL BLOZIS

Al Blozis played just three seasons for the Giants, 1942-44. He immediately made a favorable impression on the team after arriving in 1942 and quickly earned a starting assignment at tackle. Blozis played in the 1944 championship game against Green Bay. Immediately after the Giants' loss to the Packers, Blozis was sent overseas to fight in World War II. An Army lieutenant, he was killed in action in France just six weeks later. The Giants retired Blozis' No. 32 jersey.

CHARLIE CONERLY

Conerly is often called the best Giants player not in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He played his entire career with the Giants from 1948-61 and was a vital member of the 1956 NFL Championship team. Conerly was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1948, the league's Most Valuable Player in 1959 and a Pro Bowler in 1950 and '56. Conerly ranks third in franchise history in pass attempts (2,833), fourth in completions (1,418), second in yards (19,488, though he's about to be overtaken by Eli Manning) and second in touchdown passes (173). He is also first in Giants history with 167 interceptions.

DICK LYNCH

Lynch was traded to the Giants by the Washington Redskins following the 1958 season for a 1960 fourth-round draft choice. He played for the Giants from 1959-66, a period in which the team played in four NFL Championship Games. Lynch played in 97 regular season games for the Giants (109 in his career) and intercepted 35 passes. In both 1961 and 1963, he led the NFL with nine interceptions. In '63, he also led the league with 251 return yards and three touchdowns. Lynch scored seven career touchdowns, four on interception returns and three on fumble returns.

Although he had a great playing career, Lynch is best known to legions of Giants fans for his 40 years as the analyst on the team's radio broadcast. His last game in the booth was the Giants' epic Super Bowl XLII victory over New England. Lynch died nine months later. "Dick was such an important part of our organization for so many years that we really considered him part of the family," John Mara said.

JOE MORRISON

Morrison was a back and an end for the Giants from 1959 through 1972. A dominant figure during his 14-year career, he totaled 2,472 rushing yards and 18 touchdowns. He also caught 395 passes — the third-highest total in franchise history - for 4,993 yards and 47 scores. A versatile player, Morrison played six different positions: fullback, halfback, flanker, tight end, split end and defensive back. Morrison's No. 40 jersey has been retired by the franchise.

PETE GOGOLAK

Gogolak played for the Giants from 1966-74 and is the highest-scoring player in the history of the franchise with 646 points — 120 more than runner-up Brad DaLuiso. He also owns the franchise records for field goals (126) and extra points (268). Beyond his prowess as a kicker, Gogolak is a significant figure in the history of pro football. When he moved from the Buffalo Bills to the Giants, Gogolak became the first prominent player to leave the upstart American Football League for the NFL. Wellington Mara signed him after watching rookie Bob Timberlake miss 13 consecutive field goal attempts. Gogolak was also pro football's first soccer style kicker. Prior to Gogolak, placekickers approached the ball straight on, with the toe making first contact with the ball. Gogolak, who was born and played soccer in Hungary, approached the ball at an angle and kicked it with his instep — the style all kickers use today.

GEORGE MARTIN

Martin joined the Giants as an 11th-round draft choice in 1975, the 262nd overall pick. A long shot to survive his first training camp, Martin stayed with the Giants for his entire 14-year career. He played in 201 regular season games to become one of just three players in team history to cross the 200-games barrier (Strahan played in 216 games and Howard Cross played in 207).

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

Martin was a leader and catalyst on the 1986 Super Bowl champions (he sacked John Elway for a safety in Super Bowl XXI). He had a knack for making the big play, scoring six touchdowns, a record for NFL defensive linemen since broken by Miami's Jason Taylor. Martin also caught a touchdown pass when he lined up as a tight end in 1980. He is perhaps happiest that he is joining his close friend Carson in the Ring of Honor.

PHIL SIMMS

Simms was George Young's first draft choice in 1979 and he played his entire 15-year with the Giants. He overcame a series of injuries early in his career to become the most productive quarterback in team history. Simms holds the Giants career records for pass attempts (4,647), completions (2,576), yards (33,462) and touchdowns (199). He was 95-64 (.597) as a regular season starter and 6-4 in the playoffs. But Simms is best remembered for his almost flawless performance in leading the Giants to victory in Super Bowl XXI. He completed 22 of 25 passes — including all 10 of his throws in the second half — for 268 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions in a 39-20 rout of the Denver Broncos. In one of the easiest votes in history, he was selected the game's Most Valuable Player.

MICHAEL STRAHAN

Few players in Giants history were as dependable and productive as Strahan. He seldom missed a practice and played in a franchise-record 216 regular season games. Beginning in 1996, he played in 136 consecutive games before tearing his pectoral muscle midway through the 2004 season. Strahan was selected to seven Pro Bowls, was named the 2001 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and was the Giants' Most Valuable Player that year and in 1998. He was a captain on the 2007 Super Bowl championship team. His 141.5 sacks are the highest official total in team history (Taylor had 142.0 but 9.5 as a rookie in 1981, the year before sacks became an official statistic) and the fifth-highest total in NFL history. He set the league's single-season sack record with 22.5 in 2001 and his NFL-best 18.5 sacks in 2003 made him the Giants' only two-time league leader in that category. Strahan's 868 tackles indicates he was also an excellent defender against the run.

JESSIE ARMSTEAD

Armstead, a five-time Pro Bowler, was the 207th player chosen in the 1993 draft, and the last of the Giants' seven selections (the first-round pick had been used on quarterback Dave Brown in the previous year's supplemental draft). Three of the seven players taken were linebackers: Marcus Buckley (No. 66) and Tommy Thigpen (No. 123), who never did much, and Armstead, who did it all. Armstead's draft was the last that had an eighth round. He was a special teams dynamo and top-flight reserve his first three seasons before becoming the starting weakside linebacker in 1996. Armstead had a team-high 114 tackles, the first of five consecutive seasons with a more than 100. The next year, he had a career-best 134 stops, was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was a catalyst as the Giants won the NFC East title. In 2000 he had one of his best seasons and the Giants routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game.

AMANI TOOMER

Toomer joined the Giants in 1996 as a second-round draft choice from Michigan and played his entire 13-year career with the team. He played in 190 regular season games, the fourth-highest total in Giants history. He also played in 11 postseason games, scoring two touchdowns in the Giants' victory over the Cowboys in a 2007 NFC Divisional Playoff Game and finishing with a team-high six receptions in the Super Bowl XLII triumph over New England. Toomer holds franchise records for catches (668), receiving yards (9,497), touchdown catches (54) and 100-yard receiving games (22). He finished his career with 82 more receptions than runner-up Barber (586) and 4,063 more yards than former record-holder Gifford (5,434). Toomer caught at least one pass in a Giants-record 98 consecutive games before the streak ended in the 2005 season opener vs. Arizona. He holds the Giants' single-season record with 1,343 receiving yards in 2002. Toomer had the three highest single-season receptions totals in team history until Steve Smith shattered his former mark of 82 with 107 catches last year. Toomer also holds the Giants postseason records for receptions (44), yards (608) and touchdowns (seven). No one else in Giants playoff history has more than three postseason touchdown catches. In addition, Toomer is second in Giants history with 10,924 total yards (Barber is first with 17,359). His total includes 1,060 yards on punt returns, 257 yards on kickoff returns and 110 yards rushing.

TIKI BARBER

Barber joined the Giants as a second-round draft choice in 1997. When he retired following his 10th season in 2006, his name was all over the franchise's record book.

GIANTS IN THE RING OF HONOR

Barber owns the Giants marks for rushing attempts in a career (2,217) and in a season (357 in 2005) and rushing yards in a career (10,440), a season (1,860 in 2005) and a game (234 at Washington on Dec. 20, 2006 in his final regular season game). Barber has the top three and four of the top five single-season rushing totals in Giants history and the two highest game totals. His 38 100-yard games are twice as many as No. 2 Joe Morris and his nine 100-yard games in 2004 is another record. Barber has the longest run from scrimmage in Giants history (95 yards at Oakland on Dec. 31, 2005) and his 55 rushing touchdowns are another one of his records. Barber's 17,359 all-purpose yards give him another record. He owns the Giants' top five single-season total yardage figures. Another one of his records is 13 catches at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000. Barber is also second in franchise history with 586 career receptions. He was selected to three Pro Bowls (2004-06).

ALEX WEBSTER

Webster played his entire 10-year career (1955-64) for the Giants. He played in 109 games and 47 years after his retirement, he is fourth on the Giants' career lists with 4,638 rushing yards and 1,196 carries. He also caught 240 passes for 2,679 yards and scored 56 touchdowns (39 rushing, 17 receiving). Webster was the second-leading rusher and scorer and the third-leading receiver for the 1956 NFL champion Giants. He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1958 and 1961, when he ran for a career-high 928 yards. Webster was the Giants' head coach from 1969-73. Webster passed away on March 3, 2012, just three months after being inducted into the Ring of Honor.

BRAD VAN PELT

Van Pelt played for the Giants from 1973-83, when the team had only one winning record, but he was one of the team's very best players. Van Pelt joined Carson, Brian Kelley and later Lawrence Taylor to form the famed group of linebackers known as the "Crunch Bunch." He was selected to play in the Pro Bowl every season from 1976-80. Van Pelt played in 143 games for the Giants in four home stadiums - Yankee Stadium, Yale Bowl, Shea Stadium and Giants Stadium – and for five head coaches - Bill Arnsparger, John McVay, Ray Perkins and Bill Parcells. He had 16 interceptions for the Giants. Van Pelt died on Feb. 17, 2009.

CARL BANKS

Banks was the third overall selection of the 1984 NFL Draft and played for the Giants through the 1992 season. He was one of the premier run-stoppers of his era, a standout on the teams that won Super Bowls XXI and XXV, a Pro Bowler in 1987 and a member of the NFL 1980's All-Decade Team. Banks played in 126 regular season games and had 36.0 sacks, three interceptions and approximately 500 tackles. Banks is still closely affiliated with the Giants; since 2007, he has been an analyst on the Giants' radio broadcasts.

MARK BAVARO

Bavaro is one of the finest all-around tight ends in Giants history. An outstanding blocker, he is also 10th on the franchise's career list with 266 receptions and 15th with 3,722 yards. Bavaro was a starter on the Giants' 1986 and 1990 Super Bowl championship teams and a Pro Bowler in 1986 and '87. In the Giants' first Super Bowl season, Bavaro led the team with 66 catches – twice as many as any teammate – for 1,001 yards to become the only tight end in Giants history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

DAVE JENNINGS

Jennings is the most prolific punter in Giants history. A member of the team from 1974-84, Jennings holds the franchise records for punts (931) and yards (38,792). He was selected to play in the Pro Bowl in 1978, '79, '80 and '82. He punted a career-high 104 times in 1979, twice punted for more than 4,000 yards in a season and had a career-best 44.8-yard average in 1980.

GIANTS ALL-TIME ROSTER

This list is comprised of players who have been on the Giants' game-day active roster for at least one game. It does not mean they actually played in a game, but only that they were on the active roster on the day of game, even if they were inactive for that particular game. It also includes players who were on injured reserve and the physically unable to perform list and did not appear in a game. This list was compiled with the assistance of John Berti.

GIANTS POSTSEASON CAPSULES

1927*

NFL CHAMPIONS

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen would say later. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Bears out of the end zone. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain that set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara and the Giants.

* Victory clinched the NFL Championship- there was no Championship game in 1927.

1990-GIANTS 15, 49ers 13

NFC Championship

Jan. 20, 1991 at Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun...Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced a fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons that set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana that knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries.

Super Bowl XXV

WORLD CHAMPIONS

As if the Giants' NFC title win over the 49ers was not exciting enough, this Super Bowl championship win over the Bills was every bit as thrilling and, in fact, has been called the best Super Bowl game ever...Gutsy Giants bounced back from a 12-3 deficit to take a 17-12 lead after a Super Bowl record 9:29 drive in the third period, gave up a go-ahead Bills' TD, and then won it when Matt Bahr drilled a 21-yard FG late in the game and when his counterpart, Scott Norwood of the Bills, misfired on a 47-yard attempt with four seconds left...Otis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and won the MVP Award as the Giants also set an all-time Super Bowl record with 40:33 possession time.

NFC Wild Card Game

Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuaad Reveiz 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

1993- 49ers 44, GIANTS 3

NFC Divisional Playoff Game

Jan. 15, 1994 at Candlestick Park (67,143)

The '94ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

1997- VIKINGS 23, GIANTS 22

NFC Wild Card Game

Dec. 27, 1997 at Giants Stadium (77,710)

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to Minnesota. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game

Jan. 7, 2001 at Giants Stadium (78,765)

The Giants won their ninth consecutive game against Philadelphia without scoring an offensive touchdown, thanks to a dominant defensive performance. Rookie Ron Dixon gave the Giants an instant lead when he returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. The Giants increased their lead to 10-0 on Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal on the first play of the second period. Jason Sehorn made it 17-0 when he scored on a spectacular 32-yard interception return in which he fell to the ground while tipping the ball in the air, then jumped up and grabbed the ball before racing to the end zone. Daluiso later added a 25-yard field goal. The Giants defense held Philadelphia to 186 total yards (46 on the ground) and 11 first downs.

In one of the most dominant performances ever in a championship game, the Giants raced to a 34-0 halftime lead and crushed the Vikings to advance to their first Super Bowl in 10 years. The Giants rolled up 518 total yards and 31 first downs, while the defense limited Minnesota's heralded attack to 114 yards and nine first downs. Quarterback Kerry Collins played the finest game of his career, completing 28 of 39 passes for 381 yards and five touchdowns. Ike Hilliard caught 10 passes for 155 yards and two scores. Collins' 46-yard pass to Hilliard gave the Giants a 7-0 lead just four plays into the game. After the Giants recovered a Minnesota fumble on the ensuing kickoff, Collins hit Greg Comella for another score and a 14-0 lead. In the second period, Joe Jurevicius and Hilliard caught touchdown passes and Brad Daluiso kicked a pair of field goals. Amani Toomer closed out the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown reception. For the first time in three Super Bowl appearances the Giants came up flat and lost to the Ravens. The Giants could not get untracked against Baltimore's highly-rated defense, gaining only 152 yards (66 on the ground) and picking up 11 first downs (2 rushing). Quarterback Kerry Collins struggled, completing only 15 of 39 passes for 112 yards and four interceptions. Brad Maynard punted a Super Bowl-record 11 times for a 38.4-yard average. The Giants defense played well, limiting the Ravens to 244 yards and 13 first downs. Baltimore took a 7-0 lead in the first period on a 38-yard pass from Trent Dilfer to Brandon Stokley. Matt Stover added a 47-yard field goal in the second period for a 10-0 halftime lead. The Ravens advantage grew to 17-0 when Duane Starks intercepted a Collins pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown early in the third period. The Giants responded with their only touchdown of the day, on Ron Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return. But Baltimore immediately scored on the next kickoff, as Jermaine Lewis returned it 84 yards for a score and a 31-7 lead. Jamal Lewis, who rushed for 102 yards, scored on a 3-yard run and Stover kicked a 34-yard field goal in the fourth period.

NFC Wild Card Game

Jan. 5, 2003 at Candlestick Park (66,318)

The Giants' season ended with a shocking and heartbreaking defeat as they wasted a 38-14 third-quarter lead and fell to the 49ers. Four touchdown passes by Kerry Collins — three to Amani Toomer and one to Jeremy Shockey — a touchdown run by Tiki Barber and Matt Bryant's field goal gave the Giants what seemed to be a commanding 24-point lead with 4:27 left in the third quarter. But the 49ers mounted a quick and complete comeback. Terrell Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia, who then ran 14 yards for another score. Jeff Chandler's 25-yard field goal pulled San Francisco to within 38-33. With 1:00 remaining, Garcia threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Tai Streets. The 2-point conversion attempt failed, but the Niners had a 1-point lead. The Giants had a chance to pull the game out. After Delvin Joyce's 32-yard kickoff return, the Giants drove from their own 48-yard line to the San Francisco 23. Matt Bryant lined up for what could have been the game-winning 41-yard field goal. But Trey Junkin's snap was low and wide. Holder Matt Allen took off and threw a desperation pass toward Rich Seubert, a guard who was an eligible receiver on the play. Seubert was interfered with by Chike Okeafor, but the officials did not throw a flag and the game ended as a huge disappointment for the Giants.

The Giants lost a playoff game in Giants Stadium for just the third time when they fell to the Carolina Panthers, 23-0. Carolina dominated the game, holding big advantages in offensive plays (71-35), time of possession (42:45-17:15), first down (23-9), total yards (335-132) and rushing yards (223-41). The Giants hurt themselves with five turnovers, including three Eli Manning interceptions on consecutive possessions in the second half (two by Marlon McCree and one by Ken Lucas). Manning also fumbled late in the game. The Giants converted just one of seven third-down opportunities. Steve Smith caught a touchdown pass and ran in for another score and John Kasay kicked three field goals for the Panthers. DeShaun Foster rushed for 151 yards on 27 carries, a 5.6-yard average that was reflective of the Giants' tackling difficulties throughout the game. Jake Delhomme completed 15 of 22 passes for 140 yards. Smith had 10 of those receptions. For the Giants, Tiki Barber rushed for 41 yards, or 75 yards less than his regular season average. Manning completed 10 of 18 passes for 113 yards and was sacked four times. Jeremy Shockey, Amani Toomer and Barber had three catches apiece. Smith scored the game's first points on a 22-yard touchdown reception. Later in the second quarter, a Carolina punt bounced off Gibril Wilson's leg and was recovered by the Panthers, setting up Kasay's 21-yard field goal. Smith scored on a 12-yard reverse immediately following Manning's first interception and Kasay added two fourth-quarter field goals.

David Akers' 38-yard field goal as time expired sent the Giants to a second Wild Card game defeat in as many seasons, 23-20, to the Eagles in Philadelphia. The Giants overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to tie the score, but couldn't prevent the Eagles from driving 46 yards in the final 5:04 for the game-winning score. Tiki Barber rushed for 137 yards in his final NFL game, Eli Manning completed 16 of 27 passes for 161 yards and Plaxico Burress had two touchdown receptions. The Giants also got a pair of field goals from Jay Feely. The Eagles scored on a 49-yard touchdown run by Brian Westbrook, Jeff Garcia's 28-yard touchdown pass to Donte Stallworth and three Akers field goals. Akers' 48-yard field goal — the longest in Philadelphia postseason history — increased the Eagles' advantage to 20-10 with 2:37 remaining in the third quarter. Feely's 24-yard field goal pulled the Giants to within 20-13 just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter. They tied the game at 20-20 when Eli Manning found Burress in the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 5:04 remaining. Burress' second touchdown capped a 13-play, 80-yard drive in the rain that took 7:09 to complete. The Giants needed a stop so they could get the ball back and try to win a game. But they never owed the ball again. Westbrook's 13-yard run gave Philly a first down on the Giants' 19-yard line with 1:48 remaining. From there, the Eagles bled the clock until they called timeout with three seconds left. Akers then booted the game-winner.

NFC Wild Card Game

Jan. 6, 2008 at Raymond James Stadium (65,621)

Before the Giants opened postseason play in an NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay, Tom Coughlin had a simple message for his players: "Let's keep playing." So they did. Carrying their season-long road success into the playoffs, the Giants prevailed, 24-14, over the NFC South champion Buccaneers. They broke a four-game postseason losing streak that began in Super Bowl XXXV – in Raymond James Stadium, the home of the Bucs. The Giants also won their first playoff road game since the 1990 NFC Championship Game in San Francisco. They defeated Bucs quarterback Jeff Garcia, who had beaten them in the playoffs with the 49ers in 2002 and Philadelphia in 2006. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants, one on a five-yard reception, the other on an eight-yard run. Jacobs became the first Giants player in history with a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same postseason game. Amani Toomer caught a touchdown pass and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 25-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning completed 20 of 27 passes for 185 yards, the two touchdowns and no interceptions as the Giants won a postseason game for the first time with him taking the snaps. The Giants entered the game with a minus-nine turnover differential, or minus-24 relative to the Bucs' plus-15. Yet they had three takeaways to none for the Bucs. The first, a fumble recovery by Corey Webster on the second-half kickoff, led to Tynes' field goal. The second, a Webster interception in the end zone, likely denied the Bucs points. The third, a pick by R.W. McQuarters with 1:53 remaining, sealed the deal. The Giants played without center Shaun O'Hara (knee) and cornerback Sam Madison (abdominal). But Grey Ruegamer and Webster filled in superbly (the corner holding Joey Galloway to one nine-yard reception). They were among a large cast of key contributors. Toomer had a game-high seven catches for 74 yards. Rookie Ahmad Bradshaw came off the bench to rush for a game-high 66 yards. Michael Strahan had a career postseason high of nine tackles (eight solo). Gerris Wilkinson, who started for Kawika Mitchell (knee), had seven tackles (five solo). Tank Daniels had two special teams tackles and forced the fumble that Webster recovered. Zak DeOssie also had two special teams tackles. The offensive line allowed only one sack. Tampa Bay took an early lead on Earnest Graham's one-yard run, but Jacobs' two touchdowns gave the Giants a 14-7 halftime advantage. The first score successfully concluded an eight-play, 53-yard drive that took 4:04 to complete. Manning completed five passes for 49 yards in the series. Toomer accounted for 40 yards on three catches. On their next series, the Giants drove 65 yards in seven plays. The biggest play of the series was Manning's 21-yard pass to Steve Smith on third-and-two. Tynes' field goal and Toomer's touchdown midway through the fourth quarter extended the Giants' lead to 24-7 before Tampa Bay added a late score. Toomer scored at the end of a 15-play, 92-yard drive that featured 38 yards rushing by Bradshaw and three Toomer receptions for 27 yards.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game

Jan. 13, 2008 at Texas Stadium (63,650)

The Giants avenged their only road defeat of the season, a 45-35 opening-night loss, with a 21-17 victory over the top-seeded Dallas Cowboys in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Texas Stadium. The Cowboys had defeated the Giants twice in the regular season. The Giants became the first team to beat the NFC's No. 1 seed in the divisional round since the current postseason format (six teams from each conference) was adopted in 1990. Amani Toomer scored a pair of touchdowns on receptions of 52 and four yards from Eli Manning. Brandon Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run with 13:29 remaining provided the Giants with the game-winning points. But the victory was not assured until R.W. McQuarters intercepted Tony Romo's pass for Terry Glenn in the end zone with nine seconds remaining. It was the game's only takeaway. Manning had career-high 132.4 passer rating after completing 12 of 18 passes for 163 yards, the two scores to Toomer and no interceptions. The Giants played with a severely depleted secondary. Sam Madison (stomach) and Kevin Dockery (hip flexor) were inactive. A third cornerback, Aaron Ross, left the game for good in the third quarter with a shoulder injury. That left Corey Webster, McQuarters and Geoffrey Pope – who spent the entire regular season on the practice squad before joining on the active roster on Dec. 31 – as the only healthy corners. All played extensively in the second half. The secondary, aided by a relentless second-half pass rush, stayed strong throughout the game. The Cowboys scored on Tony Romo's five-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens and Marion Barber's one-yard run in the second quarter and Nick Folk's 34-yard field goal in the third. Romo completed 18 of 36 passes for 201 yards and his 64.7 rating was less than half of Manning's. Toomer took a short Manning pass into a 52-yard touchdown on the Giants' fifth offensive play. After Dallas took a 14-7 lead, Manning led the Giants on a 71-yard drive in the final minute of the half that ended with a four-yard scoring pass to Toomer and a 14-14 halftime tie. Folk gave the Cowboys a 17-14 lead before Jacobs' touchdown on the third play of the fourth quarter gave the Giants the lead for good. But the Cowboys had one last chance when they took possession at the Giants' 48-yard line with 1:50 remaining. Dallas soon faced second-and-11 at the 23. Two incomplete passes left them staring at a fourth down with the seasons of both teams hanging in the balance. Owens was double covered, so Romo threw to the center of the end zone for Terry Glenn. But McQuarters stepped up and picked off the pass, sending the Giants to the NFC Championship Game.

Jan. 20, 2008 at Lambeau Field (72,740)

The coldest game in Giants history was also one of the most memorable and satisfying the franchise has ever played. The Giants overcame the elements – and the Packers – to defeat Green Bay in overtime, 23-20, in the NFC Championship Game in frigid Lambeau Field. Lawrence Tynes provided the game-winning points when he kicked a 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed in overtime. Tynes had missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final play of regulation. It was the first time in the history of Lambeau that a visiting player had kicked a field goal of more than 40 yards in a postseason game. The score was set up by Corey Webster's interception on the second play of overtime of Brett Favre's final career pass. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with winds of 12 miles-on-hour – a numbing wind chill of minus-23. In terms of temperature alone, this was the third-coldest NFL game on record. At the famed Ice Bowl between the Packers and Dallas Cowboys in Lambeau on Dec. 31, 1967, it was 13 below zero at kickoff. In the 1981 Chargers-Bengals AFC Championship Game in Cincinnati, it was nine below. Brandon Jacobs (one-yard run) and Ahmad Bradshaw (four-yard run) scored touchdowns and Tynes added a 29-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning set career postseason highs with 40 passes, 21 completions and 251 yards. Plaxico Burress established a franchise postseason record with 11 catches, for 151 yards. The old mark of 10 was set by Ike Hilliard in the 2000 NFC Championship Game victory over Minnesota. Defensively, the Giants held Green Bay to 28 rushing yards, forced Favre into two late interceptions and limited the Packers to one successful third down conversion on 10 tries. The Giants dominated the game statistically, outgaining Green Bay (380-264), rolling up 11 more first downs (24-13) and owning the ball for 40:01 to just 22:34 for the Packers. The Packers scored on Driver's 90-yard catch-and-run and Favre's 12-yard touchdown pass to Donald Lee, plus field goals by rookie Mason Crosby of 36 and 37 yards. Crosby's second field goal, with 11:46 remaining in the fourth quarter, tied the score at 20-20. The Giants had a chance to prevent the score when R.W. McQuarters intercepted a Favre pass at the eight-yard line. But McQuarters was hit by Ryan Grant and fumbled and the ball bounced right to Packers tackle Mark Tauscher, who plucked it out of the air at the 19. It was the Giants' first turnover of the postseason...In overtime, Favre threw a pass to Driver, but Webster stepped up and picked off the ball, returning it nine yards to the Green Bay 34-yard line. Ahmad Bradshaw gained five yards on two runs before Manning's pass for Steve Smith fell incomplete. Tynes then sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with one of the biggest field goals in franchise history.

Super Bowl XLII

Feb. 3, 2008

WORLD CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl XLII had a perfect ending, but the unexpected twist was that it belonged to the Giants. Eli Manning engineered a fourth quarter comeback drive for the ages and concluded perhaps the greatest postseason run in NFL history as the underdog Giants upset the previously undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14, in Super Bowl XLII in University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants won their third championship of the Super Bowl era — the first in 17 years — and seventh overall in what will surely be remembered as one of the most exciting title games in NFL history. It was the first of 42 Super Bowls in which the lead changed hands three times in the fourth quarter. Plaxico Burress scored the game-winning points with only 35 seconds remaining on a 13-yard pass from Manning. The score concluded a 12-play, 83-yard drive that commenced immediately after New England had taken a 14-10 lead with less than three minutes remaining. Manning, voted the game's most valuable player, completed 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, two touchdowns and an interception, which deflected off Steve Smith's hands. David Tyree scored the Giants' first touchdown and made an unbelievable catch on the game-winning drive. Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs combined for 87 rushing yards. Amani Toomer caught six passes for 84 yards and Smith added five for 50 yards.

Lawrence Tynes kicked a 32-yard field goal, which ultimately proved to be the deciding points. The Giants' defense was magnificent. New England averaged almost 37 points a game in the regular season. The Giants held them to 14. The Patriots averaged 411.3 yards a game, but totaled only 274 in the Super Bowl. The Patriots rushed for only 45 yards and did not have a run longer than nine yards. Tom Brady was sacked five times. Brady's six-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss gave the Pats a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining. Cornerback Corey Webster slipped on the play and New England reached the end zone at the end of a 12-play, 80-yard drive. Manning responded by completing five of nine passes for 77 yards on the game-winning drive. The one everyone will long remember came on a third-and-five from the Giants' 44. Manning, seemingly about to be sacked, escaped, steadied himself and fired a pass down the middle of the field for Tyree, who was closely covered by safety Rodney Harrison. Both players jumped for the ball, which somehow landed on top of Tyree's helmet. But the receiver wrestled the ball away from Harrison for what may well be the greatest catch in Super Bowl history. The 32-yard gain gave the Giants a first down at the New England 24. Three players later, Smith picked up a huge first down and Manning followed with the game-winning throw to Burress.

The Giants picked a bad day to have a bad day and saw their championship reign has come to an end in a 23-11 home loss to the Philadelphia Eagles. The Giants lost just two home games in the 2008 season - both to Philadelphia. They outgained the Eagles, 307-276, including 138-59 on the ground, but were doomed by an inability to take advantage of opportunities in close. The Giants advanced as far as Philadelphia's 17-yard line three times - and had a first down on the 11 on their initial possession - but settled for field goals each time. The Giants converted only three of 13 third down opportunities. Their last five possessions ended, in order, with a missed field goal, twice on downs, an interception and a fumble. The Giants scored on John Carney field goals of 22, 34 and 36 yards and a safety when Donovan McNabb was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone. Carney also missed field goal attempts of 46 and 47 yards. Philadelphia got a one-yard touchdown run from McNabb, a one-yard scoring pass to tight end Brian Celek and David Akers field goals of 25, 35 yards and 20 yards. Brian Westbrook was held to 36 rushing yards and 10 receiving yards (on two catches).

The Giants used a smothering defense and an opportunistic, big-play offense to rout the Falcons, 24-2, their first post-season victory since Super Bowl XLII and their first home playoff win since the 2000 NFC Championship Game triumph over Minnesota. Eli Manning threw three touchdown passes - four and 72 yards to Hakeem Nicks and 27 yards to Mario Manningham. The Giants also got a 22-yard field goal from Lawrence Tynes. Manning completed 23 of 32 passes for 277 yards. Brandon Jacobs ran for a career postseason high 92 yards and Ahmad Bradshaw added 63 as the Giants ran for 172 yards, 50 more than their previous high total in the 2011 season. The Giants' 442 net yards was their third-highest total in a postseason game. The defense was even more dominant. The unit did not allow a point – the Falcons' only score was on a safety. Atlanta rushed for only 64 yards, including 41 on 15 carries by Michael Turner, who ran for 1,340 yards in the regular season. The Giants stopped the Falcons on 10 of 14 third down attempts and all three of their fourth-down conversion tries, including a pair of fourth-and-one quarterback sneaks by Matt Ryan.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
January 15, 2012 at Lambeau Field

For the second time in five seasons, the Giants traveled to Wisconsin in January and stunned a higher-seeded Green Bay Packers team. They rode a terrific defensive effort and three Eli Manning touchdown passes to defeat the top-seeded, 15-1, defending Super Bowl Champion Packers, 37-20, an NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Lambeau Field. It was the third time the Giants eliminated the defending Super Bowl champions from the playoffs. In 1985, the defeated the 49ers in an NFC Wild Card Game in Giants Stadium, 17-3 and five years later, they beat the Niners in San Francisco in the NFC Championship Game. The defense held a Packers team that had averaged 40.1 points at home to half its average and forced four turnovers. Manning completed 21 of 33 passes for a career postseason-high 330 yards and three touchdowns – 66 and 37 yards to Hakeem Nicks and four yards to Mario Manningham. The 37-yarder to Nicks was a Hail Mary on the final play of the second quarter. Brandon Jacobs scored on a 14-yard run and Lawrence Tynes kicked field goals of 31, 23 and 35 yards. The Packers scored on Aaron Rodgers touchdown passes of eight yards to fullback John Kuhn and 16 yards to wide receiver Donald Driver, plus Mason Crosby field goals of 47 and 35 yards.

GIANTS POSTSEASON CAPSULES

2011- GIANTS 20, 49ers 17 (OT)

NFC Championship Game
January 22, 2012 at Candlestick Park

The Giants again showed they know how to play exciting NFC championship games. More importantly, they know how to win them. Just as they did four years earlier, the Giants advanced to the Super Bowl with a thrilling overtime victory on the road in the conference title game. In rainy and windy Candlestick Park, Lawrence Tynes kicked a 31-yard field goal with 7:54 elapsed in the extra period to give the Giants a 20-17 victory over the San Francisco 49ers. The game-winning kick was set up by an overtime takeaway when Devin Thomas recovered a Kyle Williams fumble on a punt return that was forced by Jacquian Williams. In the fourth quarter, Thomas had recovered a Kyle Williams fumble on a punt, setting up Eli Manning's 17-yard touchdown pass to Mario Manningham. The officials originally ruled that Williams didn't touch the ball and that Thomas had merely downed it. Tom Coughlin challenged the ruling and after review, referee changed the call to a fumble and a recovery. Manning threw for 316 yards and two touchdowns while setting Giants postseason records with 58 passes and 32 completions. The other touchdown was scored by Bear Pascoe, his first as a professional. Tynes kick another 31-yard field goal. Victor Cruz had 10 receptions for 142 yards, including eight for 125 in the first half. Ahmad Bradshaw totaled 126 yards from scrimmage, including 74 on the ground. Chase Blackburn had a team-high seven tackles (five solo). Jason Pierre-Paul had six tackles (five solo), a half-sack and deflected a pass. The 49ers scored on Alex Smith touchdown passes of 73 and 28 yards to tight end Vernon Davis and David Akers' 25-yard field goal.

Giants (11-7)	0	10	0	7	3	20

49ers-V. Davis 73 yd. pass from Alex Smith (D. Akers kick)

Giants-B. Pascoe 6 yd. pass from E. Manning (L. Tynes kick)

Giants-L. Tynes 31 yd. Field Goal

49ers-V. Davis 28 yd. pass from Alex Smith (D. Akers kick)

Giants-M. Manningham 17 yd. pass from E. Manning (L. Tynes kick)

49ers-D. Akers 25 yd. Field Goal

Giants-L. Tynes 31 yd. Field Goal

Jacquian Williams' forced fumble and Devin Thomas' recovery put the Giants in field goal range in overtime.

2011- GIANTS 21, PATRIOTS 17

*Super Bowl XLVI
Feb. 5, 2012

WORLD CHAMPIONS

History happily repeated itself for the Giants in Super Bowl XLVI. Ahmad Bradshaw's scored on a six-yard run with 57 seconds remaining in the game and the defense withheld one final assault from Tom Brady as the Giants defeated the Patriots, 21-17, in Lucas Oil Stadium. The Giants won their fourth Super Bowl and eighth championship in franchise history in a game that was eerily similar to their victory over the same opponent in Super Bowl XLII four years before. Eli Manning completed his first nine passes and 30 of 40 overall for 296 yards and a touchdown to win his second Pete Rozelle Trophy as the game's Most Valuable Player. He was at his best in the fourth quarter, when he hit 10 of 14 passes for 118 yard, including a pinpoint 38-yarder to Mario Manningham to start the game-winning 88-yard, nine-play masterpiece that was completed in 2:49. In addition to Bradshaw's touchdown, the Giants scored on Manning's two-yard touchdown pass to Victor Cruz, Lawrence Tynes field goals of 38 and 33 yards and a safety when Brady was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone. New England's points came on Brady touchdown passes of four yards to Danny Woodhead and 12 yards to Aaron Hernandez and Steve Gostkowski's 29-yard field goal.
